

The Port Weekly

VOL. XIX.—No. 8

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y., FEBRUARY 5, 1943

FIVE CENTS

Fratry Has Made Plans For Annual Frolic On February 12

By TED PARMELEE

The annual Fratry Dance, the years outstanding frolic, will be held in the cafeteria on Friday, February 12th from eight to twelve P. M. The admission price will be $.80 per couple.

It has been the good fortune of the Fratry to secure Eddie Denzel's orchestra for the dance. Eddie who is a member of the Fratry, has assured the committee that his music will go a long way toward making this one of the most enjoyable affairs that has been held here in recent years.

In keeping with Lincoln's birthday, a theme with patriotic background has been decided upon. Under the able direction of President "Sug" Allington, the following committees are working diligently toward the successful culmination if this gala affair:

Decoration—George Younger, Carl Knutsen.

Refreshments—"Sug" Allington, Bob Aitkin.

Tickets—Art Polle, Bob Bade, Mathew Procelli.

Assembly Program—"Sug" Allington and Barry Mayer.

Publicity—Ted Parmelee.

For those who do not wish to dance all evening, many new and novel features are in the offering. The Fratry assumes everyone who attends, a wonderful evening of entertainment—an evening that will long be remembered.

Clio Plans Annual New York Trip

The January meeting of the Clio was on Wednesday the 27th. The business meeting was devoted to planning for the spring activities.

Initiations are to take place at the next meeting and any students who have an S plus of H average in History for one year may secure an application from Mrs. Johnson.

Committees were appointed to make an outline for our annual trip to New York which we are planning to take this year. At present a historical play is being considered. An open forum was planned for the next meeting on a topic to be selected at a later date.

45 Students Make The Honor Roll

There are forty-five names on the Honor Roll for the last six weeks. Room 102 was in first place with 8 names and 108 and 109 came in second with 4 names.

Room 101

Jonathan Benedict.

Room 102

Stephanie Malevitch, Margaret Ross, Wilma Sierputowski, Salvatore Sorice, Nancy Swain, Patricia St. Clair, Mildred Teta, Robert Wick.

Room 103

David Crowell, Margaret Daniekson, Margaret Dendiev.

Room 105

Richard Sherman, Dolores Smith, Betty Lou Thomas.

Room 106

Robert Bade.

Room 107

Rose Belifore, John Bobkowsky, Ned Bullis.

Room 108

Jacqueline Conklin, Amato Contino, George Driscoll, Dorothea Farrelly.

Room 109

Nancy Fulleylove, Betty Gaignet, Virginia Kehoe, James Kars.

Room 201

Dorothy Fisher, Frances Kieran.

Room 202

Hugh Lowry, Robert Mesch, Janet Wright.

Room 205

Irene Loupas.

Room 206

Robert Lucent.

Room 207

Marilyn Baum, Betty Davis.

Room 208

Hugh Montgomery, Philip Nelson.

Room 210

Mary Jane Smith, William Woodson.

Room 211

David Gullet, Ruth Jorgenson, Paul Williams.

Room G-2

Peter Oram.

Room G-3

Beryl Hegarty.

FIRST JANUARY COMMENCEMENT HAS 22 DIPLOMA RECIPIENTS

In the Crystall Ball

Friday, Feb. 5—Basketball game, Glen Cove at Port Washington.

Thursday, Feb. 11—Assembly; Basketball game, Garden City at Garden City.

Friday, Feb. 12—Holiday, Lincoln's Birthday; Fraternity Dance, Informal, Cafeteria, 8-12 p.m.

Port Trounces Great Neck, 32-26

A strong and determined high school five defeated Great Neck High School last Friday in a game that was strongly supported by a thrilling junior varsity game.

The first point of the game was registered by the blue and orange, but Zwerlein put in two field goals in a row to give Port a good lead. Sharpshooting Howie Cook and Collier of Great Neck put in three successive field goals to give Great Neck a 7-6 lead, but which was soon overcome by Indence's set shots and which Port kept for the rest of the game. At the half Port lead 19-11.

