Attend Monday Night Learn To Drill

Every Monday night at 8:00 P. M. a class is conducted in the fundamentals and fine points of military drill. This class is directed by men who have had a great deal of experience with military drill and are ex-army officers. Mr. James of the American legion conducts the class with the assistance of Mr. Withers and Mr. Street.

Anyone who expects to enter the service will find this training and experience extremely valuable. Army and Navy officials urge persons who are going to enter the service to try to get pre-induction training in the fundamentals of drilling. It is from the ranks of the men that have had past experience in drill and army procedure the non commissioned and commissioned officers are often chosen.

All Seniors will find this training valuable to them very shortly. Members of other classes will find the classes interesting and are urged to attend.

As an extra added attraction there is usually a basketball game played by the drill members before the drill starts and also during a short break in the drilling at about the middle of the class. Drilling starts at 8:00 and continues to ten. Basketball starts at 7:30. Attend and have an ace up your sleeve when you join the army.

Business Law Class Make Mineola Trip

Miss Procelli's Fifth Period Business Law class and also two students from her Second Period class went to Mineola, on April 6th, to see the old and new courthouses.

They started off with a little bit of bad luck. They intended taking the 9:30 bus, but the bus was delayed an hour. They arrived on Mineola raring to go.

They had an interesting time in the Police Department. One of the girls had her finger prints taken. They would not let us go through the jail.

After a light lunch they went to see the new courthouse. They were able to sit in on a case.

They saw the library and the librarian gave them a summary about the library.

Their day ended with a talk with the District Attorney.

They all went home tired, but had an enjoyable time.

GIRLS' SPORTS

By BARBARA GOODWIN

The ping-pong and badminton seasons are already well underway, with many of the students already starting to play off their games. As it was last year, there will be a "Round Robin" tournament and those who win the most games will play in the final tournament.

There are two groups playing in the tournament—1st group, Sophs and some Juniors. The second group, the rest of the Juniors and the Seniors. By the way, what has happened to the Seniors?

Softball will commence next week and believe me, you Sophs had better do some practicing on "the ol' sand lot" if you want to make the team, for there are lots of veterans comin' along.

Tennis, Archery, and softball are coming along. Come one and all!

Coach Seeber's greenhorns came through with a fine 5-1 victory over Adelphi last week. As the game is old news we will not go into detail but will venture forth a few unworthy comments. Karlson looked mighty good on the mound and surprised us with a fine assortment of pitches. He has a great amount of speed but is handicapped occasionally by wildness. However he had the stuff in the right places as his 3 hit victory shows.

Mesch should be about the best backstop around this year and performed more than creditably in last week's performance. He possesses a great peg down to second and needs practically no time to heave it in. Will Romeyko unveiled himself as a neat fielder and a good batter. Willy is a trifle slow but will no doubt improve in time. Romeyko's long swing instead of a cut seems to be very effective.

Pat Indence, although no slugger, did very well in right field. Maclaren at short stop handled himself with the assurance of a veteran and plugged the hole between second and third so that not one ball leaked through. Brunola, Teta, Cruse, and Mayer also performed with exerty. Hits were obtained when they were needed and flawless fielding provided an exciting game.

Last Thursday Port traveled to Great Neck to battle with a veteran Great Neck nine.

When this column was written we did not know the results of the contest but we are looking for a pitchers battle with a few hits doing the trick for either side.
