

read on Jan. 21, 1973

PROTECT YOUR HOME FROM TUBERCULOSIS

BUY and USE
Christmas Seals

PROTECT YOUR HOME FROM TUBERCULOSIS

BUY and USE
Christmas Seals

Port Weekly

Vol. XX.—No. 6

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y., DECEMBER 17, 1943

FIVE CENTS

5 Receive H Marks 36 On Honor Roll

During the second six weeks marking period there were five pupils who received all H's.

Jonathan Benedict, Beryl Hegarty, Anna Boriotti, Barbara Lowe, Lois Baker.

There are 36 pupils on the honor roll. Homeroom 102 has 5 on the list. The Seniors had 17; Juniors, 12; and the Sophomores, 7.

Home Room 101

Jonathan, Benedict, Carolyn Bullis, Joan Coffman.

Home Room 102

Mary Hacker, Beryl Hegarty, Garvin Pelsue, Margaret Ross, Patricia St. Clair.

Home Room 103

Douglas Bachem, Virginia Clark.

Home Room 105

Richard Sherman.

Home Room 106

Amato Contino, George Driscoll, Dorothea Farrelly.

Home Room 107

Mary Jane Chessa

Home Room 109

Betty Gagnat, Virginia Kehoe.

Home Room 201

Margaret Danielson

Home Room 202

Hugh Lowry, Decile Marzo, Richmond Perley.

Home Room 203

Helen Graseck.

Home Room 204

Mary Pennetti, William Woodson.

Home Room 206

Joanna Greco, Robert Lucent.

Home Room 208

Inger Molmen, Hugh Montgomery, Dorothy Rynalski.

Home Room 209

Anna Boriotti.

Home Room 211

William Hooper, Barbara Lowe, Katherine Nickolson.

Home Room G-3

Lois Baker, Virginia Brock, Frances Shaver.

Merry Christmas

By JOAN EVANS

Red Domino Purchases Choice Albums To Form Music Appreciation Group

The Red Domino Society has purchased many fine albums of classical music which they intend playing for students in school who desire to hear more good music.

A music appreciation club is to be formed at the beginning of the new year. No records of attendance or dues will be taken. There will be no formalities, no requirements. The only desirable qualification will be a desire to become better acquainted with the great classics. Come to room 110 on Monday, January 3rd, and hear the following concert.

Romeo and Juliet Overture—Tschaikovsky

Symphony No. 4—Tschaikovsky

The following Monday, January 10th, the Brush Violin Concerto will be the feature. Other great works to be played on successive Mondays will feature the Tschaikovsky; Piano Concerto, The Brahms Piano Concerto; and "Peter and the Wolf." Other symphonies and concerti will be listed later on.

The Red Domino extends this invitation to listen to music to teachers and parents. Mr. Ehre, who once played with the Rochester Philharmonic, will guide the new club at the beginning.

So remember, please, 110 Monday January 3rd. One last word of warning. Don't be afraid of becoming a "long hair." Even Benny Goodman played in Carnegie with the Budapest quartette, and an appreciation for fine music and "jive" go hand in hand.

Beg Pardon

A great deal of comment has been going around the school about the mistakes which appear in "The Port Weekly." As a matter of fact, the paper has shown a great deal of improvement over last year's. We are also lucky that we can have a school paper this year. Many schools have done away with their school publications. Under the present arrangement, it is extremely difficult to turn out a decent issue. We do not see the paper from Monday thru Friday. In the past it was returned to us in the middle of the week so we could make the necessary corrections. This year it's impossible. There is not the transportation facilities, nor can the printer obtain the necessary help that that system needed. We hope you understand the difficulties and will forgive the mistakes.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

"Cuckoos On The Hearth" — Mystery Drama Tonight

JO CHESSA—LEAD

Tonight the curtains of our auditorium will part revealing an entertaining, quick-moving mystery comedy in three acts entitled "Cuckoos On The Hearth."

Those people who have witnessed such great plays as "The Man Who Came To Dinner," "George Washington Slept Here," "Stage Door," "Our Town," and many others have become regular patrons of the Red Domino presentations and can expect another exciting night.

The plot of "Cuckoos On The Hearth" deals with the Carltons, who live in the mysterious dwelling of Harmony Hearth, shut off from the outside world. Donald Carlton must go to Washington to present his gas invention to the government. When the married couple are informed that a lunatic has escaped from an asylum, Carlton refuses to leave his wife; but at that moment a disagreeable novelist arrives and offers temporary protection. Off goes Carlton.

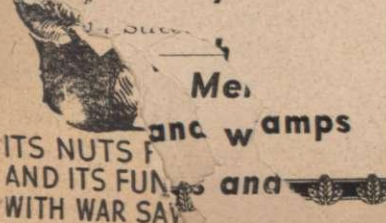

On come three sinister strangers; a bearded professor who speaks with a Teutonic accent; a gangster from Brooklyn; and a pretended minister. Who does the murdering? When does it begin? Who is the escaped lunatic? Ah—what a predicament! Yet it will be solved, amid some very exciting and hilarious moments this coming Saturday.

The cast is headed by Jo-Ann Chessa, who portrays Charlotte Carlton. Her first experience on the stage was in the Inter-Class Play contest in which she gave a very able performance of an airy New England spinster. Her role in this play calls for some very difficult acting but we feel sure that under Mr. Ehre's direction she will be convincing and moving.

Harriet Lockman, as Lulu Pung, a cousin of the Carlton's, and Jimmy Thompson, as "Doc," will be the cause of some very mirthful moments. Hugh Montgomery as Don Carlton is bound to give another fine performance to add to his already full quota.

(Continued on Page 4)

Say Merry Xmas

ITS NUTS
AND ITS FUN
WITH WAR SAV