Music-History To Be Program On October 5

The music of the ancients lives again in Mr. Jesse Phillips Robertson's program, to be presented here on Monday, October 5, 11 A. M. He brings with him more than a score of curious and archaic devices for making music, re-constructed especially for this program from the originals he studied while visiting the museums of Syria, Palestine, and Egypt.

Mr. Robertson has established himself as an authority on early music-making efforts, and claims, among other interesting bits of information, that if Nero fiddled while Rome burned, it must have been on some instrument other than a fiddle. Rome burned in 64 A. D., and the first violin, he says, appeared about 1550.

In his program he features harps, horns, flutes, fiddles, and drums and makes them tell their own part in the story of musical development. He traces the ancestry of many modern instruments, such as the piano and harp, the bagpipe which has had practically a single-stemmed family tree form its invention by the ancient sheperd civilizations, the violin, and the various percussion instruments.

To give the proper setting and atmosphere, Mr. Robertson appears in a desert costume typical of the approximate period of many of the instruments.

Mr. Ehre, faculty advisor for the Red Domino, said that the plays that might be given are "Junior Miss," "Arsenic and Old Lace," "Best Foot Forward," and "Big Hearted Herbert." All are comedies or musicals with good write ups, if well acted, should make a hit with the student body. All students, who think they have any talent in acting, are asked to tryout for the plays. The inter-class plays will be given on Nov. sixth.

Sophomores interested in the stage crew, are asked to meet in room 110 at 3:10 today to meet Francis Laudo, electrician for the stage crew.

By TED PARMDEE

Showing evidences of being a well coached, power-packed aggregation, the High School eleven overwhelmed Oyster Bay here last Saturday afternoon 18 to 0.

Held scoreless only in the third period, Port's offensive strength asserted itself early in the fray. A spectacular thirty-one yard run by quarter-back Bob Mesch gave Port possession of the ball on Oyster Bay's seven yard stripe. Three plays later Mesch crashed off tackle for the first touchdown. Chet Nakelski's attempted place kick went wide of the up-right but Port led 6 to 0 with less than five minutes of playing time having elapsed.

Just before the half, Ray Drake plunged from the two yard line, climaxing a sustained drive of fifty-six yards. Again Nakelski failed in the attempt for the extra-point. Oyster Bay was powerless before the savage, hard charging offense of the Blue and White's forward wall and the first half ended with the Lavender still looking for their initial first down.

Denzel Completes Touchdown

Bob Needham and Eddie Denzel collaborated to set up Port's final touchdown midway through the last quarter. Needham's interception of an Oyster Bay pass gave Port possession of the ball deep in the Lavenders' territory. Denzel broke loose two plays later for a dazzling 27 yards' jaunt and a first down on the Oyster Bay six. The Lavender stiffened and held, but Denzel completed the afternoon's scoring three plays later.

Oyster Bay finally resorted to an aerial attack which netted two first downs, but an intercepted pass closed out the afternoon as far as the visitors were concerned.

For Port, Chet Nakelski, Art Poolse, Sherb Hill and Joe Forgiore were outstanding defensively. Time and time again these stalwarts busted up Oyster Bay's running game with their savage tacking. On the offense Mesch, Contino, Drake, Denzel, and Needham maneuvered through large holes for considerable yardage.

Save—Serve—Conserve

There are three topics under which students of all schools can help this nation at war. Save. Serve. Conserve.

Under the first topic—Save—comes this activity for Port Senior High School. It is to equip the school with a Defense Stamp Booth where the students may be reminded to buy stamps before and after school. Student volunteers should have charge of the booth.

The speech and dramatic classes should be interested in this activity suggestion. Organizing assemblies and plays on reason for buying Bonds and Stamps. Other activity examples for saving money for Defense Stamps and Bonds are: Student War Saving Committee, buying a jeep or other military equipment; contest for best scheme to earn money for Stamps; quiz program; War Savings poster making; War Stamp admissions to school events; War Bond scholarship fund raised by students; essay contest; classroom project on student plans for saving now and spending after the war.

