PANTOMIME RECITAL TONIGHT

The Port Weekly

FINAL MUSIC FESTIVAL SUNDAY

Vol. XIV, No. 28

Senior High School, Port Washington, N. Y., Friday, June 10, 1938

Price 5 Cents

Port Weekly Staff Chosen After A Delay Mr. Corduan To Con-

Violet Levy New Editor, Stephenson, Thomas, Teta Associates

It is the custom each year at this time to revise the Port Weekly staff and have the last two issues of the paper printed by the new staff and editor. This system has proved most satisfactory as it gives the individual a chance to get acquainted with his duties and prepare himself for the work of the new school year.

On Monday, Mr. Herge an-nounced the new staff as present-

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF. Violet Levy Assoc. Editors: A. L. Teta, P. Stephenson, O. Thomas.

Assistant Eeditors: N. Gunther, C. Lewthwaite, F. Brooke. News EditorM. Markey Feature Editor......W. McQuade Copy Deck Editors: C. Webber,

B. Farrelly.
Music Editors: J. Swain, N. Keshisian.

Exchange Editor. Copy Desk: R. Brimm. E. Man-gan, J. Mullon, M. Butter-worth, P. Crosby, Susie Keshisian, J. North Duffield.

Office Staff: A. Ross, J. Lewis, E. Bralla.

Typists: A. Cozza, Joyce Dendievel, Josephine Rusas, Eileen Deegan, J. Young, Nathan Helms.

Feature Writers and Contributors: W. Kunz, A. Capparella, E. Jenkins, M. Harper, V. Fin-ley, R. Brock, D. Dendievel, M. Ray, D. Latham, H. Stephenson, B. Lawrence, F. Turrill, J. Lewis. Sports Staff: V. Mazur, D. Raymond, B. O'Brien, A. Cappa-

Advertising Staff: Business Advertising Manager B. Osborne Circulation Manager S. Ellice Business Advertising Staff: J. Renson, M. Copp, F. Ketten-

acker, B. Schauer, J. Shaad. In general, the adviser has tried to use people with journalistic experience and a knowledge of the essentials of journalism. The Edi-tor-in-Chief for the coming year will be Violet Levy. Her record of work for The Port Weekly is ex-tensive. In her sophomore year, she was on the copy desk staff. while in her junior year she adcanced to the position of Assistant Editor. Miss Levy has also had journalism and has proven herself highly dependable.

This year a new system was inaugurated whereby there will be associte and assistant editors. The former have more responsible po-sitions and will assist with the actual management of the periodical. This system was necessitated dressed in the latest spring fash-by the increasing responsibility ions and in several cases, even the increasing responsibility created by the printing of a larger The other editors were chosen in groups of three, each being appointed to work on a certain day of the week. Instead of three typists, as in former years. this year six typists have been jobs. chosen.

After its victory at the Columbila University Press Conference this year, The Port Weekly looks forward to another successful year in the field of journalism.

FILL ACTIVITY SHEETS

"Unless each member of every club fills out an activity sheet, nothing will come of our attempt," was Miss Buckley's forceful reply when interrogated upon the activity questionnaire.

From the answers given on the sheets the faculty hopes to discover whether our high school extra-curricular program is wisely the balcony. Names of prominent arranged, and if not, devise a more members of the faculty and stusuccessful schedule.

To date "The Port Weekly" is serpents. turned the sheets filled. A Activity sheets must be handed in now!

Punch and cookies in the shape of the half-year tuitions, while Martha Munhall received honorintermissions.

Musical Fete

duct Own Composition

A free public concert will be presented by the national and state champion music organizations of Port Washington Senior High School on Sunday afternoon, June 12, at four o'clock, in the High School auditorium. An added feature to the program will be the first performance of an orchestral number by H. C. Corduan.

Mr. Corduan Directs

For several weeks, the orchestra has been practicing under Mr Corduan's direction and on Sunday he will conduct the piece himself Mr. Corduan was a former memler of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under Toscanini and has been active as a member of various string ensembles which have played over the radio and elsewhere. A resident of Flushing he became interested in Port Washington's orchestra through some of his Port Washington students on the violin.

The organizations participating in this concert include the A Cappella Choir, which won this year's state contest at Amsterdam, and the band and orchestra, each of which won the National Regional Contest held in Albany several weeks ago. Each of these three groups will perform some of the selections which were used in the contests.

