Prom Comes June 6 Committees Held

-BY E. WILSON

Under the direction of Junior Class President, Eddie Kaelber, plans for the monstrous Junior Prom to be given on June 6 are now well under way. The members of the Junior Class met a week from yesterday and plunged into the task of putting on a dance that will really be something to remember. At the present time the dance committee is looking for a good theme for the Prom and they have promised that when they do get the theme, it will really be something.

The starting time for the dance has not yet been set but the closing time is definitely one o'clock. It has definitely been stated by the committee that this year's Junior Prom will not be just another dance but will be a real entertainment value.

COMMITTEES SELECTED

The Music committee consisting of Peter Aspinwall, Helga Bodtker, Rutledge Ray, and David Sprague, has not definitely decided on a dance orchestra for the evening, but they are looking over all the bands in the vicinity. The Publicity committee consists of Everett Wilson, Shirley Lawton, Doris Mitchell and Richard Tyson. They ask that anyone who would like to draw posters kindly get in touch with them as soon as possible.

The Invitation committee has one sole member, Ruth Farrelly. As usual all the seniors will receive incitations.

On the Decoration committee, we have Charlotte Breaznell, Beverly Amthor, Marjorie Eager, and Paul Fields. The official tasters, otherwise known as the Refreshment committee, is composed of Ruthanne Studebaker, Dudley Goodwin, Ida Yewell, and Joe Featherstone. The refreshments for the evening are expected to be quite enjoyable—we hope.

Tuberculin Tests To Be Monday, Tuesday

The Tuberculin Tests will be given next Monday and Tuesday, May 27 and 28. The tests will be given in the Medical Office and will be administered by Dr. Daltroff.

All those who have their cards in and signed by their parent are eligible for the tests. Students will probably be informed through their home rooms for the time their test is to be given.

In The Crystal Ball

Sat., May 24 North Shore Track Meet at Westbury.

Tues., May 27 Baseball Game with Great Neck at Port.

Wed., May 28 Traffic Squad Dinner

94 New Members Join Safe Drives

Since the organization of the Safe Drivers' Club on March 15, 1938, one hundred and forty-three pupils have received instruction on the theory of good driving. Of this number, forty-six were given actual driving instruction by Mr. George Markland, Ninety-four pupils were issued membership cards by the club.

Not one of the members of the Safe Drivers' Club has ever been arrested for a motor vehicle violation or been involved in a serious automobile accident due to his own negligence.

The members of the Safe Drivers' Club have been invited to the Traffic Squad Banquet which is to be held on May 28 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets must be purchased by Monday, May 26 from either of the following: Edmund Caputo, Ruthanne Studebaker, or Russell Beckley of the Traffic Squad. All members of the Safe Drivers' Club are cordially invited to attend this banquet, stated its president Russell Beckley.

The Safe Drivers' Club brought to a close on Tuesday, May 20, the activities of the year for 1940-41.

F. P. Haron Speaker At Shorthand Meeting

Mr. Frank P. Haron, commercial instructor at the Junior High School, was the guest speaker at the O.G.A. meeting last Monday afternoon.

Mr. Haron spoke on "Personality and Business." He gave the club members many good points about making a good impression, which includes personal appearance and self-confidence, in a business office. He stressed the fact that cleanliness, neatness, and health are of great importance when looking for a job, as well as in keeping a job.

Students expressed interest and enjoyment in his talk.

Admission of new members was discussed. Any students who will be in the shorthand II class next September and have a passing average are eligible to become members.

Light refreshments were served after the meeting.

Girls' Registration For Defense May 26

Next Monday, May 26 will be a day for registering in the Nassau County defense organization. Those girls who did not have an opportunity to register last Monday May 19, are asked to do so next Monday between the hours of 3 and 9 P. M. at the Senior High School.

