The Port Weekly

Volume 1

Port Washington High School, March 11, 1925

Number 18

JUNIOR NUMBER

This number is devoted to the Junior Class. They have supported their number just as well as the Seniors did. Success, Juniors!

Things The Juniors Would Like To Know
Is Mr. Merrill Port's latest radio seller?
Why doesn't Miss Shafer bob her hair?
Is the fur coat the peasant costume of Port Washington?
Is the malady of the radio to come upon us?

FROM THE JUNIOR'S EPITAPHS

Here lies the body of Everett Frost;
He tried to arise when his legs were crossed.

Here lies the body of Dilly Pickle;
He tried to sell a stick of gum for a nickel.

Here lies the body of Catherine Sandy;
She ate some of the Junior's candy.

Here lies the body of Evelyn Allen;
She got in a quarrel with Dolores Mallon.

Here lies the body of Elbert Varney;
He tried to take the kill out of Hillarney.

Here lies the body of Gervase Border;
He whispered after the teacher said "Order!"

Here lies the body of Dorothy Ray;
She thought she had the right of way.

Here lies the body of chipper Dow;
He tried to skip French but didn't know how.

Here lies the body of little James;
Ice on the hill and he had no chains.

Here lies the ruins of Deegy's aim;
She made only---points in the last game.

Here lies the body of Francela Rose;
She came to school with a shiny nose.

Here lies the body of beloved Thel;
Her story is too sad to tell.

CANDY SALE

Was it a success? It certainly was--so much of a one that the Seniors became envious and are going to sell candy at the next game. But the Juniors succeeded in making $11.39, which showed the school that they are good salesmen, and proved that the High School Students are genuine Candy Kids.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION NEARLY BANKRUPT

The Athletic Association of P. W. H. S. reports that it is almost bankrupt. The teams are expensive to keep up and this cannot be done without your support. Attend the games, students! Buy Season Tickets! You surely don't want your school to cease entering the athletic contests of the county. It is your school, your team and your Athletic Association. Help it and you help yourself.

BASKETBALL

When Manhasset came here last Friday, we were sure of a victory. The first half ended 15-14 in our favor but they turned the tables and defeated us 28-17. Our boys played a good game and we are sorry with them. We know they won't fail us this Friday when we play Great Neck here.

The line-up:

Manhasset		Port Washington
Diener	F.	Mallon
Hansen	F.	Piconi
Maddaus	C.	Porter
Pardi	G.	Greet
Ruggerio	G.	Raff

Fields Goals: Manhasset-Diener, 7; Maddaus, 1; Ruggerio, 1; McQuillan, 2. Port Washington-Picone, 4; Raff 1.

Foul Goals: Manhasset-Hansen, 4; Ruggerio, 2. Port Washington-Picone, 4; Raff, 1.

Substitutions: Manhasset-Newbold for Maddaus; McQuillan for Ruggerio; Ruggerio for Pardi; Pardi for Newbold; Newbold for McQuillan. Port Washington-Enscoe for Mallon; Mallon for Enscoe; Enscoe for Mallon; Piccardo for Greet.

Referee: Girling.

3 A COLUMN

Here are a few songs about the 3 A Group which were composed by the members of that group:

How do you do, Mister Mari, how do you do!

How do you do, Mister Mari, how are you?

Now with you in every game,
We should surely win some fame.

Although to you this sport is tame,
how do you do.

How do you do, Douglas Miller, how do you do!

How do you do, Douglas Miller, how are you?

Hate your curly hair, diadem?
Why we prize it as a gem!

Tho' each morn you say "darn them",
how do you do!

How do you do, Betty Baker, how do you do!

How do you do, Betty Baker, how are you?

If you get to school by nine
You'll surely get dismissed on time,
If not to "35" you walk, sublime, how do you do!

How do you do, Max Bethge, how do you do!

How do you do, Max Bethge, how are you?

With your fascinating ways,
You'll drive the girlies in a craze.
They see your face in all their dreams, nights and days.