New Instrumentalists In addition, the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club, a boys' quartet and a harp trio will each render several selections. The boys' quartet is composed of William Buschman, Charles Griffes, William Effertz and Warren Kunz. The harp trio will introduce some new instrumentalists to the Port Washington audience namely Washington audience, namely. Ruth Blanchard, Nancy Swain and Audrey Bushnell.

Junior Prom Draws Crowd

Bill Fenno And Floor Show Are Success

By PEGGY STEPHENSON

The final bustle and scurry is over, the octopus has been torn apart, the waste baskets filled high and the Junior class still con-tinues to count the profits gained for them last Friday night when the annual Junior Prom was held.

The Port lads and lassies proved their satisfaction when it was announced Bill Fenno and the orchestra would supply the music, persuading "Mom and Pop" come along and join in the fun. The faculty also showed up and it was one grand evening for all. this year's experiment a success The committees in charge this year made good work of all their

Floor Show Supplied

Entertainment was supplied in the way of a floor show, directed by John Mullon. Shirley Ellice did a novelty tap dance, and Bette Davidson, Ann Riggs, June Mullon, Burr Miller, Ted Gregory and Jarvis Adams presented a lovely old-fashioned waltz in costume.

The decoration committee, su-pervised by Doris Fenton, Bee Farrelly and Bob Clark, managed to make the gym look like the one and only "Davie Jones' Locker." Dim lights of red and green shone on the treasure chest in the middle of the floor and brought to light the funny little fish, both dangling from the ceiling and surrounding dent body were written on the sea

Miss Bonnie Hawthorne Receives Port Light To Be Given Dedication For Her Brilliant Dramatic Work

Coming Attractions

Friday, June 10-Pantomime recital. Boys' tennis with Manhasset at Port. tennis meet Sunday, June 12—Orchestra, band and choir concert. Monday, June 13-Board of Celerity Education dinner.

meeting. Monday, June 13-Athletic Assembly of Awards.

Tuesday, June 14—Safety and Photo Clubs. Clio meet-14 Safety ing in the evening. Thursday, June 16-Senior banquet. Friday, June 17-Meeting of the band and the pantomime

Drivers' Club Get Licenses

New Members Will Take Their Road Tests

The members of the Port Washington High School Drivers' Club have given evidence of making a great deal of progress during this year since they have achieved the ability to take tests for their oper-ators' licenses. The members of this year's club will form the nucleus for next year's club.

There are fifteen people who will take a test for operators' licenses as a result of the instruction given them by Mr. George Markland and Mr. Edward Dodds.

Ready For Tests

Those who will receive their licenses are: M. De Leo, H. Brock, J. Allington, B. Singer, M. Siconofi, J. Lamberti, D. Hedges, A. Madi-son, J. Lillis, M. Urich, P. Turrill, F. Henbest, C. Rutherford, M. Noga and U. Show.

After these people had five hours of instruction, Mr. Markland gave them a test and then his O. K. They were given a second test and a card from Mr. Dodds stating that they may take their drivers' test. This last test was concedned with self-control, their knowledge of driving laws and the parts of the motor. Mr. Dodds then gave his O. K. and they are ready to take their drivers' test in Mineola.

Next year Mr. Dodds will work up a syllabus by which they may work. Already he has three or four commendable ones from different organizations.

Will Continue Work

The rest of the year will be spent in helping the fifteen people mentioned above pass their drivers'

Next year they hope to teach Junior and Senior operators to improve their knowledge of general driving conditions and facts concerning their automobiles. They will also train people with little or no experience.

Mr. Dodds stated: "I consider and I appreciate the fine co-operation of the year's charter mem-

N. Y. Scholastic Honors

Willy Knudsen and Beatrice Talmadge, recent alumni, and Mar-that Munhall have won honors in a recent contest given by the National School of Design in New

To participate in this contest it was necessary to attend instructions for six Saturdays and submit work which was judged in the contest.

The awards consisted of a twoyear free tuition. a one-year free tuition and four half-year free tuitions. Willy Knudsen won the Bert Schauer and June Mullon. second prize of a year's free tu- On Tuesday June 14, the A ition; Bee Talmadge received one

Annual Year Book Is Distributed To Students On Monday; Modernistic Arrangement Praised By Subscribers

By DORIS FENTON

After the final copies of the "Port Light" of the 1938 season were delivered on Monday, June 6, autograph hounds filled their pens and began searching for prospective customers. This year's annual more than fulfilled the expectation held by the five hundred subscribers. The surprise dedication to Miss Bonnie Hawthorne was really a surprise to both the students and Miss Hawthorne whose many and varied activities merit dedication. Cover Is Modernistic

Radio Drama

'Visual Instruction In The Schoo ls' Is Theme

On Sunday morning, June 5th over the WGBB network, Freeport, L. I., Flower Hill School presented a radio program on "Visual Instruction in the Schools." This was one of a series of broadcasts called "Exploring Nassau County Schools," which is sponsored by the Elementary Principals' Association of Nassau County for the purpose of acquainting the general public with the methods of modern education.