In the second half the blue and white boys continued to pile up a large score and when the game ended the score read 32-26.

Zwerlein and Indence were the high scorers for Port high with ten and nine points registered respectively. Collier and Cook of Great Neck each scored eight points.

The second team game was just as exciting, if not more, so then varsity game. With only three seconds left in the game, Great Neck led by a 14-13 score. Billy Brunola then sank a set shot from the corner, giving Port a one point lead. The game was featured by a near riot in the latter part of the second half. The officials immediately stopped the commotion. The line-ups for the varsity:

Port	Great Neck
P. IndenceRF.....	R. Cander
R. ZwerleinLF.....	J. Collier
B. AitkenC.....	J. Kulp
H. Goldschere RG.....	H. Cook
H. ZeidelLG.....	R. Putman

The first January class ever to graduate from this high school received their coveted diplomas of exercises conducted Friday, January 29. Of the twenty-two graduates, seven received Regents Diplomas.

The program opened with the salute to the flag and the playing of the National Anthem by the school band.

The Reverend Arthur Workman gave the invocation. The valedictory speech by Roger Montgomery followed. He talked of the important place high school-students have in this war, and how he believed that the help our competent teachers have given him, will prove invaluable in his future years. In closing he said that we who are still in school may be sure that the twenty-two graduates will do their utmost to help us attain a quick and final victory.

Dr. Paul D. Schreiber then introduced the guest speaker of the day, the Reverend Oscar Moddres spoke of "Our Changing World." He has traveled widely and told an interested audience some of his experiences. He stressed the importance that high school students possess in the future in this country. He stressed the need for more social consciousness was enjoyed by the audience.

Following the talk by Reverend Maddaus, the High School band played a selection. Mr. Merrill then presented the graduates and Mr. Harold L. Seamen of the Port Washington School Board gave out the diplomas. Then the whole assembly sang our school song.

The graduates of the January class of 1943 were: Grace Bauman, Victor Bnad, Harry Carpenter, Edward Clifton, Anthony De Feo, Joseph Dellavechia, Jean Gautscher, Cothevine Lewis, Frances Mangano, Antonnette Manso, Javell O'Brien, Louise Siconoffi, Jane Lansey, Millie Triorchitella, Elizabeth Wolfs.

Those who received Regents Diplomas were: Clifford Fletcher, Eloise Frost, Peg Machlin, Roger Mortgamery, Robert Renfrow, George Timpson, Thomas M. Grane.

BUY WAR STAMPS!

V...—

THE PORT WEEKLY

Published weekly during the school year by the students of the Port Washington Senior High School, Port Washington, New York. Subscription (in school) $.90 per school year; $.50 per semester; (By mail anywhere) $1.00 per school year; $.70 per semester. Single copies $.05. Linotyped and printed by William J. Kaiser, Publication Printers, Westbury, New York.

Vol XIX.—No. 8

February 5, 1943

Ted Parmelee and Graeme Zimmer

Co-Editors-in-Chief

EDITORIAL BOARD

Associate Editors	William Peper, Marilyn Baum
News Editor	Dorothy Fisher
Feature Editor	Pat Sheehan
Copy Desk Editors	Cici Marzo, Helen McWilliam
Advertising Staff	Bunty Hegarty, Barbara Goodwin
Business Editor	Mary Hoban
Music Editor	Jackie Fenton
Copy Staff	Joan Coffman, Doris Baum
	Nancy Fulleylove.
Feature Staff	Reamary Chase, Janet Wright, Helen Claire Schneeloch
News Staff	Carolyn Rogers, Grace Bierman, Catherine Lewis, Joan Evans, Mary Nolan, Concetta D'Agustino, Mary Jane Chessa, Carol Colling, Loretta Cappy, Dick Clark, Dorothea Farrelly, Pat Dickinson.
Girls' Sports Editor	Carol Neumann
Boys' Sports Editor	Salvatore Sorice
Exchange Editor	Mary Aspinwall
Faculty Adviser	Charles Kezar

Crime Does Not Pay

Nine boys between the ages of 13 and 16, have been caught attempting to enter a building on Haven Avenue. Quite a few stores have been entered and property and money have been taken out of them. These boys will be arraigned in the Children's Court in Mineola. They foolishly tried to outsmart the police and now find themselves facing a serious charge. Again and again the old saying, "Crime Does Not Pay," comes to the fore. Ask these boys—they know.

