Flowers To The Basketball Team

Our pride in the Port Basketball team hardly needs to be expressed in words. They've been climbing right up to the top and mean to remain there. That last Great Neck game was really in the groove, and we hope the play-off will be just as successful.

The school would like to express its deep gratitude to Goldscher, Mesch, Indence, Zwerlein, "Silver" and last but not least, Capt. Zeidel, for the swell playing, we've seen this season.

One Line, Please.

Any of you fellows ever stop to think what the Traffic Squad stands in the halls for? Well, you'd better—and pronto. We aren't for decoration; we're not there for you guys to pinch and poke and drop books on and bump into and whistle at and stick gum on and be walked in front of! We're to be respected! Get that? Respected! We haven't complained when you whistled to yourselves or walked four abreast, but we do object to being treated as turnstiles. And you won't get your nickle back. You'll be reported and then you'll be sorry. We're going to be much stricter now to keep you fellows in line. Watch your step, buddy!

Gum Chewing

The person who chews gum with his mouth open and seems to be trying to beat all records in noise-making, certainly won't be very popular with his fellow students. It's disgusting, annoying, and rude. It's all right to chew gum, but it's much better to chew it quietly, with your mouth closed.

And this doesn't only apply to school, either. In the movies or in any other public place, be moderate in your gum chewing. If you like to hear yourself chew loud and make noise, wait until you are alone in the privacy of your own home before you do it.

On The Beam.

The town is really cookin' with the V-12 Marines and the C. B's. Ted Parmelee, Bob Aitken, Ed Densel, "Beansy" Dean, "Pro," Bob Wick, Jim Ford, Burt Monfort, Burt Sherman Bob Walters, Dick Beddingfield, Pete Withers, Bruce Willis.

It was good to see all the old "Portites" around. Macky Rinehart blew in last Sunday. We're glad to see you Mac—Keep up the good work!

Tommy Jones and Johnny Lunde left on Wednesday for the Navy. "Always together" seems to be their motto. They are both headed for "Union." Their fellow student (?) Bob Bade is off to Dartmouth, for the Navy also. Good luck fellas.

The little club—no names mentioned—had a super party over the weekend. They were entertained at Jim Bralla's house. Some of the couples present were: Octopus Keates and Lulu Parmelee; Lamkie Coffman and Tom Duncan; Lois Mueller and Jack Eaton; Pat Dickinson and Phil Wyllie; and Lee Brown and Jim Kors. Dick Perley and Bob Brandon were stag.

Virginia Sica had a big blow-out at her house on February 19 in honor of her birthday.

Patsy Louis and Cici Marzo both journeyed down to Peddie for the weekend. The high light of the trip was the prom with Tony Pastor's orchestra.

Also traveling about was Lorene Seeber and Doris Baum. They, and some representatives of the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, combed the town for excitement and ended up in the big city.

Tom Jones and Barbara Lowe, Nan Nelson and Bob Bade had a rare time at the basketball game on the 21st. Nancy had her first driving lesson.

Seen around . . .

Pete Watkins "ga ga" about Louis Lauda, Einar Karlsen and some "unknown" from Great Neck, Billy "scoop" Peper.

Weekend couples:

"Blondex" Lowe and Tom Jones; "Cuddles" Ehnat and Ed Denzel; "Ducky" Nelson and "W. H." Pfeiffer; Audrey Bushnell and Jim Bralla; Jackie and "Sliver" (ah me!) Rufus and Ted Parmelee; Inger Molmen and Dick Bohn, Nan Nelson and Ernie Dunham, and Ann Moshier and Pete Peterson, "B. J." Evans and Steve Webber, "Belle" Mueller and "Newsday" Eaton.

I'll leave you with this notes A feudal lord said to one of his men—"I hear you've been misbehaving while I've been away." To this the bright lad asked—"In what manor???"

Clubcity

Music Appreciation

The last meeting of the club on Wednesday was a Jazz concert. The nature and growth of jazz was discussed and illustrated by records. Jim Bralla, one of the outstanding members, led the discussion.

As you know, anyone may become a member of the club, so why not drop in some Wednesday?

Art Club

A movie was shown last week on cotton by Miss Hansen. The film was sent to Miss Hansen by the New York Cotton Exchange, and she also received a letter from them. The picture of the Red Cross on the Port Weekly was done by Mollie Mottola.

Clio

The Clio had its monthly meeting in Mrs. Johnson's room and rewrote the Constitution. They also decided to go to see "Harriet" sometime in April.

Circle

The new members of the circle will be initiated next Tuesday evening at the monthly meeting.

Fratry

The second Tuesday of every month finds Bob Mesch or Les Keates conducting the Fraternity meeting, while Bob Needham sits silently taking notes (or money) with zeal.

We wish to commend the Fraternity for the barn dance which they held a few weeks ago. It was probably one of the best dances ever held here at P. W. S. H.

Sometime within the next two weeks they plan a Red Cross benefit basketball game with possibly the faculty opposing "Our team." A hay ride some time in April promises to be a "gala," affair with lots of hay, horses, moonlight etc.

SMILES

Vic. Gardener—How in the world do you distinguish between vegetable plants and the weeds?

Old Timer—Easy. Just pull them all up and eat the ones that come back.

Ann—She's FLO, N. Y. secret!