Serve your school, community and nation is the second topic. The first sub-topic for serving is training. There are two divisions for training. One for boys and one for girls. Girls will be interested in the following: first aid; home and farm accident prevention; nutrition; canteen and lunchroom service and physical education. Boys will be interested and best suited in these: first aid; home and accident prevention; water safety and life-saving; marksmanship; aviation; radio and telegraph communication; map making and reading; auxiliary police and fire-fighting duty; enemy plane spotting and physical education. To be able for both boys and girls to train for these duties one should apply at the Junior War Council. Mr. and Mrs. Reid, who are acting as head of the Junior War Council, will be only too glad to have students apply for these positions and will assign them to classes for training.

Conserve is the third main topic. Under conservation are these sub-topics:

Collecting scrap rubber and metal.

Repairing and using old clothes, shoes, athletic equipment and furniture.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

HEROES' HONORS.

CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR.

FOR CONSPICUOUS GALLANTRY IN ACTION, AT THE RISK OF LIFE, ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS

FOR EXTRAORDINARY HEROISM IN MILITARY AND NAVAL OPERATIONS AGAINST THE ENEMY.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL

FOR HIGHLY MERITORIOUS SERVICE TO THE GOVERNMENT IN A DUTY OF GREAT RESPONSIBILITY.

Wasting nothing—preserve Victory Garden foods, use left overs, collect and sell fat drippings to the butcher and use money for Defense Stamps, save on paper, paper clips and light and heat.

Buying Wisely—make a budget for spending and saving, buy nothing not actually needed.

Come on, students of Port Washington Senior High School! Let's get in the mood for defense, for winning this war, our war. It is absolutely necessary in having victory that we contribute our bit for this battle. We absolutely cannot depend on the other fellow to win this war. It is up to us.

Sophs—Get Out There and Punch

Among the activities that are open to the Sophomores are the Port Weekly, Port Light, band, orchestra, choir, football and hockey. However, few of these fields have received the support that they need and deserve.

You will find that your school life will be much more interesting and alive, if you participate in these activities that play such an important part in the school program.

Perhaps the new students haven't any school spirit, or perhaps it's just a case of cold feet, but whatever it is, let's remember that someone has to do the job, so why can't that someone be you?

Girls' Sports

By FRANCES MANGANO

And so starts another chapter in the line of sports for the young ladies of this beloved school. Yes, a new season, new ideas, and more vigorous sports, all vital to health are now starting. Every girl in school who has time, and I believe there's quite a large number, should come out for some sport.

You know that exercise is twice as important now than ever before. The WAACS and the WAVES are going through a steady evercise schedule to help keep them physically fit. Believe it or not, many of the women now feel better than what they did before enlisting in these organizations.

O.K. then. What are you ding? Come on out and take part in Hockey or Hiking. I mean the 10A's too.

There is a large number of girls coming out for hockey, but we can always use more. You know the old saying, "The more the merrier." The girls are now learning how to play hockey from the beginning. Practice has started, however, actual playing isn't unday way yet. Therefore, you still have a chance.

Games haven't been planned as yet, because of the transportation situation.

Mrs. Dandridge, formerly Miss Rich, has thought of a new idea. During these cool, crisp, sunny days, instead of sitting around making life dull for yourself, Mrs. Dandridge is willing to organize a Saturday trip for those who are interested. They will be varied it doesn't have to be a walking hike, or a bicycle ride all the time. It can be a paper hunt or perhaps a scavenger hunt. Sounds like a lot of fun, doesn't it? What do you say we give it a try? All the girls that are interested should contact Miss Rich.

Junior War Council Needs Support

In talks given by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reid, it was stated that there was a great need for girls and boys for home defense jobs.

Girls are needed for Office Aids, Child Care Aids, Hospital Aids, and Messengers. Boys are needed for Hospital Orderlies, Spotters and Messengers.

The War Council will be open after school from 3:30 until 5:00 P. M. and on Saturday from 10 to 12 A. M., so everyone to his part and join.

The young man who saves will some day have enough to divide with those who don't.

High School Is Refurnished

Building improvements are many at the beginning of the new school year. The class rooms have been newly painted, windows have had their trim redone, the shop has been changed, and the hall walls have been painted.

