Tomorrow, the blue and white makes its initial appearance upon the cinders in the Invitation Meet. This is one of the oldest meets on the Island and is the preview of the North Shore Championships. This year, Port is going in with a grim outlook and a prayer.

There is not enough boys out for track so that Coach Costello can put men in all the events. A few specialists are left from last season but there are virtually no Junior men to compete in this meet. We make a plea to those who are not out for track to come out and try your luck. The going isn't too tough and everyone will see competition in meets.

The baseball team has been performing regularly but playing irregular ball. After losing 14-0 to Glen Cove they beat Manhasset 3-1. Friday, Mineola creamed them 15-5 with Mesch making his debut as a pitcher. The game was better than the score indicate. Mesch gave up 7 hits while errors accounted for the rest. He was trifle wild, walking about 14 but had 11 strikeouts to his credit.

There should be an improvement as the season progresses. The green players are gradually being seasoned and their reactions under fire are steadily improving. Maclaren is the leading batter, with Mesch and Romeyko right behind. Pat Indence also gathered 2 hits of the Mineola pitcher for his first of the season.

Tennis and ping pong are well under way with many of the matches having been played off. Two of the fair damsels seen puffing on the courts are: "Rufus" Seaman and "Bob" Goodwin.

Those descendants of "Robin Hood," the archery girls, are seen out there on the field making bullseyes (?) every time. Some of the "skirts" seen are: Doris Sen, June Miller, Inger Molmen, Dot Palasky, Barbara Gumbrecht, "Pat" Colling, "Lee" Brown, and Joan Evans.

The soft ball team is progressing very rapidly what with many of the old timers on the squad. Seen hitting homers are: Marilyn Glasser, Mary Grady, Ellen Hansen, "Corky," Myrna Formickella, Joan McNeil, and Joan Riker.
Now we close with the happy thoughts of Spring. Be seeing you Tuesdays and Thursdays.