We Extend a Hearty Welcome

To you lowly Sophs we "big uns" wish to extend a hearty welcome. We may look frightening, but we aren't.

Now that you have finally reached high school we want you to show us that you are not really "little stuff" at all. The school and its activities are open to you, and we want you to take advantage of it.

High school is what you make it, so let's get off on the right foot and make it the most exciting time of our life. Remember, you are one of us now.

Success to Port News

THE PORT WEEKLY wants to take this opportunity to wish the Port Washington News all the success in the world on its 40 years of continuous publication.

Your historical sketch of Port Washington in the last two editions will be material for each inhabitant of our town to treasure for time to come.

Congratulations to Mr. Simon—Editor.

We wish to express our sympathy in the recent bereavement of Mr. Schoenborn's stepfather, Mr. Joseph Massina.

What's Cookin'

One of our more popular students, John Lunde by name, is leaving our fair school to obtain his education at Peddie, a prep school . . . Don Ruch has been pretty busy this week. Rae Chase, Helen Breska and Arline Trondle all seem to have started a fire in his heart . . . Port vs. Great Neck: Jean Ruppert and Harold Clifton a twosome . . . Bob Needham throwing wishful glances at Inger Molmen . . . The usual Great Neck "stuff" was missing; however, there seemed to be an abundance of redheads . . .

Artie Villard (a soph.) has been annoying the fairer members of our Senior and Junior class . . . Bob Manso and Marilyn Effertz, a musical couple . . . Sam and Jackie were greatly in evidence (as usual) . . . Pete Moore and Carol Neumann seemed to enjoy themselves . . . Ask Bob Aitken about Priscilla. She was one of those redheads.

Seen Around: Kenny Glaback and Barbara MacFerran take a lot of pleasure out of making goo-goo eyes at each other . . . Karl Knutsen and Gino Brock seen wondering around together . . . Trez and Rufus still going strong . . . Dick Cromwell and Marion Oglethorpe attended Doris Denley's party in Great Neck. It is reported that Bruce Frost and Pat Indence were forcibly ejected . . . Joannie Evans entertained some of the boys from the Merchant Marine Saturday night. She was ably assisted by a few of her friends (all for morale) . . . The Tea Dance Thursday featured some startling upsets: Trez Thompson and Inger Molmen, Bob Needham and Barbara Sommerville, Leslie Keats and Rufus Seaman. The shindig thrown by Corky Formichella last week was a carker . . . Ed Moshier and Pat Dickenson attended an enjoyable show in Great Neck recently.

In closing I'd like to request that all of you attend the Fraternity dance so that we may produce an interesting column.

Stage Crew Needs Men

Every passing day brings spring closer and with it comes the spring play. This year with the country at war many things are different. The stage crew suffered a great loss when "Jake" Jergensen was drafted. With all the good men either going or gone the stage needs a new crew, so come on fellas, see the stage manager, Francis Lauda in room 111 at two this afternoon.

Franny Shaver Has Macy "Deb" Show

After weeks of planning, Macy's Fashion Show finally arrived. Last Wednesday, February 3, the auditorium was filled with beautiful dresses from the Junior Deb Department of R. H. Macy's and a very interested audience.

The girls who attended the show saw about thirty-five outfits in all, in all styles and all the most popular spring colors. There were dresses suitable for school, dates, and business wear, in wools, rayon, silks and cottons.

Though the government's "L-85" order, restricting the quantity of material used in each outfit, has already affected the cut of dresses, the audience found the dresses equally as smart as last year's with some bright new angles in design.