During the summer months painters and carpenters were at work improving the appearance of the school. Every classroom has had a new coat of paint, and even now pupils are startled by painters peering from the second story windows. The shop has been changed and many of the tools have been taken downtown to the defense school.

There was talk of a fuel shortage, so the oil burners are being replaced by ones that use coal.

All in all, one can see that the school buckled down to the fact that there is a war on, and it is preparing to take its place as an important factor in the winning of the war.

Art Club To Install New Members

The Art Club this year will initiate ten new members who are: Theresa Bouchard, Mary Jane Chessa, Marie Duryea, Pete Fraser, Nancy Fullylove, Harriet Lockman, Patsy Louis, Bernice Madura, Helen Claire Schneelock, and George Younger.

The Art Club sponsored last year a South American exhibition containing various designs, etc., of Latin influence. Photographs were made of these designs and sent to all the capitols of the countries in South America.

A few weeks ago the Art Club received a letter from Porter A. McCray, coordinator of the Inter-American Affairs at Washington, D. C., expressing his sincerest gratitude for the interest the Port Washington Art Students have shown towards South America, especially in times as these.

Ever since the beginning of school the Art department has been doing work for the local War Council.

Celerity Chooses New Members

On Monday Afternoon the following people were selected to be members in the Celerity:

Mary Haecker, Lois Baker, Joan Borer, Bunty Hegarty, Mary Asinwall, Millicent Campbell, Carol Neuman Connie Campbell, Jeanne Johnson, Jackie Fenton.

There is a possibility that more will be added later.

Sidelines-Bylines

By SOOT

The smashing 18-0 victory over Oyster Bay last Saturday proved Port High to be the best offensive team on the North Shore for the day. The Blue and White disclosed its powerhouse mostly through the line.

Bob Needham, Ray Drake, Ed Denzel, Bob Mesh, and Amato Contino found large holes in the line through which they could manouver for large gains. Bob Mesh, Ray Drake, and Ed Denzel each hit the pay-dirt once for our eighteen points. Defensively, the team also shined with Chet Nakelski making the most tackles.

Port's next two opponents on its schedule, Hicksville, with not a veteran on its roster, tred a highly favored South Side eleven. Woodmore, though, emerged on the losing end with Garden City High School. These facts make Port a favorite in its game with Hicksville.

amount of changesveETAOINNH

There has been a considerable number of changes made in Albany pertaining to High School Sport in New York State for this year. All boys who are eighteen or yonger before the first day of school in Septembetr will be permitted to participate in all sports throughout the school year.

For example, if a student became nineteen years old in October he would still be eligible for participation in basketball, baseball and track. Another Another amendment is the increase in the number of basketball and football games which high schools are allowed to play. All schools can now play eight football games and eighteen basketball games during the respective seasons. These laws are to go into effect immediately after the New York State Regents Board makes it official to all high schools.

There are many rumore being spread about our basketball and baseball seasons which we urge the students to seed. The definite answer will not come until after the football season, so all better just get patient about it and wait.

Rooms 107-111-222 100% In G.O. Sales

Latest reports from the G. O. front show that room 107 and 111 have achieved 100% in buying G. O. tickets. Congratulations are due to Fran Shaver and Rae Chase for the school spirit they showed in working hard and helping their homerooms to win this 100% rating.

The Senior High lads and lassies have brought to date 450 tickets and 50 additional tickets have been sold in Junior High. The minimum repuirements to make the budget balance was 500 tickets. The fact htat less tickets were sold may be due to the number of students working this year.

$600 Raised

Collections for the end of the week have reached $600 and the G. O. wants everybody to pay for their tickets before the next home football game if possible in order to prevent confusion at any later date. The G. O. hopes to fulfill every word that they promise, but if something should prvent any promise or promises from being fulfilled due to the war, a reasonable refund will be given to each and every student purchaser of the ticket.

The poster outside room 111, in case you are curious showed the daily standing of each homeroom.

Artie Griffes who was elected Treasurer here last spring moved to Cincinnati. To take his place, the council has unanimously elected Leslie Keates, who has filled responsible positions for the school in the past.

Scrap Metal Drive On

Looking toward the war we see that everyone else is turning in scrap metal, rubber and other necessities for war to the movies and other scrap collectors, but from now on you can turn in all your scrap in to the school.

