Band Wins I Rating At Poughkeepsie

On Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26, many members of the Senior High School Band competed in the State Music Contest at Poughkeepsie. Those members of the band who weren't in solo or ensemble competition arrived in Poughkeepsie around noon on Saturday. Their time was their own until 6:30, when the band met in the school and tuned up preparatory to playing at 7:30.

Though the band wasn't competing in the contest, it received a rating. The reason the band played at all was to receive a criticism. The judge criticized certain things which will be corrected before they play again this week.

The ratings of the students who took part in the contest are:

Admits H. Johnson; Annual Picnic Discussed

The Circle held its monthly meeting April 7th at 8 o'clock, in the cafeteria. The entire Circle offered an apology to Harold Johnson, who should have been admitted in January, but due to a mistake was not included until April. The annual picnic was the topic under discussion and committees were formed to take care of this matter. Further plans will be made at the next meeting which will be held on May 5th. Following the business portion of the meeting all members, including Mrs. Johnson, who represents the faculty, retired for refreshments and games.

Students Obtain Honors At English Day Meeting

In the English Day program in Garden City last Friday, our school was more than satisfactorily successful. The three members of Port's spelling team placed near the top, having five mistakes to the winning team's two.

Martin Lewis, although his actual score is unknown, received a certificate of award for his excellent vocabulary. Only two other certificates were awarded although twenty-one schools participated. In grammar, Kathryn Woodward was only one point behind the winner, and Dale Ely made a very satisfactory record for herself in interpretive reading.

This was the first year we entered this competition, even though it was instigated last year. The reason we did not participate last year was that Port's spring vacation occurred at that time.

Fratry Boys Have Days Of Behavior Education

The new Fraternity boys have put in 5 days of gruelling routine and hammering. Tomorrow will mean the end of their week of behavior education. They have stood up very well and showed willingness and cooperation in doing their tasks.

The members who survive to face the ordeal tomorrow are:

B. Aitken
 H. Allington
 J. Barrett
 D. Brimm
 E. Connors
 J. D'Agustino
 H. Hooper
 E. Kaelber

Band In 'Nationals' At Atlantic City

Today and tomorrow the band is staying at Atlantic City to play in the National Contest.

All of the soloists left this morning at 6:30 and the rest of the band members are leaving this afternoon at 1:00.

Mr. Christopher engaged two Greyhound buses for the trip. The school busses took the people to New York and from there they went to Atlantic City on the buses.

All of the soloists have to play today and the band is going to play tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. The people who are eligible for the National Contest are as follows:

Clarinet: Marelyn Effertz, Lois Baker, Hugh Montgomery, Bobby Mitchell, (J.H.), Charles McDonough (J.H.); Cornet: Angelo Manso; Oboe: Mary Humphries.

Trombone: Peter Aspinwall; drum: June Rivers, Bill Helfrich; flute: Margaret Ross, Louise Wysong; French horn: Richard Kirkup, Paul Smith.

Clarinet quartet: (H.S.) Lois Baker, Billy Campbell, Claire Gibson, Steven Bomer; (S.H.) Paula Reed, Marelyn Effertz, Horace Wilson, Patsy Indence; (J.H.) Hugh Montgomery, Ned Bullis, Billy Hewitt, Doris Senn.

Nassau Student Press Meet at Adelphi, May 7

On Wednesday, May 7, the annual convention of the Nassau Scholastic Press Association will be at Adelphi College. There will be discussions and speeches on various phases of editing a school newspaper. The people listed on this week's masthead and all members of the journalism class are eligible to attend. Those who are interested should give their names to Martin Lewis and get bus cards.

Graeme Zimmer and Eileen Bohnel will lead a round table discussion on advertising.

Mary Louise Teta will be the president of the Port Washington Senior High School next year, as a result of the general organization elections held on Tuesday. She placed first by a margin of over sixty votes, but failed to carry any of her party to victory with her. Kelvin Kable was elected vice-president, leading his nearest opponent by almost one hundred tallies.

Pierre Loiseaux captured the position of secretary by the largest plurality of any winning candidate, almost one hundred ninety votes, and polling exactly twice the total votes of the runner-up. The place of treasurer was, however, very strongly contested for by all three candidates, with Roger Montgomery winning by less than thirty votes, and the other two candidates running closely.

From now until the end of this school year these new candidates will sit as ex-officio members of the student council, attending all meetings, so that they may become well acquainted with the manner of operations of the student government. In September 1941 they will take office.

