THE HONOR SOCIETY

Last Thursday afternoon the Honor Society held its second meeting for the purpose of electing officers and naming the society. The following officers were elected:

President--Alan Porter
Vice President--Charlotte Wackwitz
Secretary--Edith Baikie
Treasurer--John Skillman

Several questions in regard to names and the making of a constitution were brought up and all were left undecided until the next meeting.

The Latin One Contest has been indefinitely postponed because there was a baseball game on the day that it was to have been held and the pupils wanted to see that. As soon as the date has been decided we will announce it in this paper.

BASEBALL

Last Wednesday afternoon P. W. H. S. baseball team played the only game with Oyster Bay this season. As was expected Port overwhelmed the visitors 9-1. Linkfield pitched the first five innings with such commendable acumen that but one enemy reached the first sack, on a pass. Hamm pitched the remaining two innings and allowed two hits which resulted in Oyster Bay's lone tally. Port's playing throughout was quite efficient. Not an error was made and many delinquent batting averages soared except Bill Greet's. Poor Bill whiffed three times with such personal embar-

SENIOR HOT DOG STAND

The Senior class made quite a success of their hot-dog stand at the track meet last Saturday. They cleared about $10. This was very good, considering what their expenses were. Also they sent some lovely flowers to Helen Greig, who has been sick during the past week with a badly infected mouth. They all hope that the patient will soon be well and able to rejoin her classmates again.