Those girls who modelled were: Pat Dickinson, Patsy Sheehan, Jolene Head, Marion Oglethorpe, Peggy Seaman, Patsy Louis, and Katherine Ehnat. In the special parade of pastel raincoats at the end, those marching without a license were Shirley Wiley, Carol Bullis, Lois Lauda, Jackie Moody, and Betty Richy; also Marilyn Skillman, Sally Branch and Lorene Seeber. Carol Colling did the very clever and entertaining improvising on the piano as accompaniment. Miss E. Archer and Miss L. Banks were Macy's supervisors of the show, while Frances Shaver, Port Washington's representative on Macy's High School Board, was in local charge of the show.

Port Profile

Homer Clifford Allington (better known as "Sug") journeyed to Port Washington in the year 1936. He was born in Tarrytown and from there moved to Binghamton. He is now 18 years old, blonde, blue eyes, 5 ft. 4 in. At one time he was a 97 pound weekling but after taking Charles Atlas's course he weights all of 98 pounds. His only interest is life is "Sasse" Poole though he does like girls, (especially brunetts) all sports, (except badminton) dramatics, sitting home nights with a little friend, (!) Harry James record of "Holiday for Strings."

Sug is a senior in high school and may appear to be very studious as he is always carrying books but this is to build up his muscles. He is president of the Fraternity and he wants everybody to come to the Fraternity dance which is on Feb. 12. Sug's pet peeves are crowded places and shoving. He hopes to join the Navy Air Corps when he graduates.

Platter Chatter

By "BABE IMPERIAL and JIM BRALLA

The following is a list of the best of the new records:

HARRY JAMES—"I've Heard That Song Before." Columbia (53c).

Helen Forest, as usual, turns in a superb vocal on this catchy tune. As always, there is plenty of James trumpet plus a Corky Cochrane tenor solo that is all too short for my tastes.

Musical Rating, S+.

Commercial Rating, H.

TOMMY DORSEY—"It Started All Over Again." Victor (53c).

Performed in the simple manner that made "I'll Never Smile Again," "This Love of Mine" and "There Are Such Things" such hits, this record is sure fire to click also. Frank Sinatra, ably supported by the Dorsey strings and the Pied Pipers, sings wonderfully. Tommy's trombone solo after the vocal is solid.

Musical Rating, H.

Commercial Rating, H.

ALSO RECOMMENDED

Sweet

Freddie Slack—"Black Magic." Capital (37c).

Tommy Dorsey—"There Are Such Things." Victor (53c).

Harry James—"I had the Craziest Dream." Columbia (53c).

Kay Kyser—"Can't Get Out of This Mood." Columbia (53c)

Swing

Charlie Barnet—"Things Ain't What They Used to Be." Bluebird (37c).

Inquiring Reporter

Question: What can be done to improve the Port Weekly?

Jackie Fenton: A bigger staff and cooperation among the present staff.

Mr. Schmitz: More human interest from students viewpoint.

John Wilkinson: More dirt!!! And a column about teachers.

Sam Finlay: More news about the private and personal affairs of the members of our fair school (dirt, to you!).

Miss Hallock: Buy a pair of glasses for the printer so that he can set the type straight.

Ted Parmalee: A new editor (Gulp!!).

Marilyn Baum: We need the beginning of a new order! More dirt.

Franny Shaver: A dirt column on every page.

Soot Sorice: More sports and pictures.

Carol Neumann: No censoring. The Japs would never read this.

Welcome to Senior High

Once again a new list of 10's enter senior high school. Each year they grow smaller and smaller, so the juniors and seniors think.

The other day the 10's found out what senior high is like. The lunch room was busy and crowded because some of the 10's had lunch three times. I suppose many of them were surprised to hear talking in the halls and students walking side by side, after the strict traffic officers in Junior High. There is always trouble finding the rooms but now everything is straightened out (?)

