"REHEARSAL" CAST CHOSEN

The November program to be given by the Red Domino's is a one-act play "Rehearsal" with an all girl cast. The cast is as follows: Freda, Florence Krage; Christine, Alva Thompson; Barbara, Constance Richardson; Gertrude, Agnes Purdy; Sonia, Eve Cleveland; Marjorie, Emily Wilson.

This play will prove extremely amusing.

SKIT GIVEN IN ASSEMBLY

Thursday the Dramatics class gave a delightful skit in assembly entitled "When you and I were young, Maggie." All the members of the class participated. The freak exhibit and the pie eating contest were probably the most amusing. In this Kenneth Fertig and Robert Read were leaders—they must like pie!

ALUMNAE ON HOCKEY TEAM

Lois Lewthwaite and Marjorie Haynes are on the Freshman hockey team at Middlebury College, Va. They both play the same positions as they did on the high school team, namely, Lois, goal keeper and Marjorie, guard. Keep up the good work, girls.

Initiation At Circle Meeting

Last Monday evening at 8 P. M. in the teacher's lunchroom, the "Circle" held its third regular meeting of the year. Among the alumni present were: Dorothy Williamson, Bob Hubbard, Mildred Erb, and Nealy Bansch.

The big feature of the meeting was the "inishashun" of that delightful personage Bob Guilford. Without going too far, we are permitted to state that said Bob Guilford was given a thorough lesson in the moistening power of aqua pura.

After the initiation, refreshments consisting of punch and sandwiches were served by Doris Hiller, chairman of the refreshments committee. Much "refreshed," the Circleites adjourned at 9:15.

TEACHERS SEE CONVENTION

All high school teachers of Port Washington attended the annual teachers' conference held in New York Friday. Addresses at the general session were given by Dr. Harry Holmes, Secretary of International Peace and Dr. Beatty of Harvard University. In the afternoon the special lectures were given by prominent educators in the various fields.

CHESS CLUB ORGANIZES

The Chess Club had its first meeting Monday, October 28, during eighth period in Mr. Studley's room. Eight persons attended. Robert Greig was elected president and a constitution committee was appointed.

The purpose of this club is to make chess more popular in the school as it is an unusual activity.

Let's wish them success in this endeavor.

JUNIORS DECIDE ON RING

Monday afternoon, at 3:45, the entire Junior class met in room 102 to choose a class ring from those which had previously been selected by a committee representing the four divisions. The ring which attracted the majority of those present was one presented by Dieges & Clust. This emblem was immediately chosen and is now eagerly awaited by the class.

CIRCLE MEMBERS IN CLASS

Speaking of a conglomeration of shining stars, it would be well to make note of the fact that out of fifteen Circle members in the school at present, eleven are gathered in Miss Duffy's 5th Period Vergil class.

"Little Women" Tryouts Held

Twelve Persons in Cast

Final tryouts were held last Thursday in the auditorium for the cast of "Little Women," the Red Domino play which is to given just before the Christmas holidays. There was a great deal of competition for some of the main parts but after much deliberation the following cast was selected:

Meg ..... Mary Lou Halsey
Jo ..... Margaret Smith
Beth ..... Doris Hiller
Amy ..... Ruth Frankfort
Mr. March ..... Louis Kent
Mrs. March ..... Charlotte Bohn
Laurie ..... Kenneth Fertig
Grandpa Laurence ..... Robert Read
John Brooke ..... Raymond Smith
Prof. Bhaer ..... William Otto
Aunt March ..... Ruby Fletcher
Hannah ..... Catherine Drnek

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

This year Port's basketball team will find all of its opponents eager to avenge last season's defeats. The season will open with Port playing host to Mineola, December twentieth. After a period of twenty-one days the team will meet Glen Cove at Glen Cove. There isn't any irregularity in the schedule until the team engages in a return tilt with Mineola. Then three games will be played within seven days. Most of the games will be contested on Friday evenings.

SENIORS HOLD MEETING

The Seniors held their meeting last Wednesday, to discuss the Senior Dance which is to be held November 23. Reports proved that the Seniors had a pleasant surplus from their recent candy sale. Just a little secret—the class of '30 promise us the peppiest music and entertainment on November 23 that we have ever had here in Port Washington High School.

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O!

Theme song for June exams, "The Last Woes of Summer."

Wife: "What's an optimist?"

Husband: "A fellow who looks at his shirt just back from the laundry and says 'Oh well we needed lace curtains anyway'."

A small girl travelling in the subway gazed at a very stout lady opposite.

"Why are you staring so rudely at me?" asked the lady.

"Well, there doesn't seem to be anywhere else to look," answered the little girl.

Little boy: "Look at that lady keeping the sun off her head with a parasite."

Little girl: "That's no parasite, that's a parable."

Little boy: "Get out, a parable is what you jump out of an airplane with."

Young Man: "Madam, we are holding a lottery for a Civil War Veteran. Will you buy a ticket?"

Lady: "Certainly, but what will I do with him when I win?"

A student in a university was accused to having a barrel of beer in his room. When the principal asked him to explain, he said that he had been ordered by the doctor to drink it as a tonic.