The G. O. has a great plan to help the war effort. They plan to have a contest between all the homerooms in high school to see which home room will bring in the most scrap metal, rubber or any essential scrap that can be used in the war effort.

In this way everyone will be helping in the scrap drive and help shoot bullets and drop bombs on the Axis powers.

The winning home room in this contest will either have a large party at the expense of the G. O. or will be awarded in war saving stamps. So come on and get in the scrap and dig up some scrap for Uncle Sam.

MULLIGAN STEW

School opened only a very few weeks ago but by all indications it appears that the local Casanovas have lost no time in their search for the grand passion. In fact, everything is rolling along, only more so.

The roving eye of Bob Gunther has alighted upon the blonde head of Dolores Smith. Our scout tells us that they had a pleasant interlude when the illumination failed at the Epworth League meeting.

SATURDAY NIGHT

Paul Williams had a simply divine party. Among the various and sundry couples were Roy Larsen and Franny Kiernan. Jolene Head, the blonde newcomer, also had what might resemble a party, ditto the Bullis's, Carol and Ned, at which affair Senn showed up with a strange male.

Everyone was quite disappointed in the Block Party last Friday night. The dearth of dancing was the main reason for the let-down.

The Seamon-Aitken combination broke up this summer. The reason being that he prefers the life of a celibate.

Johnny Lunde thinks that Oyster Bay is quite a fascinating town. A cute little number that he met at summer school is the main attraction.

Johnny Wilkenson, who looks just like his twin brother, thinks that Lorene Seeber is rather nice.

Everyone is wondering what Carolyn Rogers is going to do now that Arty, the Good Humor Man, has gone.

Helen McWilliams has interests in someone from out-of-town.

"Cicci" Marzo and Carl Lord still have the same interests.

Have you ever heard Freddie Slack play and Ella Mae Morse sing "Mr. Five-bl-Five"? Oh, brother, it's really solid. Ditto J. Dorsey's record of "Manhattan Serenade."

Barbara Goodwin and Billy Woodson seem to enjoy each other's company very much.

DEPARTEES

Barbara Reade, who contributed more than one choice morsel to this corner. Are ya listenin', Baba? Artie Griffes left us for Cincinnati. Macky Rinehart jilted us for private school.

The typewriter is becoming clogged with all this dirt, so I'll have to quit.

O.G.A. Club Elects Claire Gibson Pres.

The first meeting of the O. G. A. Order of Gregg Artists was on Monday afternoon, September 21 in Room 106.

The primary purpose of the meeting was to elect new officers and to discuss the problem of initiating new members. Within a short time the following officers were elected: Pres., Claire Gibson; Vice-Pres., Marion Intermesoli; Corr. Sec., Mary Humphreys; Rec. Sec., Rose Teta; Treasurer, Antoinette Sorice.

Plans were made for initiating the new members at the next meeting. To be admitted into the O. G. A., a shorthand student must have an average of H or S plus for the first semester or successfully complete one year of shorthand, at which time membership becomes automatic.

The new members will be Margaret Bitsoli, Rita Caramanica, Mildred Lamplough, Betty McLaren, Anita Swim, and John Wright.

Port Light to Have More Pictures

The Post Light staff met last Monday and all people who were interested in joining, signed up.

In keeping with the all out defense effort the Port Light will use a different kind of type, but it will have the same, if not more, pictures this year. Mr. Hendrickson expressed his opinion that we should attempt to change the order and arrangement of the Port Light and clubs.

The staff hopes to have a meeting every week and all that belong will attend to cooperate with Mr. Hendrickson.

At the first meeting we decided that we really intend to do something this year.

Many tentative plans and ideas which we hope to put into effect in the near future were raised. New members who were initiated into our ranks on Wednesday afternoon were Patsy St. Claire, Jackie Fenton, Susan Smith, Tom Duncan, Peter Moore, Mary Humphreys, Bob Aitken, Bob Parkes, Betty Davis, Bob Wick and others. Initiations were held in the cafeteria and delicious refreshments supplied by the new members were served.

The cheer leaders have some really good ideas up their respective sleeves and are only waiting for perfections.