Here are the pupils that graduated: Anna Boriotti, Elizabeth Bangs, Lillian Bingel, Sally Branch, Helen Breska, Michelina Caparella, Audrey Carey, Helen Cernis, Harriet Chadow, Michelina DeFeo, Antoinette DelSolo, Ernestine Dumpson, Muriel Findleton, Grace Hyde, Josephine Kowchefski, Barbara Lowe, Jacqueline Mayo, Lois Mueller, Linda Moffitt, Millicent Newschaffer, Katherine Nicholson, Nancy Parkes, Edith Picardi, Alice Rickert, Annette Sweeney, Alice Trinchitella, Rose Trinchitella, Ellen Turberg, Winifred Von Gonten, Cynthia Wick, Gerald Allen, Wallace Bade, Wesley Birkel, William Brown, James Burke, Terry Cowley, Creighton Cruse, Charles DeMeo, Daniel Ely, Anthony Fasano, Bobby Fitzpatrick, Robert Fried, Cominas Geronico, Arthur Graham, William Graven, Stanley Helstowski, Paul Hollenbach, William Hooper, George Humphreys, Santo Licciardello, Hugh Malone, John May, Michael Monziona, Henry Ochenskosi, Edward O'Donnell, Peter Olszewski, Andrew Piurek, John Piurek, Tony Porciello, Stewart Ray, Guido Sardo, Wade Schaefer, Edward Shellock, Anthony Siconolfi, Bert Simon, Jimmy Smith, Michael Sorice, Patsy Teta, Arthur Villard, George White and Allen Weyant.

O. G. A. Discusses Initiations

The first O. G. A. meeting of the second term was held on Monday, February 1, at 2:00. Led by its charming president, Claire Gibson, the members discussed the problem of initiating the incoming members. A special committee was selected to prepare the initiations scheduled for the next meeting which will be held on Feb. 15.

Any student having mastered short-hand successfully in 1/2 year with an S+ or an H average is eligible for admission. Nine students are entering so far.

V . . . —

Aircraft Spotters Need You

As we go to press, five students have answered the call of the Aircraft Warning Service, Peggy Jones, Patricia Owens, Mary Aspinwall, Barbara MacFerran, and Edward Moshier have turned in parents consent cards, and will be assigned to observation duty beginning next week. It is surprising that with nearly six hundred students in the high school, only five have volunteered for this work. This does not include Matthew Procelli, Raymond Veit, and the Campbell sisters. These people have been regular observers for some time and are doing a swell job.

We appreciate the desire and willingness of these boys and girls to serve.

The Aircraft Warning Service is a vital part of our air defense. The service protects your home and your family twenty-four hours a day. Our observation posts has been in constant operation for it's continuance increases. The three hours you spend each week is small payment for the protection you receive.

We need high school boys more than ever. They must be 16 years of age and have their parents written consent before they can be considered for observation work.

Many of the boys should welcome the opportunity to do their part by enrolling in this service.

Kenneth W. Brown
Assist. Chief of Observer
Monday Detail

Found Around

If he parks his little flivver,
Down beside the moonlit river,
And you can feel him all acquiver,
Baby, he's a wolf; he's Bob Mech.
If he says your gorgeous lookin'
And that your dark eyes set him cookin'

That's a wolf; that's Trez Thompson.

When he says you're an eyeful
And his heart jumps like a rifle
He's our star, he's Ray Drake.
If by chance when you are kissin'
You can feel his heart a-missin'
Honey, watch out, that's Ned Bullis.

If his arms are strong like sinew,
And he stirs the gypsy in you,
And you want him close agin you,
Baby, maybe you're the wolf!
(Borrowed and adopted for use)

Movie "Railroads" Shown in Assembly

This morning at the 8:30 Assembly the National Association of Railroads, through it's member, the Pennsylvania Railroad showed a movie, "Railroads."

We Love It

We have longed to be in Senior High and finally here we are, and we love it. The first day many of us got lost in the vast corridors and numerous rooms of this modern school building, but kind juniors and seniors were ever ready to put us on the right road.

After meeting Mr. Merrill and our new teachers, and many of the students, we formed our first impression of Senior High. Here are some opinions:

Katherine Nicholson: "I was a bit scared."

Paul Hollenbach very excitedly said: "I think it's swell and so are the girls."

Lois Mueller: "Mellow Boy."

Sally Branch: "Pretty good; I like everybody, with one exception."

Wally Bade: "I like it a lot; glad to be here."

