Dear Students and Parents,

Independent reading is an important part of the Language Arts curriculum at Weber Middle School. One of our goals this year in English/Language Arts is for our students to feel a greater appreciation and love for reading. We also wish to see Weber students continue to grow and mature as readers. We encourage parents to model a love for reading and discussion of literature at home. To this end, we have chosen a variety of books as summer reading. They are all approved, grade appropriate novels. Students are required to read only one novel from the list. When incoming 8th graders return to Weber in the fall, they should be prepared to write an essay about the book they read over the summer. The question will relate to plot, theme, setting, and conflict.

Children of the River (Crew)

Camp Confidential TTYL (Morgan)

The Port Washington Public Library, Dolphin Books, and Barnes and Noble have been given a list of the required summer reading for Weber Middle School so that they can make them available to you.