"Have you noted any improvement in your health?" asked the principal.

"Oh yes," answered the student, "when the barrel came I could hardly move it, but now I can lift it easily."

"Here's my bill" said the surgeon. I wish you would pay $200 down and then $25 per week."

"Sounds like paying for an automobile," said the patient.

"I am," said the surgeon.

Girl's father: "Young man, I hear you have been making advances to my daughter."

Boy: "That's right, and since you mention it, you might ask her to pay me back soon, will you?"

Bus driver (to driver of small foreign car): "Go get the other one and skate on the sidewalk."

Man (morning after night out, to kitten in his room): "That's right stamp your feet."

Mr. Studley: "Morgan, what was the 'Alien Act'?"

Scotty: "Well, any alien acting suspiciously could either be put in jail or exported."

ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE PAID FOR

And again the Fraternity has come through with colors flying! The task which the Staff of the Port Weekly gave up as hopeless was finally completed by that very noteworthy group of boys.

At the time of this writing approximately one hundred and sixty subscriptions have been paid, leaving almost fifty subscriptions that still need accounting for. Outside of that, we think that is a very good average.

The Fraternity has given the students their cooperation on this matter and has enabled them to have the much needed paper. Now, out of all fairness to the Fraternity, these unpaid subscriptions should be settled at the earliest possible convenience. If the debt is allowed to run through the entire year, at the end of the year, the Fraternity being responsible for all the unpaid subscriptions will have to account for all these petty amounts. This is not asking too much and an immediate settlement will be greatly appreciated. We thank you!! . . .

But why be serious? ? Let us gather about closer, children, and all join in singing that heart-rending ballad entitled, "You Stole My Wife, You Horse Thief!" . . . Two of our very worthy Faculty were seen at the Soph shin-dig Saturday Eve—but the fact is that they were only seen now and then—mostly then! "A School for Scandal," perhaps, huh? ? (Yes, we were awarded the custard earrings for that crack!) . . . Our Boy Friend walked up to us the other day and started to brag about his girl, says,—"yes, and her teeth are like the stars—" "Yeah," chimes us, "they come out at night!" Chalk up another for the Fraternity, Charlie! . . . Our dear friend Richard Butler has at last decided to render his services to Mr. R. H. Macy. Awfully good of him, don't you think?

And what, dear children, did the bee say when he stung the little girl's hand. You're right! "Give this little girl a great big hand!" . . . More scandal! Dirty Shirt Found in Miss Steirle's First Period French Class! ! When cross-examined Miss Steirle would not reveal the name of the person she was shielding but further investigation will soon show the culprit. We shall endeavor to keep you posted as to the facts of this astounding case. ! ! . . . And no column is complete without something about the absent-minded professor who, as the story goes, jumped from an airplane and didn't open the parachute because it wasn't raining! . . . We sort of hope that ends the jokes about the absent-minded professors!

. . . Nor, my dear little ones, is any column complete without some dirty dig at that hardy Scotch race. This time it seems that there were five Scotchmen who walked into a restaurant and one of them ordered a cup of coffee and five saucers! . . . One black mark for the Fraternity! . . . Well, we hope you have enjoyed our little offering and bid you a very cheerful adieu until next week.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS 5 GAMES THIS SEASON

The girl's hockey season is drawing to a close and it could be said that they have had a very successful season having won from every school except Great Neck.

At the beginning things looked very dull for Port. The squad was made up of about fifty girls and of those there were three or four who had played on the team last year.

Mildred Ciminera was chosen captain and altho' she was not up scratch at first, she has been strutting her stride during the last five games.

Besides Ciminera the regular team is composed of Wackwitz, Krage, Salerno, Rice, Smith, Campbell, Younger, Krebs, Reed, Emmerich and Kalinosky.

Following are the scores of the games which Port has played with her opponents:

Great Neck 3-4, 1-4; Hempstead 2-0; Hicksville 4-0, 6-1; Mineola 9-2; Woodmere 9-0.

MR. SEEBER SCORES

Mr. Seeber, besides coaching championship baseball and his duties as athletic instructor, still finds time to put Port on the map in another way. Mr. Seeber for the third time is President of the North Shore High School Athletic League. He has also been nominated for a state committee representing Long Island at Syracuse to decide upon state eligibility rules. Best of luck, Mr. Seeber!

SENIORS GET ORCHESTRA

On November 23, Gus Valle's orchestra is going to play for us at the Senior Dance. This dance is going to be the gala event of the season—don't miss it! The committees for the dance are: Agnes Purdy, Muriel Weitzner, Evelyn Hotopp, Irma Terrell, Arthur Morgan, and Walter Mullon. Many surprises are in store for you if you come.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE

"The Commodores" popular dance orchestra with which Barrett Border plays gave a dance on Halloween night at the North Shore club. The decorations and souvenirs were in keeping with the occasion. The dance was a large success and well patronized by students because of the holiday. Among those present were: Jinx Hotopp, Bob Geddes, Beulah Guilford, Allison Read, Ruth Frankfort and Bob Fertig.
