

The Port Weekly

Volume 1 Port Washington High School, Feb. 18, 1925 Number 15

The proceeds of the N. Y. U. play, which were given as $389.50 in the last number have been increased $10 through the kindness of Mr. Alex. Stern, Bayview Ave. Our Senior class thanks Mr. Stern for his generous donation.

+ +

Typewriting speed tests have begun. The slogan is 20 words per minute for February. Some members of the classes have reached that mark; some have gone beyond it. Armene Keshishian now leads both classes at 30 words per minute.

+ +

The Lynbrook High School sent us a copy of the "Clarion News" which is a sheet similar to this "Weekly" printed on the mimeograph. It is worthy of Lynbrook in every way and we congratulate them on their paper.

+ +

The 4 A Seniors made their debut in society last Wednesday evening by giving a very successful dance. A large number of students and several members of the faculty were present to trip the light fantastic to the music of Butler's Gang. The total proceeds of the dance were about $30 but as the expenses amounted to $15 the total profit was only $15.

+ +

The other day in class, Miss Sloane read the 4 B Seniors a letter from Virginia Linder in which she expressed her thanks to the class and to the faculty for "putting over" the N. Y. U. play in such a successful manner and also for giving the cast such a delightful supper afterwards.

+ +

Is May at home?
May who?
May O. Naise.
Yes, but May O. Naise is dressing!

Miss Johnson (while treble clef is singing "Strong Boys Strong"): "Girls! Don't hang onto the boys so long!"

+ +

Doctor Calvelli (To Evelyn Allen): "You are all right. Your pulse is as regular as clockwork."

Evelyn: "You've got hold of my wristwatch."

+ +

Soph: "We'll be friends to the end!"

Senior: "Lend me five dollars?"

Soph: "That's the end!"

+ +

FAMOUS SAYINGS

The Girls-"I'd like to meet a real sheik!"

The Boys-"Ho hum!"

Miss Shafer-"I said quiet!"

Miss Winter-"The translation for tomorrow will extend as far as line 289. Mark the following words for syntax."

Miss Beale-"All talking stopped."

Mr. Hill-"Mary Hopkins, detention at 3:30."

Ruth and Eleanor-"We weren't talking, merely studying."

John Persson (To the girls)-"Anybody wanna come to the movies with me?"

+ +

Proud lady to conductor on train: "Certainly, if I pay my dog's fare, he will be given the privileges of a passenger and allowed to occupy a seat?"

Polite Conductor: "Surely, madam, provided that he doesn't put his feet on the seat."

+ +

Teacher: "Give me a sentence using notwithstanding."

Bright Student: "I wore out the seat of my pants, but notwithstanding."

BASKETBALL

Last Friday afternoon the P. W. Five played Roslyn here. Although Roslyn won 20-16, an analysis of the score shows that Port scored eight field goals to Roslyn's six. Roslyn scored eight points on fouls. In the opinion of the referee, Roslyn committed only one or two fouls so Port had to do the best they could from the field. This was the most heartening game of the season. The team appeared to have been rejuvenated. They fought as hard as they could and they treated the gallery to a great game.

We think the team deserves credit for what they did. They had been playing very poorly and listlessly. But there was some difference in the Roslyn game. Every man did his best and they tamed Roslyn's individual stars very noticeably. If the team fights as hard for the rest of the season, we shall have no cause for complaint. A team that fights and loses is far superior to a team that just loses without any show of ambition.

This Friday we have a return game with Oyster Bay over there. We beat them 38-14 here and there is no reason why that victory can't be duplicated. We want as many as possible to go to Oyster Bay, Friday. A team can always play better before a home crowd.

The line-up:

Roslyn		Port Washington
Guiler	F.	Mallon
Farrington	F.	Picone
Pisoski	C.	Porter
Pecan	G.	Greet
Sucholski	G.	Raff

Field Goals: Roslyn-Guiler, 3; Farrington, 3. Port Washington-Mallon, 3; Picone, 3; Greet, 1; Raff, 1.

Foul Goals: Roslyn-Guiler, 2; Farrington 3; Pisoski, 1; Pecan, 1; Sucholski, 1.

Substitutions: Roslyn-George for Guiler; Steinberg for Pisoski. Port Washington-Picarrdo for Greet; Markland for Raff.

Referee: Girling.

+ +

Last Friday afternoon the girls' basketball team played Roslyn on the home court and beat them 30-8. It was the first home game that the girls have played this season. Our girls began splendidly and ended victoriously. It was a rather slow game for Port had no trouble making baskets.

At the beginning of the second half the entire second team came on the floor. You cannot have a good first without a good second team. They played a real game of basketball and played it well.

The game went on as usual when suddenly a Roslyn girl began to shoot for a basket as if her life depended on it. However, her efforts were not in vain for she made the basket which happened to be Port's, and thus added two points to our score.

The line-up:

Roslyn		Port Washington
Fenns	F.	Deegan
Penney	F.	Campbell
Hendrikson	C.	Crampton
Pain	G.	Frankfort
Wenger	G.	Petruski

+ +

Heard in Miss Schoonmaker's room:

E. Herbert: "Gee! But it's always cold in here!"

A. Olson: "How's that?"

E. Herbert: "Always zero!"

+ +

The only difference between a cow chewing her cud and a girl chewing her gum is that the cow generally looks thoughtful.

+ +

FACULTY PARTY

On Monday afternoon, Misses Shafer and Farlinger, and Messrs. Merrill and Hill entertained the other members of the H.S. faculty after school. The fun began at 4:15 when sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake were served. Then they danced to the melodies of the Victrola. The men proved to be efficient dishwashers and some of the ladies turned in and helped also. At 5:30 the party disbanded and all say that it was one of the most enjoyable afternoons of the year.

+ +

The following books have been received: Molly Make Believe--Abbott (Jr. H. S.) North of 36--Hough Her Father's Daughter--Porter Saturday's Child--Norris

+ +

The Department of Education of the Port Washington High School, the Faculty and the student body in general cordially welcome Mr. John Daly as the latest addition to our faculty.