Mr. Herge Is Principal
The program was arranged by
Mr. Langdon, principal of Flower Hill School. In it he told an inquiring parent how important visual aids are in teaching. They visited two class rooms where actual lessons were in progress.

Mr. Curtis Herge of the High School took the part of the school principal. Mrs. Mary L'Ecluse was Mrs. Thomas, the questioning par-Miss Hedin and Miss Holt took the parts of the fourth and fifth grade teachers. The chilwho participated were: Bobby Stranahan, James Dykes, Julia St. Clair and Nancy Brandes of 4A. Werner Kuhlig, Inger Mol-Vivian Breithaupt and Lorene Seeber of 5B.

Visual Education Upheld Mr. Daly, principal of Sands Point School, concluded the program with some pertinent remarks based on his experiences as principal and as an instructor in visual education at New York University. He pointed out that visual education includes far more than the use of motion pictures. In summary, he stated that visual aids properly used do a great deal to:

1. To develop correct initial impressions: 2. To arouse and quicken thought and stimulate class room participation; 3. To aid the slow learners: 4. To stimulate research and investigation; 5. To increase permanence instruction:

6. To effect an economy of teach-

Port Washington, which has a Art Club Alumni Win reputation as a leader in the fields of visual instruction, was asked to give this particular program.

ART CLUB INCREASES

Ten new members have been chosen by Miss Allison for membership in the Honorary Art Club next term. These new members were selected from the various art classes because of thir outstanding work in art and for having an average of H for the term. They consist of Concetta Dellavechia, Bud McQuade, Paul Wood, Tony Forgione, Mildred Lang, Sophie Mingola, Ingrid Olsen, Dot O'Day,

On Tuesday June 14, the Art Nassau County Art League at Hempstead.

Miss Hawthorne said, in regard to the dedication: "I was deeply touched by the honor and am very Stars Grades grateful for it." Miss Hawthorne's tireless work in the fields of dramatics, dancing and voice instruction will long be remembered, and > will go down in school history. The modernistic cover and the informal page arrangement defi-nitely add to the appeal which pervades throughout the entire book. The styles of type and the photomatage of scenes in and around school were highly praised by the students. Some of the ama-

the plays which she has produced fective, nevertheless. Helen Brock, editor; Kunz, associate editor and future editor of the Port Light, and Mrs. Saul Scherer, faculty adviser, all felt that the publication was success. It has been generally acknowledged by the students that this "Port Light" is the "best"

teur photography did not print

as well as the other, but was ef-one yet published. The demand for books from people who did not subscribe is very great and all the demands cannot be met. The few extras that were on hand have already been pur-

Mr. Merrili Praises It

In regard to this year's book, Mr. Merrill said: "The quality of the material in the 1938 "Port Light' is excellent and the arrangement is very interesting. I feel that the staff and adviser, Mr. Scherer, should be complimented for the excellent work which they have produced."

As soon as the money due for the advertisements is collected, the work of the business staff will be completed. The revenue from these sources aided greatly in covering expenses. Through the efficient work of John Wilkie, $108.00 will be left in the treasury for the 1939 "Port Light."

1938 Graduation Dance To Be Held At Plandome

On June 27, 1938, the sensational Graduation Dance will be in full swing at the Plandome Country Club, adjacent to the Plandome railroad station. Due to the commencement exercises, the time of the dance was conveniently arranged at 10 p. m. to 3 a. m., furnishing you students with a five-hour event. The music will be furnished by that ever-popular leader, Fred Meinz, who directs the Baton Orchestra. You may recall the favorable comment this orchestra aroused at the Christ-mas Y. P. F. Dance.

As in the past, these dances are sponsored by alumni of Port Wash-ington High School. Gleason Ellice, Willie Knudsen and Bob Laman are the sponsors and they claim it to be the biggest and finest of its kind. As for the decorations, the aforementioned remain silent excepting that they will be a surprise.

There is no time to waste, so don your tails and evening gowns and purchase your tickets from Club plans to attend an exhibit Mike De Leo, Shirley Ellice or of drawings and etchings by the Mary Butterworth. The price of the tickets will be $1.50 couple or stag. Cherchezla femme!