The registration of women and girls to help in the county's defense is part of the work that the Nassau County Women's Council in Home Defense is doing. All girls who register will be asked to list things that they could do in time of emergency such as: driving a car, typewriting or home nursing. There will be classes in home nursing for those who want to learn this branch of service, as well as surgical dressings classes and knitting.

Girls To Learn

Girls will be able to learn how to set simple fractures and treat minor ailments. There will be other classes where girls can learn other things that they can do for defense.

Registration is not compulsory, but it is hoped that all girls who want to help in the defense of their county will volunteer their services. Mrs. J. Dawson Magill is in charge of the Port Washington registration.

Remember the date: Monday, May 26 between the hours of 3 and 9 P. M.

Steuer, Studebaker Top In Carnegie Tests

Richard Steuer set a fine record by ranking first in each part of the test; word relations, number relations and high school information. His score ranked him in the highest 10 per cent of freshmen in "colleges of high admission standards", according to standard scores. Ruthanne Studebaker ranks in the highest 20 per cent of freshmen in "colleges of high admission standards"

Five Tep Class

The five 12A students who stood at the top of the class were, in order:

- 1. Richard Steuer
- 2. Ruthanne Studebaker
- 3 Grace Kehn
- 4. Ida Harrison
- 5. Harriet Church

Next year the Port Weekly staff will be headed by co-editors-inchief June Johnson and Ruthanne Studebaker, it was announced this week by Martin Lewis, present editor, and Charles Kezar, faculty adviser. Doris Mitchell, Everett Wilson, and Kathryn Woodward are to be associate editors.

The posts of news editor and feature editor, being vital to the operation of the paper, are to be held by Barbara Reade and Frances Shaver, respectively. Roy Larssen is to be production manager, and the copy desk will be managed by Grace Kehn and Barbara Kingsley. Sports editor will be Ted Parmelee, with the girls sport section being handled by Frances Mangano.

Graeme Zimmer remains as advertising manager, with Antoinette Salerno as exchange editor, and Elizabeth Dargan holds the position of circulation manager. Alice Powers will be typing manager, and the business manager's place will be taken by David Gullett.

Staffs Still Open

Membership on the various staffs, news, feature, copy, sports, typing, and advertising, is open to all who show themselves capable. Any persons who are interested in working on the staff should see Mr. Kezar during the next two weeks. At present the following are on the news staff: Marion Oglethorpe, Dorothy Fisher, Jean Metzger, Ruth Lee Seaman, and Carolyn Rogers. On the typing staff there are: Nettie Manso, Marion Intermesole, and Florence Procelli, and on the ad-soliciting squad: Stuart Richardson, Allan Richardson, Peggy Seaman, Eileen Bohnel, Bunty Heggerty, and Alyse Mullin.

Senior Class Discusses Annual June Banquet

The last Senior Class meeting took place in the auditorium at 2:50 p.m. on May 20th. Ted Farrelly led the discussion which concerned the price and other incidentials of the Senior Banquet.

After some discussion it was decided to fix the price at 65c and have graduation announcements paid for individually. Home room representatives were asked to report on how many would be expected to attend.

It was agreed that the banquet be held on Thursday, June 12th and all money would have to be in by June 9th. Since no record was kept of those who paid class dues all will have to pay admission. It was also decided to make a donation to the school for the victrola.

Respect School Property

How would you like someone to come into your home as a guest and break the chairs, tables and glassware? I am sure that your opinion of him would be lowered because of his uncalled for actions. You would not want that person to enter your home again. Yet, this is exactly what happens almost every day in our own school cafeteria. Tables and chairs are marred, papers are thrown on the floor and glasses and dishes are broken, just because high school students don't know how to conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen.

When entering a lunchroom or cafeteria, one should consider the time, effort and thought that has helped to make that a good eating place. He is actually a guest in that room which is provided for his convenience. Therefore, as a guest, he should conduct himself properly by being thoughtful, courteous and considerate of others. Manners, we are told, are a great asset to a person.

Everyone when entering a cafeteria should consider himself a guest and have his best manners.

