Editorial Comment

After the last splendid performance of the Pantomime Class, when it portrayed the history of American dancing, need it be said that everyone is looking forward to another such entertaining program. Now comes word that it will appear in none other than the annual Spring festival in the crowning of the queen. Let us consider the qualities a jeune fille should have to merit her selection. Last year's ballot gave the following qualifications, attractiveness, school spirit, appropriate attire and scholarship. In our opinion, appropriate attire is beside the point, as we consider our girls to be above the average in the matter of taste in dress. Perhaps a better standard for judging would be pleasing personality.

While a pleasing personality should include attractiveness and attire in good taste, yet it should include far more than these two qualifications. It should include, to put it generally, charm. A girl who is jolly, thoughtful, and considerate of others is the one in line for election to this position of esteem with her fellow students. Meanwhile, we remind you to be thinking of two girls, one to reign and one to perform the usual ceremony of crowning the queen.

P

The students ought to feel very lucky to have such talented teachers. The assembly last Friday was certainly a delightful departure from the usual student variety. Another such entertainment is eagerly awaited.

Trustees Elected To School Board

School Budget Approved

Last Wednesday, May 6, the election of the trustees of the Union Free School District No. 4 was held. This resulted in a very lively contest between the two sides and brought out 496 voters,—about 200 more than last year. There were two tickets, Mrs. Guilford and Dr. Calvelli, endorsed by both sides. Mr. Alker and Mr. Wilson appeared on one side and Mr. Irwin and Mr. Lewis on the other. Each side lost a candidate.

Mrs. Irene H. Guilford, Henry A. Alker and Herbert M. Irwin were chosen for the three year term and Dr. Eugene Calvelli was elected to complete the term of Walter F. Fleming.

The results were as follows: Dr. Calvelli, 496; Mrs. Guilford, 476; Mr. Alker, 265; Mr. Irwin, 246; Mr. Wilson, 241; Mr. Lewis, 240.

The annual meeting of the Port Washington School district was held Tuesday evening, May 5. The budget proposed by the Board of Education was adopted without opposition.

Assembly Date Changed

In order that "Boccaccio's Untold Tale", Port Washington's entry in The Pawtucket Play Contest may be presented, an assembly will be held this week on Thursday, May 14th rather than Friday.

The presentation will be in the order of a dress rehearsal for the cast, as they leave for the contest on Friday.

Pantomime Class To Give Festival

Students To Elect Queen And Crowner

With the spring to inspire them, the members of the Pantomime class are preparing for the annual presentation of their pantomime merits.

The program will be especially engaging this June, as the play without words that made Great Missen famous, "A Kiss in Xanadu" will be the special feature.

This drama is a romantic story of two bored souls, a prince and princess, who tired with the daily routine of life, seek adventure, unknown to each other, with the aid of disguises plus a beautiful park. Although the ending is not joyful, it is most logical, and therefore satisfactory.

Many dance numbers will be exhibited. One is a charming number delineating waves, and the art of swimming; one, a waltz, depicting Grecian friezes come to life; another, a capricious summer dance demonstrating human nature, or, the art of being lazy. Then too, an appropriate dance will be staged for the Queen, who has to be chosen from among the charming senior girls.

Following last year's plan the high school pupils will vote for the queen. The qualifications are:

- Attractiveness
- School spirit
- Appropriate attire
- Scholarship

The qualifications for the crowner are the same, with the exception that she be a member of the sophomore or junior class.

The program is dated for June 5, Friday afternoon, at the regular assembly period, and a price of ten cents will be charged.

Circle To Hold Reunion At Annual Banquet

These glorious spring days seem to hold a suggestion of social activities. The next big event is scheduled for next Tuesday evening, May nineteenth, at 7:00 o'clock in the high school cafeteria. The Circle is holding its annual banquet, which through tradition has become a reunion of all its members.

"All its members"—has a significance for the members of the English classes! Probably few ever realized just how many alumni the Circle has, until they started writing the invitations.

A delicious dinner has been planned by Miss Lawson, and is eagerly awaited by the guests.

It has been planned to have Mr. Dimmick as an after-dinner speaker. Members of the faculty as well as the alumni and active members of the Circle will be present.

Fratry Column

You should have seen Larry Ryan blush when he was called out of math class to interview a fair stranger of the opposite sex.

Flossie Krage says that a person can't say anything anymore without its being put in the Fratry column.

We almost thought we were going to witness a good fight the other day as Trig class was assembling. Jack Williams knocked the books off Jimmy Bruce's desk and naturally Jim, not very neatly, placed Jack's on the floor too. At this, Jack disarranged Jim's necktie and mussed his hair a trifle. But just as Jim was about to take full revenge Miss Griswold intervened and said that babies musn't play in the classroom. We hope they are sufficiently squelched.

Sure must be interesting conversation at that last table in the lunchroom during the fifth period to make such a crowd of boys gather. We wonder what the center of attraction is.

Donald Caldwell after waiting for a long time in the barber shop—"How long before I can get a shave?" Barber: "About two years, sonny."

We have heard this one before, but never believed it could actually come to pass:—

Miss Chisholm, to Sherman Angus, "Name a story by Scott." Gus—"I dunno." Miss Chisholm, "Correct, 'Ivanhoe.'"

