Buy Bonds Today For Tomorrow

Our brave men overseas are doing a fine job for a show of democracy; but without the support of us on the home front, their cause will be hopeless. It is we who must give all the aid we possibly can so that our men will win the victory for happiness and freedom in the shortest time possible.

The very least we can do is to buy War Bonds and Stamps. Every individual should now strive to invest in War Bonds, not just 10%, but rather the largest percentage he possibly can.

Invest today for the peace and happiness of tomorrow!

They Are For You

The social affairs of our school are put on for the students but most of them do not bother to exert themselves and attend these functions. We always see the same faces. For those who don't know, a dance is not a horrible ordeal. It is an activity in which every one can participate, and a pleasant one at that. Why don't you "wall-flowers" come and give it a try. After all, they're for YOU.

It's Not Too Late

I had been questioning the gaunt figure. Occasionally a hacking cough would wrack his emaciated frame. "Yeah Mr., I got T. B. So what? It's too late now." Those words haunted me long after I had left the miserable surroundings that he called his "home." "It's too late now," he had said.

"It is really too late?" I wondered. There must be SOME cure for him and others like him.

Investigation revealed there IS a way,—and YOU can help. You can help arrest a ruthless murderer. On every Christmas card and present, place a seal, the one with the small child and the tuberculosis emblem. The money that you pay for those seals will save lives, hundreds and thousands of lives.

The disease is more prevalent than ever because of War Conditions. Helpstop it! Buy Christmas Seals! They are the sole support of the National Tuberculosis Association,—the mighty army which is fighting the hard war against T. B. And remember,—it's up to YOU. It's not too late—yet.

Eyes & Ears Ahead

The Senior Ball turned out to be more of a Sophomore Hop than anything else. What happened to our school spirit and 99% of the Seniors? We wonder!

Those who attended, however, had a good time. Nice going Bralla! Phil Wylie, master of ceremony, all but shimmied up the "mike" and stood on his head. Who knows, we may have a second Bob Hope in our midst.

Among those allegedly present were... Billy Peper and Lois Mueller, Alan Peterson and olene Head, Tommy Jones and Barbara Lowe, Carol Bullis and Garvin Pelsue, Ned Bullis and Connie Campbell, Nick Cassavetes and Gino Brock, Stevie Weber and Barbara Somerville (seems like old times), Dick Pfeiffer and Pat Dickinson, Ann Moshier and Pete Watkins, Kenny Hobbie and Betty Ann Richie, Arleen Trondle and "Hunk" Wilson, Shirley Wiley and Kenny Bond.

Also there but "somewhere out of the world" were "Clarky" and Lynn, "Jackie and Sliver," and "Cappy and Frosty."

Some stray wolves were Don Ruch, Red Vandervoort, and Dick Perley. What's the matter boys?

The high-lights of the evening were (1) when that gold-voiced songstress, Edith Hyde, gave out with jive and (2) when Bralla's band really started beating out. Those who really "cut a mean rug" were Barbara Waters, Tommy Jones, Bob Mesch and Miss Christie.

The aftermath of the ball was Joan Coffman's party; the wallpaper decorated with Varga and Petty girls was appreciated by the male half of the gathering. Now to the normal happenings...

Why are Jackie Conklin, Harriet Lockman and Joan Horan interested in Manhasset???

Why does Bunty Hagerty's eyes gleam at the mention of the Navy? Could it be because of a certain acquaintance (?) named Paul???

The new freshness in Carol Neumann is the result of her skiing trip in the Adirondacks.

Wonder what occupies Cici Marzo's spare time now that Carl Lord's away to school.

Thanksgiving weekend was a "Hallelujah Time." It started off with a bang at Pete Moore's house, Wednesday. All the usual crowd was there.

Thursday was rather dull. oTmmy, feel better yet??

Big Barn Dance down at St. Stephen's Friday night. Lots of plaid shirts and donuts. Steve Weber let Barbara Somerville wear that "see-you" striped shirt of his. Every girl in the place was ready to slit his throat... Joe Moncada got lost twice... J. Freeman's is STILL single... oh well.

Saturday night, "Ginzo" had open house. Need we say more? Phil Nelson (Gee, minus the neat uniform), Beansie Dean Bob Wick and "Pro" were wolfing around to say the least.

Now just why was Mary Nolan collecting (censored) money??? What'd you do with the change?? — huh??

Hugh Montgomery and Doris Baum are constantly fighting for the best History marks but a truce has been declared as they were seen in Pet's togethr.

Like bread and butter, Chandler Wright and Dolores Smith are always seen together. Some often doubt if they actually remember the pictures they see.

Why can't Jimmy Bralla gather courage to ask questions about Dot Rynalski personally???

P.S.—She's that new Junior that is bound to become the backbone of the band...

Helen Wright has an escort home every Sunday night from church (that's what they tell me!) who is known as "Wolf No. 1" around the school. Eddie Tjarks is the name.

Dick Young is planning on a visit to Washington, D. C., during Christmas vacation to see Jean Conner.

The rest of the news is better left unsaid... As a warning see "Cuckoos on the Health" with an adult.

Recently Bill Peper and Sally Branch were seen at the "Ice Follies" they spent the remainder of the evening at a spaghetti joint.

Port Profile

Bob Mesch was last seen on a street corner waving his blonde (?) hair at any passing damsel. He's tried whistling, but this attracts only the neighborhood dogs.

The past summer he spent under a beach umbrella (preferably blonde's) at the Mayor Beach.

His pet expression is which has taken this sch storm, even teachers rely on cream yea" to make sure work gets done.