Barbara Lowe: "Swell, couldn't be better."

Speaking for myself, I think it is keen; a fine group of teachers and kids.

It is quite a change from being the top class down at Junior High and then becoming the lowest class in Senior High. Also, instead of being able to look down upon others we now have to look up to a large group of the student body. The Seniors told us that they were going to make us carry all their books to classes. Much to our relief, this threat has not materialized into an actuality as yet, but we still have our fingers crossed.

Our first day at Senior High was rather hectic, for it was so very different from Junior High. There was much excitement when we passed to our first period class, as we felt rather young again—it was all so new.

I'll close on this note—Thank you, Seniors and Juniors for your very kindly welcome to the "small fry."

Celerity Has Tea For 10A Girls

Friday afternoon, Jan. 22, the Celerity entertained the girls from Junior High who were coming to High School. When the girls arrived they were shown around the school by several members of the Celerity. After which they were served tea.

The girls who represented the various organizations in the school explained the workings of them. This was to encourage the newcomers to join these organizations.

Miss Duffy, the new faculty advisor, was introduced to the girls as were many other teachers. The old members of the Celerity presented a gift to Miss Sammis as she was leaving them to get married.

Sidelines - Bylines

By "SOOT" SORICE

The underdog high school five swept Great Neck from second place last Friday night by handing the blue and orange a 32-26 defeat. The highly tooted Great Neck team, which lost to Glen Cove by only one point, could not find the range while the blue and white lads were tossing them through the basket. Zwerlein and Indence were the high scorers for Port.

* * *

The victory over Great Neck gave Port a record of two wins and two defeats in league competition this year. This record places Port in a tie for third place in the league, with Great Neck.

* * *

The junior varsity is doing share of thrilling the crowds also. Last Friday, in a near riotous game, the second team nosed out the previously undefeated Great Neck team in the last three seconds of playing time. The score read 15-14 with Port on top. With such players as Parmalee, Brunola, Carey, Contino and Nelson, the junior varsity competes as one of the best in our league. Glen Cove and Mineola are the only team to stop us thus far.

* * *

Tuesday night the blue and white cagers defeated Mineola by a 25-21 score. Zwerlein again paced the scorers.

* * *

Tonight Port plays host to a strong and championship-bound Glen Cove team. Glen Cove is still undefeated this year and still has many of last year's stars on its squad. The King pin of the team is Charlie Sumcizk around whom all of their offense is built.

* * *

Chet Joins Marines

Another of our well-known athletes is off to join the services. This time it's Chet Nakelski, who was our football captain last season. Chet excelled in football for three years and played basketball for two years, also. He will be greatly missed in Port but we wish him luck in this greater enterprise—the Marines.

Mr. Cox Addresses Boys

Mr. Stiven Cox, head of the local Draft Board talked to the high school boys on Tuesday, the 26th. He told the boys of 18 that that they could finish their course if it took no more than six months. He also said that a boy could enter any of the armed services although he is a selected. The Army Air Force has lowered the age of enlistment to 17, and college education is not necessary.

Perfect Attendance Honor Roll

The Port Weekly has compiled an Honor Roll of people that had perfect attendance and were not tardy for the past term. Home room 106 has 20 students which have a perfect record. 111 comes in second with 19 members on the Honor Roll.

Room 102

John Lunde, Evelyn Mosher, James Papisidero, Julius Picardi, Mathew Procelli, Stewart Richardson, Walter Ruroede, Margaret Ross, Ruth Lee Seaman, Wilma Sierputowski.

Room 103

David Crowell, Jerry D'Agostine, Margaret Danielson, Anthony De Meo, Carl De Meo, Salvatore De Meo, Margaret Dendievel, Patricia Dickinson, William Echtermeyer, Jean Emmeron, Eugene Epstein, William Farely, James Fasano, Warren Fitzpatrick, Rose Forgione, George Foros, Eileen Francis, John Freeman, Bruce Frost, Peter Giardina.

Room 105

Marilyn Sherman, Richard Sherman, Josephine Sica, Caroline Simpson, Arthur Slack, Dolores Smith, Janet St. John.

