Victory! Let's Show 'em How

We all feel strongly about winning over Great Neck next Tuesday but there is something lacking in the way of school spirit. It's not something that we can put our finger on. Maybe most of you just don't care to exhibit your enthusiasm. Maybe most of you just don't care. We hate to think so. It is not a crime to cheer for your team and speed them on to a victory. It is more or less of an honor. There are many places in the world where children have never known the thrill of seeing a fighting team come out on top. We have a fighting team. And we have the honor of cheering for them. But we don't do it. You, all of you, can help the team win next Tuesday. Don't just come to the game. That is not enough. Let's show Great Neck that we have a fine school. Let's get together on the cheers and songs. We can do it. We have done it. We will do it. We're going to help the team win.

The Letter

Dear Bill,

In your last letter you mentioned the World Series of 1943. That brought a thought to my mind. We've got a World Series going on down here right now. It'll go down in History as one of the greatest battles ever fought.

Our team is the Allied Forces; the opposing team being the Axis. The Duce has struck out and Hitler is at bat. With "Tommie" battin' and "Yank" pitchin', Hitler has muffed a few balls already. Joe Stalin has sprung a couple of trick plays and Hitler is taking it pretty hard. All this is going on in the Mediterranean Stadium.

Let's see what's up in the Pacific Stadium. Here we have the Yanks Vs. the Nips. The Nips are plenty tough but Tojo hasn't quite gotten over that homerun hit at Tokyo. For a while the score was even but with "Mac" in there fightin' we're beginning to get a lead on those "Sons of Heaven."

The spectators at these games would like to pitch in and help in the game. Well, this is one game where they can. For $18.75 they can get up at bat. Guys you know are on those teams . . . Guys you'd like to see win. We've got three teams against the Axis' and Nips' two. Our third team is

Eye Opener

Open your eyes, kids, here it comes . . . Barbara Waters would die if anyone even found out that she has a picture of soldier boy Frank Connelly on her dresser, so please don't tell a soul.

Pat Dickinson has not only one tall handsome man in her wallet, but three. One happens to attend Duke University and one of the others is undoubtedly Dick Pfeiffer. The other remains a mystery.

Bob Needham, who still runs up phone bills calling Manhasset, has been dating Loretta Cappy. Maybe he doesn't know that Bruce Frost comes home in a few weeks.

Mac Maclaren's torn between two fires — "Lulu" Parmelee and Joan Westman. John Freeman hopes he chooses Lulu.

Bouquets are in order for Sliver Thomasen. He seems to have completely won over Jackie Fenton's heart. They were hardly seen all night at Sue Trondle's party.

Alan Peterson, that dashing Beau Brummel, has come quite far since last spring. His latest is Jolene Head. "Pete" still blushes when you mention "Gertie."

Lois Mueller is happy again. Trez has returned from St. Louis where he had quite a time with the Southern Belles, especially Pat More, who once was Bob Needham's flame.

Carol Bullis' heart skipped a beat a few weeks ago when Chez Rice turned up in a snazzy La Salle M. A. uniform.

Lulu Parmelee's has become a haven for those lost souls: Bob Kidney, Dick Keates, and Albert Jessen.

Seen around . . .

Pat Indence, a minor Casanova in his own right, raving about Ann Moshier. Bill Peper singing "The're Either Too Young or Too Old." . . . Jack Mayer casting glances at Jean Wright in the "Caf." Won't someone please introduce him? . . . Barbara Lowe leading (?) a cheer for the J. V. game . . . John Wilkinson torn between Florence Jones and Julia St. Clair . . . Carol and Pete are still in the groove . . . Katharine Nicholson and Wally Bade are WELL—you know!

Our "man" Cliff Washburn claims he is still off women, but we know differently . . . Tough Nuggets, "Tubby!" . . . Ted Parmelee was home for the week-end and saw much of Ruth Lee.

all of you at home. You're the Home team and if you'll all pull together, you will help us, the fighting team, to strike out the Axis. Pay Ball!!

Affectionately,

Your brother.

This letter was written by Millicent Newschaffer, one of Mr. Schoenborn's English pupils. As it has a worthwhile message to tell it has been printed in the Port Weekly.

Clublicity

Circle—

At a recent meeting of the Circle (the National Honor Society) the officers for the coming year were chosen. The new president is William Peper; Vice-Pres., Ruth Lee Seaman; Secretary, Patricia St. Clair; and treasurer, Margaret Ross.

The new members were also initiated. They are Virginia Brock, Ned Bullis, Jacky Conklin, Amato Contino, George Driscoll, Dorothea Farrelly, Jacky Fenton, Betty Gagnat, Mary Hacker, John Hostae, Patsy Indence, Leslie Keates, and Virginia Lotz. Hugh Lowry, Ian Macarthy, Stephanie Malevitch, Robert Mesh, Carol Neumann, Richmond Perly, Hary Jane Smith, Arline Trondle, John VanderVoort, William Woodson, and Janet Wright.

The club will meet the first Tuesday of every month, and refreshments will be contributed by the members.

Celerity—

Under the able supervision of the president, the Celerity has been very busy. This past month they filled five boxes for the Red Cross and assisted the Village Welfare in rationing.

Last but not least, Celerity initiations were held on Monday; do you remember those extra umph girls hobbling around school?

The new members are: Joan Swift, Helen McWilliams, Gino Brock, Mary Smith, Mary Chessa. At the initiations everybody had loads of fun, except the initiates, and due to a great abundance of food most of the diets were broken.

Clio—

The Clio, the honorary history club of the Port Washington High School, had its first meeting on Oct. 5, 1943.

The following new members were initiated at that time: Frances Shaver, Doris Baum, Ruth Lee Seaman, Inger Molmen, Joan Coffman, Lorene Soeber, Eugene Brew, Robert Varga, and William Woodson, Helen McWilliams, Nancy Fulleylove, Virginia Kehoe, Loretta Cappy, Virginia Brock, Margaret Ross, James Kors, Betty Gagnat, Dorothea Farrelly, Joan Borer, Barbara Goodwin, and Carmela Caramanica, Frances Powers, Mabel Lowe, Peter Fraser, Arline Trondel, Madeline Shad, Mary Jane Chessa.