Do We Expect Too Much?

The coming end of the term and the newly elected officers should bring to our minds the part the student council played and is playing in our school. Everyone blames the council for whatever goes wrong. In our case, these "knocks" are unjustified.

If the students had tried to get action and didn't; if the student body had given support to its leaders and given constructive rather than destructive criticisms, then more might be expected of the council, but these conditions do not exist.

All year our council has been opposed by great odds. The indifference of the students was enough to face, besides other obstacles. Get behind the council and give it all you have!

Stay Till the End

If you have ever been on a stage platform and held your audience spellbound, you know how wonderful it feels. But if anyone should have the rudeness to rise and leave in the course of the program, the bottom falls out of everything. Thus, it is up to you to have the politeness to "stay till the end." No matter how boring or how dull a program may be, in all courtesy, you should remain to the finish. You should at least control your impatience until an opportune moment occurs to leave and not just "walk out."

Aviation Industry Faces Many Serious Ploblems

The aviation industry is facing today a series of problems which must be solved quickly and accurately for the best interests of the United States. First and foremost is the necessity for phenomenal expansion of aircraft manufacturing companies to supply our army and navy with fast pursuit ships and "super" bombers. In the metropolitan area alone some twentyfive thousand practical aeronautical engineers and well trained airplane and engine mechanics will be needed. This demand for men far exceeds the supply expected from the colleges and governmentapproved aviation schools.

Secondly, the airlines are faced with the vital problem of securing government licensed airplane and engine mechanics to keep the huge new fleet of Douglas Transports and clipper ships flying in perfect operation. The commercial side of aviation offers an ambitious man unlimited opportunities for advancement. Both the airlines and the local airports will be able to expand tremendously when the emphasis on military orders de-

She is the Secretary of the Clio, Vice-President of the Circle, Secretary of the French Club, member of the Celerity, Port Light staff and traffic squad. She is going to attend Sweet Briar College next fall. Perhaps you have seen her on the school tennis or hockey team. Maybe you have seen ser riding around in her Christmascar, "Misgivings." might be of interest to note that "Petey" was selected as the Senior girl representative of P. W. H. We are proud to have "studes" like Helen in our school. If we could choose a record of achievement, it might be well to pick one like the above.

Guests Invited To Traffic Dinner

At the annual dinner of the Traffic Squad, Mr. Merrill, Mr. Schreiber, Mr. Scherer and Mr. Dodds plus the members of the Safe Drivers' Club are to be invited.

Seventy-five cents and a traffic squad badge are the requirements needed for the other "guests", actual members of the traffic department. Steak and its accessories are to make up the main course of the

Everett Wilson: His Daze

We see by the papers that the library has set out a collection box for books that were taken without permission. We haven't heard how this scheme is working but we think that this idea could be applied to other institutions as well. For instance, why not put a box outside the bank with a sign on it: "Deposit stolen money here." And then we could have a garage outside the police station: "Place stolen cars in here and obtain refund on gas." Last of all, how about a pink and blue cell with red hearts decorating it, "Put stolen boyfriends in here."

News Items: The floor of the corridor directly outside the Port Weekly is undergoing slight repairs where Nettie Manso, our ace typist, slipped and fell on it last Monday.

If this column doesn't seem to have rhythm, it is because Karl Hinrichs isn't beating the anvil chorus on our head this week.

Now that Mr. Kezar has added a production manager to the staff, any day now we expect to set up an automobile assembly line in the office.

The way things look now, most of the boys will soon be getting bawled out by top sergeants instead of teachers. The boys won't miss the teachers much though, except that the top sergeants can't keep you after school.

Frances Shaver has asked us: "If the girls are all mobilizing for the national defense, what are the boys doing?" They're staying at home to raise the children and cook the meals, of course, my dear girl.

What a woman!