Many problems will face this new slate of officers, but it is expected that they will do a good job, as evidenced both by the support given them in the election, and their proven ability. The other candidates were all capable and would no doubt have made good officers, but the school has voted, and we are sure that they will forget the heat of campaigning, and give all their support to the choices of the majority of the school.

The question at the bottom of the ballot, with regard to the purchase by the person marking the ballot of a G. O. ticket next year, was omitted by some homerooms in balloting, and so no figures are available on this.

Miss Riera, New Teacher

Starting last Monday, Mrs. Bambino took Mrs. Goldenheim's place as one of the Spanish teachers. Mrs. Goldenheim has resigned, and next Monday Miss Riera will take her place. Miss Riera went to New Rochelle College and had her training at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Students Speak

Elections are over! The students have spoken! Mary Louise Teta, Kelvin Kable, Pete Loiseaux, and Roger Montgomery are the new officers for the next year. The campaigns were staged forcefully and with true school spirit. What with buttons, papers and posters floating around, the election forged ahead with great rapidity.

The final decision came on Monday afternoon, when the auditorium was filled with eager faces and nervous candidates. Speeches and last-minute campaign material were the chief attractions besides the cheerful faces of the campaign managers.

This election is a very important step for the future of the General Organization. Next year will prove the success or failure of our student government. It is up to Mary Louise to see that the council upholds its duties; 'Monty' will have to see to it that the treasury is in a healthy financial condition; Pete will have to take care of the correspondence and minutes of the meetings; and last but certainly not least, Kelvin will have to take over the duties of the presidency if the president has any mishap.

The vital concerns of our school system is in the hands of these chosen, and all we, students place their implicit trust into the hands of these competent and trustworthy officers.

TO THE BAND

Last week-end the band went to Poughkeepsie to participate in the state contest. They received a rating of I, which is the highest rating possible. Preparing for the contest called for a great deal of extra time and cooperation on the part of its members.

Today and tomorrow the band will be at Atlantic City to take part in the national contest. We know that they will do their best, just as they have in the past.

To have a band that year after year takes top honors is indeed a credit to our school. We commend the band and to its hardworking members and ambitious director, we take off our hats!

Ignore It!

By George Levine

If your parents are the type
Who always have a gripe
Who claim you don't do schoolwork
and deplore it,
Why, really, old chap — Ignore It!

* * *

If you're feeling somewhat blue
And things don't break for you
It's just a lot of ballyhoo,
Go on — Ignore It!

* * *

If from nothing you don't know
And teachers often tell you so
Well, they know what not to do
Obviously — Ignore It!

* * *

If your intentions are the best
But they claim you are a pest
Just fain to be imprest,
I say — Ignore It!

* * *

If they yell "get on the ball"
Till you're not content at all
Please do not essay a brawl,
Constantly — Ignore It!

* * *

If reprisal you're afraid of
Or a similar parade off
They're such stuff as dreams are made of,
Chins up — Ignore It!

* * *

And in conclusion —
Your slightly insincere bard
Casts off his mantle of pseudo-cynicism

And strongly recommends that
If you would be successful in life—
Eschew taking seriously the significance

Of this little message;
In other words friends—

Ignore It! ! ! ! ! !

Tennis Ladder Arranged For Girls' Tournament

The girls' tennis has started this year. Already, the list of those interested in making the team has been posted in the form of a "ladder." Girls who were out for the sport last year and who have had experience are nearer the top; those who are new, will have a chance to "work their way up" by challenging the person one or two places ahead. About forty people have signed up for the sport which began, officially, last week. The following people are on it in this order:

M. L. Teta, R. Smiles, A. Ross, B. Kerby, H. Davis, R. Scholl, B. Conlin, D. Ely, M. Brodie, L. Wysong, M. Ross, R. Occhipinti, J. Rivers, H. Allen, J. Lewis, B. D. Pearson, V. Rickert C. Dellavecchia, C. Campbell, H. Rabo, M. Allen, C. Gibson, A. Barrett, A. Reardon, J. Stewart, C. Campbell, R. Farrelly, R. L. Seaman, P. Reed, B. Campbell, R. Hostage, J. Johnson, H. Kleskowski, P. Jones, W. Lisiecki, M. Croll, D. Lunde, I. Finch, J. Dettori, P. Machlin, B. Amthor, G. Dean.