Room 107

Richard Bandfield, Jonathon Benedict, John Brown, Carolyn Bullis, Richard Commons.

Room 106

Robert Allen, Robert Bade, Walter Baier, Louis Baker, Gloria Bolton, Stephen Bomer, Joan Borer, Robert Brandon, Virginia Brock, Vivian Burt, Mary Helen Brodie, Ralph Capobianco, Frank Cipriano, Warren Cooley, Amelia Kaknis, Ronale Darress, Angelina Dellavecchia, Lucy De Meo, Eugene Fasano.

Room 111

Helen Forgione, Barbara Goodwin, Arne Gulbrandsen, William Hewiett, Joan Horan, Ruth Howard, Clifford Hulst, Richard Johnson, Carl Lord, Robert MacLaren, Jacques Mayer, Albert Messenger, Michael Mongelluzzo, Joseph Mongiello.

Room 108

Anthony Cipallone, Richard Clark, Carmella De Meo, George Driscoll, Kathryn Ehnat, Joan Evans, Jacqueline Fenton, Sam Finlay.

Room 109

Robert Fuechsel, Henry Heltowski, Leopold Imperial, Joyce Jones, Virginia Kehoe, William Kehoe, Edward Kucynski, Harriet Lockman.

Room 201

David Ahern Constance Campbell, Millicent Campbell, Dorothy Damsgard, Florence Del Solo.

Room 202

Mary Nolan, Josephine Occhi-pinti, Richard Perley, Alan Peterson, Mary Richards, Virginia Sica, Louise Sniadecky, Genevieve Michalak.

Room 203

David Dunne, Jimmy Ford, Eugene Greco, Henry Larsen.

Room 205

Mildred Lamplough, Maria Marra, Elizabeth McLaren, Robert Mitchell.

Room 206

Marilyn Glaser, Catherine Greco, Ralph Greco, Norman Hansen, Robert Lucent, David McKelvie.

Room 207

Theresa Achenza, Robert Aitken, Homer Allington, Arthur Brew.

Room 208

Hugh Montgomery, Joan Murray, Irving Nacht, Nils Nilsen, Michael Pennetti, Charles Poole, Lorene Seeber.

Room 210

Michael Papisidero, Mary Jean Plume, Charles Rice, Mary Jane Smith Robert Varga, Jobie Watson, William Woodson, Richard Young.

Room 211

Antoinette Eyrich, Louis Forgione, David Gullet, Robert Kelley, Roy Larssen, Barbara MacFerran.

Room G-2

Rose Monziona, Jewell O'Brien, James O'Day, Peter Oram, Antoinette Sorice, Robert Tench Rose Teta, Elizabeth Watts.

Room G-3

Peter Fraser, Kenneth Glabach, David Haggerty, Beryl Hegarty, Thomas Jones, Joseph Kohanski, John Landwehr, Virginia Lotz.

Girls' Sports

By CAROL NEUMANN

Whew, it's a basket. Yes, indeed, girls' basketball has started with a bang. Many of last year's team are still in school so this year our team should be something special. Basketball practice is every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 2:30 to 4:00. We were all very glad to see so many sophomores who are interested, but all players as welcome.

* * *

Although our schedule is not all that could be desired, we were fortunate to have several games planned. The first with Manhasset and then Junior High.

* * *

The bowling groups (in which Bowling teams are being formed) meet every Mon. and Fri. afternoons with Miss Buckley. All girls interested in learning or practicing be sure to come and sign up. There's a reduced rate if you go in the group. There will be a tournament IF enough girls show up.

Port Light Pictures To Be Taken

All June graduates who have not had their pictures taken for the Port Light will please contact Mr. Hendrickson immediately. A photographer will be here February 24. This includes those taking the expediated course.

BUY YOUR POPULAR RECORDS

at

37c and 53c

Marsh Radio Shop

★

also

CARL FISHER MUSIC

★

Sheet Music . . . 35c, 3 for 1.00
Music Pads and Note Books
Classical Music

★

Phone P. W. 2228

44 Main Street