The Port Weekly

Volume 1

Port Washington High School, March 4, 1925

Number 17

SENIOR NUMBER

This issue of the "Port Weekly" is to be entirely devoted to the Senior Class. It will be interesting to the other students to know just what the Seniors have done and are doing in school.

WHO'S WHO AMONG THE SENIORS

John Skillman

Johnnie's a boy whom we know will do well,

He's not a high stepper nor is he a "swell".

He's athletic and studious and full of good cheer,

All this makes us sure he'll be famous next year.

+ +

Miss Winter: "Caesar left Gaul with two legions--. What was I talking about, Eleanor?"

E. Jacobi (Dreamily): "Heaven."

+ +

A Senior stood on a railroad track,
The train was coming fast.
The train got off the railroad track,
And let the Senior pass!

4 A NOTES

The 4 A's have the honor of having the brightest Latin students in P. W. H. S. Edith Baikie and Emma Coles lead the school in Latin. This last Friday in Assembly Edith recited a passage from Virgil concerning the Storm. She translated this passage herself. When she finishes her course here, she plans to go to the University of Edinborough. Emma Coles leads the Cicero class but is undecided as to a college.

John J. Daly of the faculty is a member of the reception committee of the New Paltz State Normal School Alumni Banquet to be held in the Rose Room of the Waldorf-Astoria, Saturday.

BASKETBALL

On Friday, February 20, our second team played the Oyster Bay second team as a preliminary to the varsity game over there. Port showed unquestionable superiority over them and beat them 27-5.

+ +

Last Friday, February 27, our varsity team lost the game at Great Neck. It was a very close game for both teams were evenly matched. Our fellows played hard and fought to the end. The final score was 18-16.

The line-up:

Great Neck		Port Washington
Meade	F.	Mallon
King	F.	Picone
Kurz	C.	Porter
Werben	G.	Markland
Baker	G.	Greet

Substitutions: Great Neck-Hamilton for Meade; Meade for Hamilton; Kaplan for Kurz; Kurz for Kaplan; Evans for Baker; Baker for Kurz. P. W.-Enscoe for Mallon; Mallon for Enscoe; Raff for Markland; Markland for Raff.

Referee: Schawrock

+ +

The girls' team suffered their first defeat last Friday at Great Neck by a score of 12-10. It was one of the best games played this season but we feel sure that they will defeat the conquerors in the return game here. Let's hope for the best and all be present to cheer the girls on to victory. The game will be played on March 13.

Great Neck		Port Washington
Andrews	F.	Deegan
Brown	F.	Campbell
Raleigh	C.	Crampton
Gregory	G.	Frankfort
Travers	G.	Petruskie

The next number will be a Junior Issue, devoted to the activities of the Junior Class. Support your number, Juniors!

SENIOR BANQUET

Last Friday evening we, the Seniors and the Faculty, assembled in the Senior Room at 7:30. We then proceeded to the third floor to the "Banquet Hall". We were pleased and surprised to find the room charmingly decorated in our class colors, blue and yellow. On the eight tables were daffodils in attractive vases, very dainty little blue and yellow baskets containing candy and salted almonds and most attractive of all, menu cards printed by Mr. Schreiber.

The speakers of the evening were as follows: M. Anthony, Address of Welcome; Toastmaster, R. Lovejoy. Toasts by N. Gould, Mary Hopkins, A. Porter, E. Jacobi, R. Zurwelle and Prin. Wm. F. Merrill.

Miss Beale then announced the Port Light Staff which is as follows:

Editor-in-chief--Arthur Blackmore
 Associate Editor--Eleanor Jacobi
 Literature--John Reardon, Margaret Anthony and Edith Baikie
 Jokes--Mary Hopkins and John Moore
 Art--Robert Lovejoy and Rolf Zurwelle
 Athletics--John Skillman and Gertrude Crampton

Business Manager--Nelson Gould
 Assistant Business Managers--Alan Porter and Abie Raff

Faculty Advisors--Miss Beale, Mr. Schreiber and Mr. Merrill

Alumni Notes--Virginia Linder
 She also announced that Arthur Blackmore and Milton Hopkins were to represent the school at the Press Conference to be held at Columbia University next week.

After the speeches were over we repaired to the Gym where we danced until Mr. Rumens decided it was time for us to depart.

The Senior Class wishes to thank Misses Lawson, Beale, Sloane and Shafer and Messrs. Merrill and Schreiber of the faculty and also the committees who worked so hard to make the banquet a success.
