

The Port Weekly

Volume 1 Port Washington High School, Feb. 4, 1925

Number 13

Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire

The N. Y. U. Players in J. M. Barrie's fantastic comedy in three acts will give a performance in our High School Auditorium on February 7 for the benefit of our annual N. Y. U. Scholarship Fund. The tickets are going very fast and we advise you to get yours before the night of the play for the house will be entirely sold out by that time.

These players are under the personal supervision of Mr. Randolph Somerville who is perhaps the foremost of amateur directors in this country. Some of the members of the cast will doubtless be seen on Broadway in the future, for several of the New York producers draw their casts from leading stock companies and dramatic schools such as this one.

You'll enjoy this play even more than you did the past ones. Get your tickets now and avoid the disappointment of being unable to obtain a ticket on the night of the performance.

+ +

There have been several new books placed on the shelves of the library which we hope will not be covered with dust when they are taken out. Among them are:

Prize Stories of 1923---O. Henry

Atlantic Book of Modern Plays---Leonard

One hundred fifteen books were loaned for use during vacation and 20 new books have been ordered. Our library is growing and we hope that you will use the books frequently.

One of Eleanor Abbott's books has been purchased with fine money and some reference books for the use of commercial geography students have been added to the library.

+ +

The chemistry class was startled by one of the most remarkable happenings ever recorded. A chemistry student was lulled to sleep in class the other day by the musical tones of HCl and H<sub>2</sub>SO<sub>4</sub>. Never before have we heard of chemistry's being conducive to sleep, but then--wonders never cease!

+ +

Miss Farlinger is back with us and we welcome her. She has been enjoying a term's vacation and we are glad that she is able to conduct her classes again.

+ +

FASHIONS

The response to our Fashion Department has been so great that we are going to continue it in this issue. We see that the Frost brothers and Roland Kraemer have taken to wearing knickers. The color is most pleasing and the check through them is quite the thing! We feel sure that they will never have to go "stag" to any dances!

And this week we might suggest a few hints in ladies' fashions. Our representative from Paris says that a band around the hair is very much in use. Mary Hopkins finds that this is very desirable but we think a colorful chintz more appropriate than the ribbon she wears. Also we might suggest that rubber boots be worn in place of goloshes. They would be far more impressive (and you must make an impression you know!)

This column will be continued next week and will contain information as to a new face powder that Paris uses.

+ +

S. O. S.

Milton Hopkins: May I speak to Miss Beale?

Students: Is the Port Weekly out yet?

M. Anthony: Lend me your vanity, Elsie?

Mr. Merrill: Will anyone go in the bus?

Miss Johnson: Won't you please sing?

Miss Beale (to Mr. Rumens): Where do you keep the scenery?

PORT WEEKLY

BASKETBALL

Friday afternoon the Port Quintet tripped over to Manhasset. Smarting under their last defeat at the hands of Sea Cliff, they had many high hopes in reference to this game. They lost by a score of 19-14 but, however, they were redeemed in the eyes of Port fans for the exhibition they put up. It was quite a contrast to the terrible game with Sea Cliff. The Port team seemed to have a new lease on life. Had it not been for a somewhat slow start they would have won handily. After the first quarter they played like demons and had the Manhasset boys on edge, but they have a long way to go yet, if they wish to avenge the four defeats thus far received.

Let's have as large a crowd as possible with the team at Mineola this Friday. They will need plenty of moral support if they intend to win in Mineola's court. That court is about the size of Miss Beale's room and the walls are solid, very solid, cement. The second team played in that court Friday night and were defeated 28-18, collecting many bruises and scrapes in doing so. They didn't have a chance in such a court and they had to play very hard to get what they did.

The line-up:

Manhasset		Port Washington
Hanson	F.	Mallon
Diever	F.	Picone
Maddans	C.	Porter
Ruggerio	G.	Markland
Pardi	G.	Raff

Goals from the field: Manhasset-Hansen, 3; Diever, 1; Maddans, 1; McQuillan, 1; Ruggerio, 1. Port Washington-Mallon, 2; Markland, 2; Raff, 2.

Foul Goals: Manhasset-Diever, 1; Maddans, 1; McQuillan, 2; Newbold, 1. Port Washington-Mallon, 1; Porter, 1; Greet, 1; Markland, 1.

Substitutions: Manhasset-McQuillan for Maddans; Newbold for McQuillan; McQuillan for Ruggerio. Port Washington-Greet for Raff.

Referee: Roof.

++

Two years ago the girls basketball team of P. W. H. S. won the championship. From the way they are scoring this year the championship is within their reach.

Last Friday the girls team boarded the 3:06 train from Port and arrived at Manhasset at 3:12 to play a hard game. It seems as if our girls are destined to make the first basket for every game. This time it was made by G. Crampton. It was a walk-away for us with a score of 38-12. As fast as the ball could be started from the center our girls made baskets.

The team's enthusiasm and ability was greatly increased by the presence of A. Frankfort on the team. We were all glad to see her at work again. Manhasset girls worked and made some wonderful plays but their efforts were in vain.

The line-up:

Manhasset		Port Washington
Hicks	C.	Crampton
Roginski	G.	Frankfort
Powell	G.	Petruskie
Schneider	F.	Deegan
Dumpson	F.	Campbell

Field Goals: Port Washington-Crampton, 6; Deegan, 5; Baikie, 2, Wackwitz, 4; Ray, 1; Campbell, 1. Manhasset-Schneider, 4; Dumpson, 2.

Substitutions: Wackwitz for Crampton; Goodale for Petruskie; Ray for Deegan; Baikie for Campbell.

++

Mr. Decker, Mr. Schreiber and Mr. Merrill entertained the Lion's Club at luncheon yesterday. The meal was served by Miss Lawson, the home economics teacher. Before luncheon the members of the club inspected the school buildings.

++

The 4 A Seniors held their first class meeting last Thursday. The purpose of the meeting was to carry out plans for a dance which is to be held in the gymnasium February 11. A refreshment committee was appointed and the meeting was then adjourned.

As has been the custom for the past year the dance will be limited to pupils in attendance at the school, their parents and the members of the faculty and Board of Education.

++

Don't forget Alice-Sit-By-The-Fire, Saturday, February 7!