Everett Wilson: His Daze

HOW TO RIDE IN A BUS

At one time or another, most of you go on what is mistakenly called a "pleasure" trip. These are the little trip where everybody bounces into the bus and limps out. We have never yet been on a bus ride where we weren't forced to recline in some cramped position. Take, for instance, getting into the bus. You have to crawl over loads of struggling students, all of whom seem intent on tripping you. We have found it embarrassing to fall into somebody's lap and then suddenly find ourselves on the floor. What's the use of having seats, anyway, if you're to spend most of your time on the floor?

Let us suppose that you finally get a seat, say between a two-hundred pounder and a girl who has elbows as sharp as knives. You have your choice of either trying to squeeze the "fats" and getting squashed or squeezing the girl and subsequently getting your face slapped. Why, we were so cramped in that bus one day, that when we went to take a breath, we inhaled our shoe. After we got out, it took us forty-five minutes to untie our arms. When we did, our left arm was on the right side and vice-versy.

FOILED AGAIN

You thought we were going to say something about the band's trip to Poughkeepsie, but enough has already been said about that. However, we would like to say that the conduct of the musicians was the best possible and we hope that no one gets any illusions about the band members' behavior. Everything ran off smoothly and Mr. Christopher was the only one who had any trouble.

FASHION NOTES

Don't look now girls but a group of boys were given an opportunity to review the latest fashions for girls and here are their opinions: (And don't forget we're not responsible for these)

Boys don't like to be imitated so keep away from coats and pants. How would you like it if they wore skirts?

Sports clothes are alright but not potato sacks. Either wear stockings or anklets. Don't try to be a Girl Scout and wear knee-high socks.

Don't wear a lot of jewelry. It makes you look like a dowager.

Don't be Hedy Lamarr. We like you for your own little selves. Or do we?

If you're going to carry a bed roll, toothpaste, a box of Wheaties, and an electric toaster, use a knapsack not your pocketbook.

Keep your jacket on or else you'll get such a cold reception that you'll have to put on your jacket or freeze to death.

Personality in the News

"Who you shoving?"
"I don't know. What's your name?"

Birds in a Gilded Cage

Warden: "Boys, I've had charge of this prison for ten years and we ought to celebrate the occasion. What kind of party would you suggest?"

Prisoners (in unison): Open House.

Joke?

Boy: "Do you know the difference between a street-car and a taxi-cab?"

Girl: "No."

Boy: "Good! We'll take a street-car."

Animal, Vegetable, or Mineral?

From the Lost and Found column of a Nashville paper:

"Bird of hat—flew in or blew in out of car passing Dannaher's Service Station, Franklin Road. It's sorta round with green and red polka-dot quills or feathers in it. If you've lost a hat or a bird, drive by and see it—it's funny."

The Back Alley

By Roanne Hicks

To all bowling fans, enthusiastic or not, good or no good, tall or thin, male or female, or whatever you may be, this column is respectfully (?) dedicated.

The bowling season is about to end! As you frequent bowlers know, most proprietors wipe their weary brows in May, grab their swimming trunks and close shops for the summer. As a final treat for all the gals and guys that love bowling, a tournament is to be staged at the Manhasset Bowling Alleys, and—, in order to give everyone an even chance, no adults will be allowed to enter.

The tournament is to take place in approximately two or three weeks, and will be divided into two divisions. Each team consists of one boy and one girl, and the total number of pins for each team for three games will decide the winning team. Boys and girls bowling an average below 135 will be entered in Class B, and those bowling over 135 will be entered in Class A. Per usual, there will be trophies for the winners of each division. Three games will be bowled by each team, and those three games will be paid for with the 75 cents entrance fee charged each person. That is extremely reasonable for a tournament fee, as the trophies are by no means cheap.

Further details will be found in this column next issue, but in the meantime, find a bowling partner, and see me about entering. We need your cooperation this week in order to make the tournament a success.

Port Loses 2-0
To Great Neck

Two runs in the sixth inning gave Great Neck High School a 2-0 victory over Port in the Blue and White first league encounter last Friday afternoon.

Sinkowski and Greco, pitchers, each yielded three hits. Sinkowski fanned 12.

From the opening inning, it was apparent that the game would be a pitcher's battle. Greco, pitching coolly, kept the Orange and Black subdued with only one hit for the first five frames. Sinkowski was also effective and Port was able to gain only two safe blows off his delivery during the same innings.

In the sixth, Great Neck combined an error, a line drive triple and a beautifully executed "squeeze" play for their winning runs.

John McCarthy, batting for Aitken in the seventh, lined a single over first but Sinkowski bore down and retired the next three batters to insure the victory.

