FIVE CENTS

Interclass Play Contest Nov. 5

The annual theatrical battle royal, the Inter-Class Play Contest, is scheduled to go on next Friday evening, November 5.

At eight-thirty P. M. the great blue curtains will part revealing the rollicking Sophs, the murderous Juniors, and a bunch of pseudo-dowagers from the Senior Class.

The Sophomore play is a juvenile comedy entitled "Pink for Proposal," and is directed by Janet Wright and Mary Hoban.

Consider Patriotic Elmer Jorrow; He says he'll buy a bond tomorrow.

Why, victory never will be won By putting it off from Sun. to Mon.

Jorrow! Get your dough on the line,

Or else start learning "Die Wacht am Rhein."

or will graduate before March 1, 1944 and who be between 17 and 21 inclusive as of March 1, 1944, are eligible to take the test.

Boys who are eligible and desire to take the test should apply for a credentials at the office and indicate whether they wish to take the test to qualify for the Army or the Navy program.

Much announce that our director, Mr. Scherer, has take arms against our enemies. There are many graduates who now hold good positions due to Mr. Scherer's efforts in aiding them towards bigger and better jobs.

Clublicity

Circle—

The Circle intends to have its first meeting a week from Tuesday. New members will be there. These new members have not yet been chosen, but will be in the very near future.

La Tertulia—

La Tertulia as yet has made no definite plans for the coming year, but under the jurisdiction of Jackie Conklin, the club can look forward to a full year. Jack Hostage, Vice President and Frances Powers, Secretary will be a big help to her.

Port Light—

Sorry, fellows . . . no year books this year. Unless we buy enough G. O. tickets . . . maybe. Nothing definite can be said about it; after all, there's a war on. We're doing our best, but we can promise nothing definite.

O.G.A.—

There will be a meeting of this club on Oct. 2. At this time there will be an election of officers. All members are urged to come!

Celerity—

The Celerity has gotten under way this year with a big bang. The members have agreed to fill Christmas Gift boxes for refugees and to make menu cards.

Election of officers was held with the following results: Mary Hacker, President, Ruthlee Seamen, Vice President, Janet Wright, Secretary, and Margaret Ross, Treasurer.

Clio—

Clio meeting on Tuesday, September 28 was an officer's meeting at which the policy of Clio was discussed. This year the policy will be greater member participation and greater Clio activity.

Inquiring Reporter

Question: What do you think of Senior High?

Nancy Reed: The food is so wonderful, and everyone is so polite about getting into the lunch line (??) Not at all like Jr. High!

Audrey Bushnell: I love it. Everybody is always in such a rush—including myself.

Margaret Smith: Just swell!!! I get lost at least once a day. Wha-at!

Jeanne Vilgicquel: Certain kids

Bond Drive Sales Total 5,000

The Bond Drive sales for the past three weeks made a grand total of $5,025.95. The homeroom that won the movie contest with a total of $1,084.75 was room 204, but homeroom 106 is ahead now with a total of $1,610.50. The name of the homeroom with the lowest amount of $1.00 will be tactfully withheld.

A Bond Committee had been organized under the chairmanship of Stewart Ray. All the posters and charts that have been seen around the school have been brainchildren of Stewart's and he's still going strong. The Sales Committee is made up of the Council, or alternative-council, members in the homeroom.

Pupils To Collect Bonds

Mr. Hendrickson has expressed his desire for the people who have bought bonds to come in and pick them up. He also said that there is a possibility of another contest next two or three weeks.

are just swell. As far as home work goes—who does it?

Gretchen Burton: I like Senior High very, very much. But I do like to go to bed before midnight!

Jim Nolan: I don't have to walk so far!

Sally Phillips: I like it a lot! It's really swell!

Maita Seligman: Censored!!

Jill Entwistle: I think it's swell, but there is too much home work!

John Donaldson: Not enough home work—what's this?