Girl's Sport Field Day Inaugurated

Last Tuesday, May 20th, inaugurated the opening of the Girls' Sport Field day played against Hicksville. A large turn-out of about 130 girls from Port and Hicksville participated in this field day. The girls tried their best and as a result won all the sports. The softball score is 23-3 in our favor. In Ping Pong the scores are: Rose Smiles, 21-6 21-11; Helen Davis, 21-4, 21-11; Jean Ann Johnson, 21-19, 21-12; Peggy Jones, 21-16, 21-16; Isabelle Finch, 21-12, 21-12. Tennis scores: Dale Ely and Margaret Dick played doubles and their score is 3 "love" Janeth Stewart's score is 6 "love." Ruth Farrelly played both single and double and her scores are: 21-8 and 21-4. In Badminton, Rose Occhipinti's score is 11-0 and 11-4.

The team that was chosen to play against Hicksville in softball are; Ruth Turberg, Mary Caruso, Ruby Natale, Helen Juliski, Helen Sullar, June Underwood, Louise Wenner, Roanne Hicks, Margaret Dumpson and Mary Antonelli. This team was chosen to play for that day and as yet the team is not definite.

Port Wins Over Manhasset 7-6

Passed by the big bat of Lampy, Port Washington stoved off a late Manhasset rally last Tuesday afternoon to emerge victorious, 7-6.

Gene Grecco, although the victim of poor support afield, gained credit for the victory while "Lampy" with a homer and a double provided the high scoring push.

The game marked the Blue and White's fourth league victory

School Nine Takes K. Woodward Is Pres. Glen Cove By 8-2

Led by the pitching of Red Seifts, the Port Washington High baseball team climbed into third place in the North Shore League by defeating Glen Cove, 8-2. Seifts did a beautiful job of pitching and had wonderful support afield. He scattered six hits but Glen Cove scored on homers by Jones and Sumezic.

The Port team took the lead in the second inning and were never The keystone combination of Morrisson and Veit turned in great performances, it was with their help that Seifts kept going to win his third victory of the season. In the third inning, walks to Morrison and Lamplough and singles by Jerry and Kelly sent two more runs across the plate. In the fourth they picked up another run on an error and two singles. In the sixth Caputo sewed up the game by sending in two runs with a single.

No Errors in Infield

The infield played errorless ball and turned in two snappy double plays. This was the third straight game that Port has won after dropping the first three.

Bowling! I haven't seen the inside of an alley for three weeks, and here I am trying to write a column of interest to bowling fans. I like to bowl, and I think I'm as enthusiastic as the next person, but the beautiful weather we've been having lately would put a cramp in the style of the most ardent bowl-

Since the Port alleys will soon close their doors for the summer afternoons, the fellows and girls will be allowed to bowl Saturdays at the rate of two games for a quarter. This plan will go into effect Saturday May 24, so we'll expect to see you bouncing the ball then, instead of Mondays and Wednesdays.

I have no more bowling news, and I'm too tired to think up cracks to throw at Everett Wilson's column, but I'm determined to stay awake every night until I think of deserving remark to throw his way when the next issue comes out,

The Regents grind will happily be broken by Memorial Day, 17 days before Regent's week. It lands on Friday, making a 3-day holiday to study - maybe!

Library Staff Publishes 'Library News' Monthly

Last week students of the English Classes received copies of the library staff's new monthly publication, "Library News." Accompanying the booklet came a plea from the library for old magazines which are to be clipped for class work.

"Library News" contains reports of new books and a book quiz. The staff requests that students who are now in possession of so-called "misplaced" books return these books to the "Honesty Box" which is now placed outside the library.

Those students of the library staff who worked on the "Library News" are: Nettie Manso, Frances Mangano, Margaret Mangano, Ruth Turberg, Carmella Mongiello, Helen Sullar, Bobby Lou Lyon, Jimmie Lordi, Rose Smiles, Mary Ritchie, Josephine Fasano, Mary Helen Brodie, Mary Hacker, Anita Kudak, Sis Hammett, and Ruth Bard.