Port Washington will play host to Glen Cove this afternoon in a game marking the first home appearance of the Blue and White this year. Greco is the probable pitching choice.

It has been suggested that Port Washington High School have a golf team. In fact, it is fairly certain that Port will have a golf team. Mr. Hendrickson has kindly consented to advise the team. The team will consist of six men, and matches are now in the making with the other schools around Port Washington.

The sport of golf has been one of the favorite sports in the country and is now rapidly beginning to creep into high school sports. The team is as yet undecided, and there will be a few practice rounds to determine who will be on the team. The squad meets every Monday after school in Mr. Hendrickson's room. Anyone interested may attend the meeting.

Port Host At 23rd Invitation Meet-May 9

Oldest Track Meet Celebrated Event

The oldest track meet in the county's history, the Port Washington invitation, will celebrate its 23rd birthday on May 9.

Started back in 1919 by Dr. Henry F. Mace, then director of physical education, and now a state department medical examiner, the Port invitation has come a long way, and for the past ten years has annually held the honor of sending Nassau's "big meet" campaign off to a flying start.

Under the direction of Carl Seever ever since May 1922, the meet is really a preview of the North Shore Championships, since only schools from this area are invited to attend. However, there was a time when south shore representatives played a prominent part in its activity.

Up until 16 years ago, when there wasn't an abundance of track and field competition among our schools, Lynbrook, South Side and other of the south shore schools used to compete. On two occasions team honors were captured by these squads, South Side and Lynbrook turning the trick.

Records reveal that the major portion of the laurels have gone to the host teams. Thirteen times the blue and white clad athletes of Port Washington have returned the team-cup to the trophy room.

The archives further reveal that Westbury has won the meet three times, Great Neck twice and Hicksville, Sea Cliff, Oyster Bay each one.

Oldest standing record of the meet is high jump. A Port Washington athlete, Lovejoy cleared the bar at six feet and one-half of an inch in 1928. Ben Hendrickson's 0:53:3 quarter, Jack Gesselein's 2:04.1 880, and the Hicksville relay team of

BOYS' SPORTS

By Mikey Caparella

The Port Washington High School nine has started another baseball season with many of last year's regulars gone. Many rookies and last year's second string men will fill the gaps left by them. The infield will see three new faces, with Aitken at first, Veit at second, and Fields at third. Lampy will be the newcomer in the outfield.

Port has a very good defensive team, and a line-up packed with power when they are at bat. Morrison at short stop is the sparkplug of the team. His snappy play and peppy yelling will give the team zip and vim. He is constantly rattling the pitcher when he is on the base paths. With Caputo, Kelly and Lampy in the outfield, we have a powerful unit. They showed it when they put their three hits together in extra innings against Sea Cliff to win the ball game.

The pitching so far has been fine

1938 that captured the 880-yard four man event in 1:36 are other outstanding marks.

Last year Port won the invitation and the North Shore Meets; in fact, they won all the meets.

and it should keep up. Grecco and Seifts are two Junior High products and have each turned in a winning performance so far. They should turn in many more well pitched games. If this continues, we will have a contender for first place.

GIRLS' SPORTS

By Frances Mangano

On Thursday afternoon, the season for softball and archery began. There was a large turnout of girls for archery and a fair amount for softball. Most of the girls that signed up for this sport didn't turn out for it. All the girls that were on the softball team last year are out again this year.

Those that were on it last year are: Helen Sullar, Frances Mangano, Ruth Hurberg, Rubina Natale, Roanne Hicks, Mary Antonelli, Eleanor Bruzinski, Mary Caruso, Jenny Bottelegeri, and Millie Trinchetella. Judging from practice, here are some newcomers that may turn out to be good players.

Tennis is well under way. The ladder has been made and a great many girls' names are up. The girls are having a good time challenging each other for "love" games.

Archery only started last Thursday; forty-three girls have already come out. Miss Rich expects to cut the squad to about twenty-five girls. Those left over from last year's squad are Helen Bernfield, Ruth Jorgensen, Carol Hedges, Margaret Mangano, Barbara Kingsley and Jessie Pearson.

PORT'S TENNIS SQUAD

The following boys are out for the tennis team: Roy Larssen, Manager, Ryder Amthor, James Barrett, Tony De Feo, Dudley Goodwin, Holm Hinrichs, Jim Hobbins, Martin Lewis, Hal McCartney, Bob Walter, Paul Williams, Pete Loiseaux, Larry Lord, George Levine. Mr. Brown, the coach, has not announced the team as yet.
