Hey! Stop That!

Don't write, "Stop throwing rocks at the stork; mother—he won't bring another like me!" in that chemistry book! Don't carve "Erin Go Bragh" on that desk! Those things cost money. After all, lady, there's a war on. We can't buy new supplies every day. Take care of your equipment. Don't chew your pencil. Stop doodling on that good white paper. Lady, I'm telling you—we can't get new ones.

Keep those pencils off those desks.

Remember Mr. Allen is an all round fellow—and he has to clean up.

Whittling Joe

Here's a fellow you'd like to know, A citizen named Whittling Joe. Joe is whittling in a plant, Whittling things the Axis can't, Whittling with his sharp machines Cargo ships and submarines, Whittling bombers, whittling tanks, Whittling shells in shiny ranks— Shave a sliver off Benito, Slice a slab off Hirohito, And Joseph really whets his whittler Whistling as he whittles Hitler. That's a job that Joe enjoys Whittling down the Axis boys. Whittling Joe is never through; He likes to whittle with dollars, too, So every payday Joe is fond Of Whittling Hitler with a Bond. Multiplied by fifty million, Whittling Joe is some civilian.

The Sixth Column

By SABBA TURE

Before we shovel out the gory details about School Goings-on, we'll hit the high-spots of the summer.

Some of the Gruesome twosomes include Carol O'Brien and Jim O'Day (perhaps you have noticed some of the loot she is wearing) . . . much to "Mabel" dismay "Terry" Buchard hit Port for a short visit. According to the "Oija Board" Bob Needham has been faithful (are you kiddin') . . . a certain cute J. R. seemed to hold quite an attraction for Pete Peterson . . . the spark which seemed to flare up again between Jacky and Sam must have met with too strong a wind . . .

Who's the smooth skater from Lake Placid who has Joan Coffman's heart beating over-time? . . . a great competition raged between "Tobby" Waters and Joanie Evans over "Charles Atlas" Washburn. What about it Cliffy? . . . And Pep spent his time off from cashiering in the cafeteria of the Hudson River Line cutting around Albany.

Now for some of the Hot Spots in the little Red School House. These snazzy Sophs have put star's in several wolves eyes. You gal's better watch out for Nancy Nelson; she's out to bomb the high school.

Recently, it was observed in the lunch room that Bob MacLaren had a stiff-neck from gazing at Lulu Parmelee, the latest reports declare that Lulu is goo-goo eyed over Joe Nakelski, but then what about that date with Richy Keates last Sat. night? Kinda' complicated, eh, Mac?

Will someone please tell us who is that dark-haired killer in Pat Dickinson's wallet?

A common sight around halls these days is "Nicky" with several dreamy-eyed boys as convoy's . . . Barbara Lowe isn't doing so bad, though, when 18 boys blitzed her home . . .

Who said there was a manpower shortage???

T-Bones seems to be in a depression, could it be because Barbara Strockbine informed him that he was neither debonair nor old enough to suit her taste.

The Port girls aren't good enough for Bob Mesch and Patty Indence . . . Flushing holds their interest at present.

Flash . . . "Ginzo" Thomas's house has just been elected the Mecca of the Senior boys.

Why is it that Bob Needham can't tell time? Maybe he doesn't like Texas!

What is it that "Pete" Peterson

Port Band Plays At Mineola Fair

The Band started its season this year, as usual, by playing at the Mineola Fair. This was enjoyed by all, including the taxi drivers, who took them over.

The Band has already started rehearsing for the football games. They will march at the game tomorrow after spending much time rehearsing.

The new band officers are Patsy St. Clair, President; and Margaret Ross, Secretary.

The choir has also been reorganized. Their officers are Jack Ahern, President; Jackie Fenton, Secretary.

These officers hope to live up to the fine standards set by former officers.

Fratry Initiations Next Week

Next week, the Fraternity boys who were initiated will get sweet revenge, for that is when the new members will be initiated. The casualty list reads as follows: Jack Ahern, Dick Commons, Roger Conklin, Ed Murray, Jack Mayer, Joe Mongiello, Ian MacCartney, Harry Thomasen, Bob Brandon, John Freeman.

At the Fraternity's annual social triumph, their exclusive picnic last June, new officers were elected. Tom Jones is the new President; Bob Needham is secretary; and Leslie Keates is treasurer.

Mr. Ryeck's recent departure left our glorified Rover Boys without an advisor. Mr. Brown has been selected to replace him.

sees in college women? Was she nice, Pete?

Betty Richey had one of those rare old throw-together parties Saturday night.

One of our hot Sophs and her sister, meaning Jean F. Connor, are leaving our Fair City for the crowded city, Washington. What are you going to do, Dicky?