Rating Corrected

The Port Weekly wishes to correct a fallacy in the issue of May 6. The mistake occurred in the article concerning the North Shore and Invitation Track Meet held here on May 2. It was stated that Port Washington took fourth place in the meet. The correct score as stated below gives Port third place in the North Shore Meet and second place in the Invitation Meet. Both meets had been combined making it difficult to keep the separate scores correctly.

North Shore Meet

- 1st—Great Neck—53 points
- 2nd—Glen Cove—26 points
- 3rd—Port Washington—24 1-5 p'ts
- 4th—Oyster Bay—22 1-5 points
- 5th—Mineola—19 points
- 6th—Hicksville—12 points
- 7th—Manhasset—11 1-5 points
- 8th—Sea Cliff—5 7-10 points
- 9th—Roslyn—3 1-2 points
- 19th—Westbury—1 1-5 points
- 11th—Farmingdale—0 points

Invitation Meet

- 1st—Great Neck—55 points
- 2nd—Port Washington—29 1-5 p'ts
- 3rd—Glen Cove—27 points
- 4th—Oyster Bay 25 1-5 points
- 5th—Mineola—19 points
- 6th—Hicksville—12 points
- 7th—Manhasset—11 1-5 points
- 8th—Sea Cliff—5 7-10 points
- 9th—Roslyn—3 1-2 points
- 10th—Westbury—1 1-5 points
- 11th—Farmingdale—0 points

Port Defeats Academy In Close Tournament

Island Tournament Begins

The first round of the Long Island tennis championship tournament took place on the Port Washington Yacht Club courts on Tuesday, May 5th. Roger Enscoe defeated his opponent Woodgid 6-0; 6-4. A match of doubles was also played but was termed illegal.

On May 6th at the High School courts, Port Washington defeated Friends Academy in a tennis tournament. Two matches of singles and of doubles were played. Roger Enscoe played singles against John Albertson, defeating him 6-2; 2-5; 6-4. Jack Williams, in a match of singles defeated his opponent 6-4; 6-4. Barrett Border and Tom Luey played a successful game of doubles against Floyd Northrup and Russel Smith, Port winning this match 6-2; 6-3.

The last and hardest fought match of the day, played by Robert Lafferty and Jack Williams of Port went to Friends Academy. John Albertson and William Chrystal played on the winning team and defeated Port 10-8; 6-4.

The Roslyn tennis team came to Port Washington last Saturday only to return home vanquished by the score of 4-1. Roger Enscoe, our first singles man, played Stringham, the Long Island champion for the past two years, and although Roger was unable to beat him, he put up a hard fight. This was the only match lost all the others being won by Williams and G. Wood in the singles and Mac-Gilvary-Border and Enscoe-Williams in the doubles.

Girls Win Opening Game of Season

The girls opened their tennis season for this year most successfully on May 5. The games played on the home courts against Woodmere Academy ended in a complete victory for Port Washington. In the first singles Mary Reed beat the Woodmere player, Louis, 6-0, 6-0, while Corrigan triumphed over Witmark 6-2, 6-0. Then Frank and Graff bowed to Krage and Martha Reed to the tune of 6-2, 6-3. On the other court Bohn and Rose overcame Rubin and Louis by 6-2, 6-2. With such a start as this, the girls' tennis season has a most hopeful outlook.

Schedule For The Week

The Schedule for the week of May 18-23, 1931 is as follows:

- Monday, May 18—Latin Club.
- Tuesday, May 19—Chess Club. Baseball at Mineola. Girls' Tennis—Great Neck at Port. Circle Banquet.

Third Defeat Sets Port Back

Manhasset Conquers Blue and White 10-5

The Port Washington baseball team lost a hard game to the Manhasset nine on the latter's diamond last Tuesday afternoon, May fourth. During the first few innings the hits came frequently and at the end of the third inning the score was tied, five to five. In the remaining innings, however, Manhasset pushed five more runs across the plate and the game ended 10-5 in Manhasset's favor.

Track Team Falls In Fast Company

Competing in the fastest meet seen on the Island this year the Port Washington High School track team placed last at the St. Paul's School Invitation Meet held at Garden City last Saturday afternoon.

Poly Prep of Brooklyn won the Meet with Stony Brook School and Hempstead High in second and third places respectively.

Cletus Polk took second in the pole vault being narrowly defeated by Bob Glover of Stony Brook at 11 feet 3½ inches. Lawrence Ryan tied for second in the high jump to earn 2½ points. Tom Luey won his heat in 220 yard low hurdles and finished fourth in the finals. Ed. Walker was the only other Blue and White man to score tying for fourth in the pole vault. The Port Washington total was 6 and 7-10ths.

The schools competing were Poly Prep, Stony Brook, Hempstead, La Salle M. A., Sayville, St. Paul's, Seawanhaka, Freeport and Port Washington.

'33 Inspects Rings

Last Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the class of '33 a group of sample rings and pins were viewed. In order to avoid much confusion and disorder two representatives from each home room will be appointed to reach a nearer decision as to which design will be accepted.
