

The Port Weekly

Vol. VI

Port Washington High School, Thursday, October 31, 1929

No. 2

The Port Weekly

Published weekly during the school year by the students of the Port Washington High School, Port Washington, New York.

THE STAFF

Editor-in-Chief

Stuart K. Choate, '30

Assistant Editor

Hillard B. Swede, '30

Editorial Staff:

Winifred Croucher '31 Emily Wilson '30
Catherine Drnek '30 Louis Kent '31
Irma Terrell '30 Agnes Purdy '30
John Laurence '30 Sydney Maynard '30
Mary Lou Halsey '30 Frank Jenkins '30

Faculty Adviser

Bonnie R. Hawthorne

Member of the Columbia Press

Scholastic Association

A Thank You Vote

At the beginning of the school term many students felt something was going to be lacking in their school year. This meant a great deal to the class of "30", who are leaving us next June. Many plans that had been stored up during the vacation were going to be shattered.—"No Port Weekly"—The Fraternity stepped forth and got the students to cooperate with them. This organization has helped to make it possible for our school paper to exist by obtaining sufficient subscriptions from the school. The staff and students wish to thank the Fraternity for their fine spirit and success.

Return Your References

How discouraging it is to go to the Library during your only study period and find the reference book that you want is out for the day. The next day the same trouble is before us. If you do not take a book out for the day your fellow student will not have any trouble. Let him have a chance too.

Prof. Losey Presents Recital on "Macbeth"

The few people who gathered to hear Dr. Losey's recital of "Macbeth," Monday evening, were greatly rewarded. Dr. Losey first gave a resume' of his afternoon talk, explaining the play. He then interpreted the play as a whole, not only reciting the lines but actually creating scenes. Dr. Losey was well received in the afternoon by the students and equally well in the evening by the public. We hope to have him with us again.

Aviation Talk Given

Last Friday in assembly a very interesting talk was given by Lieutenant Donald E. Keyhoe on the "Spirit of Aviation". The many amusing incidents he told about his experiences in learning to fly, and especially about the joys of ballooning, were greatly enjoyed by the students. He also gave us a better understanding of Lindbergh's character, one which is of great interest to everyone.

Tryouts Today

The Red Domino Club is presenting about December 19 its year production, "Little Women" a dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's famous book. Tryouts will be held Thursday and Friday, October 30, 31 and Monday, November 4 the eight period in room 110. Parts will be filled as far as possible within the club. Anyone desiring to try for extra parts see Miss Hawthorne.

Soph Dance a Success

About two hundred were present at the Sophomore dance given in the Flower Hill Gymnasium last Saturday evening. A group of cornstocks in the center of the floor along with the black and orange ribbons gave the atmosphere of Hallowe'en. Constance Caldwell and Laura Anderson, as wooden soldiers, gave a tap dancing number. Toddy Richardson added to the success of the evening's entertainment with a vocal selection.

Play Series Started

The Red Domino Club gave the first of their monthly programs last Thursday, October 24, during the eighth period. "Knives in Syria" gave us a short view of the life of a Syrian peddler. "Common Clay" produced a very amusing court-room scene in which most of the characters turned out to be relations. The plays were well received and the casts deserve credit.

Great Neck High Radio Equipped

Each Room Has Speaker

The new Great Neck High School, one of the most up-to-date edifices on Long Island, has been equipped with loud speakers in every room. The pupils and teachers, in each of the forty-four rooms, come to attention when they hear Mr. Gaffney, the principal, report some article thru the radio apparatus.

He calmly sits at his desk and, without any bother, calls the name of a person he wishes to see, thus avoiding having to send messengers around to find that one. This is just one of the many uses of the magnetic speaker. Previously it would have been necessary for all pupils and teachers to gather in a single auditorium for the purpose of receiving common announcements. In a few minutes at the nouncements.

CIRCLE MEETS THIS MONDAY EVENING

The next meeting of the Circle promises to be very entertaining. One of the chief events that the entertainment committee, consisting of Katherine Burns, Barbara Maddren, and Sidney Maynard, have planned, is the initiation of Robert Guilford. Doris Hiller and Catherine Drnek have charge of the refreshments which, most likely, will be partaken of most heartily. The Circle is trying to this one of the best meetings of the year by asking all the faculty and alumni to attend.

EDUCATION WEEK NOVEMBER 11-16

The High School will hold an evening session in observance of Educational Week, Wednesday, November 13. There will be a short program in the auditorium at 8 o'clock and immediately after the seventh period classes will meet in regular session.

Since this is the first session to be held in our new school, let's show how much we like to work in it by being on hand Wednesday night ready to do our best class work!

New Books in Library

The following are some of the books recently added to the school library:
Gauss—Thru college on nothing a year.

Stockton—Bucaneers and pirates.

"And Then He Said—"

Theme song for the June Regents exams: "The Last Woes of Summer."

A Scotchman was staying at Monte Carlo. One day he happened to wander into the Casino, where there was a roulette table. After he had watched the players putting down dups on the numbers he threw a nickle on the table. The croupier knocked it off. The Scotchman picked it up and put it back on again and again the croupier knocked it off.

"Say," said the Scotchman, "what's wrong?"

"We don't take bets like that here," answered the croupier.

