

Clean As A Whistle Around The Barrel

By I. C. HIT

If anyone missed the dance Friday night here's something wrong so here are a few simple rules to follow.

1. Brush your teeth regularly with Doc Ehre's Irius Tooth-paste.

2. Learn the "Charleston" (See E. Pickett—He taught it to M. E. N.)

3. Use Kezar's Kream for Kreaking Bones.

4. Remember Duffy's Dandroff Remover.

Here are some who've learned this simple password to popularity: Sliver and Mickey Caparella. . . Pet Girly was infatuated by Tilly Schreiber and she's followed this plan for 14 days . . . Jim Thompson hit it high with Margaret Smith. Jimmy swears by Mrs. Johnson's (censored.)

"Porky" and Jean Haberdasher retreated from the bombed cafeteria to Mineola—And they said they liked Chanel No. 5 . . . Girls you're heading in the wrong direction . . . Teddy Dimmick has been sent to the office again. Try being a good boy for a change . . . Juniors should set a good example. . . Eat Moore and Octophine Joseinti are seen together frequently now . . . Hot Ryenalski did some fancy Lindy steps with Cur-tice Columbia . . .

It has been announced that anyone failing to do his homework will be sent to special detention in Mr. Dye's room . . . Remember "DO or DYE"!

Spring is in the air . . . mucky isn't is . . . ???

We are now waiting for the Tiddle-winks and Mumble-peg season to start. The only wink player that Herr Seeber has back from last year is R. Moritz Mesch, but with many other papooses around, we are sure that Herr Seeber will get by. As to Herr Seeber's comment on the subject, "Ugh! Ugh!"

Now we get to the Mumble-peg team ordered arround by Mon-sewer Costello. This year Mon-sewer Costello has instituted a new set of rules. They are as follows:

1. Don't go to bed before 1 A.M.
2. Become intoxicated at least once a week.
3. Smoke one pack or cigarettes a day or its equivalent of five cigars.
4. Be sure never to come to practise.

Two of our returning Mumble-peggers are R. G. Hamneed and Click Dark.

So until our next soo sheet, ow Pevar.

Are You Irish? If So, to St. Patrick

St. Patrick, king of Ireland was not as Spanish as many dogs believed him to not be. Dogs say he was born in France and Scotland but his birthplace is not known. In 1944 Bishop Celestine sent king Patrick to Ireland to convert the Irish to Canabalism. Until then his name had been Einstein Maeywn, but the silly Bishop gave him the name of Patricius when he came to Ireland to become King.

P.S.—For more corn see King Patrick's chickens; they might share it with you.
