

Platter Chatter

By JIMMY BRALLA

It looks as if the Texas Bombshell, Ella Mae Morse, has another hit on her hands with "Shoo Shoo Baby." Her Capitol record of the tune is already selling like hot cakes. The tune fits her style well, better than the "B" side "No Love, No Nothin'."

If you're a Jimmy Dorsey fan, you'll go for his latest disc, a pressing of "Star Eyes" and "They're Either Too Young or Too Old". The first side is typical JD stuff with the vocal chores by Bob Eberly and Kitty Kallen. On the flipover, Kitty Kallen demonstrates her right to step into Helen O'Connell's shoes. This is the last time you'll catch Bob Eberly on records, for the duration at, because he has GWTD.

In case you're wondering about that new Jan Carber band, here's the story. For about ten years, Garber has been on a strictly Lombardo kick but this summer he brought about a complete change. The band now "swings" everything it plays sometimes to good advantage.

By TOMMY JONES

The Port basketball team seems well on its way towards a successful season. With three victories already under their belts they are heading for the league opener with a strong Glen Cove team on Jan. 7.

The first of our non-league victories came at the expense of a confident Oyster Bay five on their own court. The score of 26-17 was obtained mainly through the efforts of Pat Indence and Zek Zwerlein.

The following week, a weak Roslyn team was subdued 39-19 on Port's floor. Bob Mesh starred in this game and led the scoring for both teams with a high total of fourteen points.

Friday, December 10, Port entertained a favored Sea Cliff team and after a tough battle, finally emerged the victor on the long end of a 44-28 score.

Sea Cliff matched Port point for point the entire first half, the score at the end of the second quarter being 18-17 in Ports favor.

The game to be a low scoring affair throughout the third stanza, but in the last period Port really broke loose with Bob Mesh and Sliver Thomasen leading the scoring. This has been the toughest game so far and the team really came through with flying colors.

Girls' Sports

JO VETRON

The volley ball season has finally rolled around with some good prospects; The girls have been practising hard and Mrs. Dondridge has the first and second Teams Tentively made up.

The first team consists of the following: Marilyn Glaser, Helen Forgione, Jo Vetron, Barbara Goodwin, Stephanie Malevitch, Betty Cullen, Lois Mueller, Mabel Lowe, and others.

On the second team are Molly String, Sally Branch, Mary Grody, Barbara Lowe, Pat Dickinson, "Frankie" Downie, Harriet Chadow, Helen Graseck, Juenita Frost, Katrine Nickolsen, and others.

We have two games tied up. One on December 16th, at Mineola and the other here at Port against the small, but powerful Junior High team.

The usual girls' Bowling session saw many eager bowlers. Those who piled up some nice scores were June Miller, Barbara Goodwin, and some who tried very hard were Betty Lou Thomas, Lee Brown, Barbara Gumbrac and Joan Murry.

So Long.

Mystery Drama Tonight

Peper Is Professor

William Peper, a Senior, has been given one of the main roles in the play, that of a professor. His interpretation of previous roles have made him an outstanding member of the Red Domino and with his experience and talent we may expect nothing short of a fine performance.

Two other important roles are characterized by Edmund Bullis as the author, Zadoc Grimes, and John Vandervoort as the Sheriff. Both, who have been Red Domino members for the past year, portray their respective characters in excellent fashion.

The remaining actors more than ably support the cast; Mary Helen Brodie, Dan Ely, Bunty Hegarty, Arleen Trondle and Dick Rockwell.

To top off an excellent presentation, dancing will follow and a full evening of enjoyment can be expected by adults as well as students. Tickets are 50c.