"Oh, I see," smiled the Scotchman. "All right, any part of it."

Stage Hand — Quick, ring down the curtain! One of the living statues has the hiccough!

Club Bore — "I was in the jungle— suddenly a lion ran out of the undergrowth toward me. I turned the other way — there was another lion! I was on the horns of a dilemma—"

Club Member (sarcastically) — "And did you shoot it?"

Customer — Two beef sandwiches.
Waiter — Eat them or take them with you?

Customer — Both, I hope.

"What's your name?"

"Quinn."

"Spell it."

"C-O-H-E-N."

"Here, waiter, you've brought me two eggs and I only ordered one."

"Yes, I know sir, but I didn't have the heart to separate them after all these years."

Wise and witty sayings by the old men of the Fraternity: "As out of date as a 1929 model auto in 1929."

The only way to get real silence in the school library would be to put up a statue of a golfer about to putt.

In some offices the workers are clock watchers, and in others they're so slow they watch the calendar.

Neusel—My ambition is to be a little sunbeam in this dark world and right now I'm trying to perfect some shoes for women that are larger inside than they are out.

Give the movie usher enough rope and you'll stand behind it.

Nothing makes a man madder at central than finding he has been asking for the wrong number.

Six New Members Voted Into Fraternity

At a meeting of the Fraternity last Monday, six new members were voted upon and admitted. They were, John Dunn, Chris Sanday, Hamilton Cimenera, Bronner and Red Curtin. The initiation committee is preparing to make the six full pledged members.

At the same meeting, it was found necessary to choose a club court to consist of the President, Mr. Costello, the Faculty adviser, and three other Fraternity members. Out of those nominated Neusel, Gould and Lanman were chosen.

"I aint in favor of nuthin English."
"Not even the language, I see."

Mr. Picket: "Name a liquid that won't freeze".

Grose: "Hot water".

Judge: "Whom did you marry?"

Clesen: "I married a women."

Judge: "Well, you fool, did you ever know anyone that didn't marry a woman?"

Ole: "Ya, my sister. She married a man."

"Heh, what's the idea of wiping your spoon on the tablecloth? What do you think the napkin's for."

Candy isn't fattening if you have to earn the money you spend for it.

The laziest man in Alabama sits down to brush his teeth.

Allen—Another thing that ain't what it used to be is the used car.

A new problem that confronts the hunter this fall is he may follow the hounds all day, only to find they've treed a flagpole sitter.

Alumnus—My advice to college boys: Stay in college. Outside there is no place for college man.

An education is a wonderful thing. No college should be without one.

Grand American institutions other than the Fraternity: Grand Pieannoze; Bungloze: Inshoorange Palsies, Choon Gum. Also Street Praydes, Athletic Stadyums, Detective Hoovez and Stallment Klectors.

"Here, young man, you shouldn't bite that boy when he's down."

"G'wan what d'you think I got him down for."

Blotto: "What kind of berries are those?"

Ditto: "Blueberries."

Blotto: "Blueberries! Why they're red."

Ditto: "Yes, but only while they're green."

There is usually a good number at the meetings but always a few forget to attend. Try and get out to make it as near a 100 per cent attendance as possible.

Great Neck Trims Port Team 13-0

The long-awaited for Great Neck game opened last Saturday with Port's kickoff. The first score was in the second quarter when Great Neck pounced on a Port fumble and then, on its first down, ran it to our twenty-five yard line. They drove the ball across the goal and kicked the extra point.

Nothing unusual took place in the third quarter but during the first part of the fourth Great Neck blocked a punt by Smith which Great Neck managed to recover. They then smashed their way to our goal where, on their fourth down, plunged over. The extra point was unsuccessful.

Great Neck kicked off with a 15-yard penalty and Port using an aerial attack, brought the ball to the center of the field at the end of the game, leaving Great Neck the winner by 13 to 0.

The Lineup

P. W. (0)	Pos.	Gt. Neck (13)
Jenkins	L. E.	Alexsey
Kalinosky	L. T.	Coules
Golder	L. G.	Frank
Kurejwo	C.	Oatley
Lanman	R. G.	Boyer
P. Smith	R. T.	Ccote
Teta	R. E.	Grages
Neusel	Q. B.	Porter
Allen	L. H.	Wright
Polk	R. H.	Minnich
R. Smith	F. B.	Kringle

Score by Periods

	1	2	3	4	Total
Port	0	0	0	0	0
Great Neck	0	7	0	6	13

Celerity Presents Cheer

The Celerity decided at their first meeting early in September that they wanted to help the Varsity Cheering Squad. The organization are presenting these cheers to the School. Everyone learn these cheers! Help your School and Team to Victory!

"Who for? What for?"

Who you goin' to yell for?

Port! Port! Port!

"When you're up, You're up,

When you're down, You're down,

When you're up against Port

You're upside down."

Next week we hope to give you two more cheers to learn. They were found on record from a school in 1916. Learn them now!

French Club Elects Officers

The first meeting of the third year French Club was held Thursday, October 24. Officers were elected Presidents Emily Wilson, Adrian Neusel and Secretary Clara Rolando. It was decided future meetings will be every Thursday during class period. A committee was appointed for entertainments and the members approved the suggestion of writing to students in France. The meeting adjourned after the group had learned the words and music of "Madelon".