Junior Prom To Be Formal, June 2

The Junior Prom is to be formal according to custom. Plans are being made to make it stand out as the best dance of the year. The theme for the decorations of the dance will be a Chinese garden. More could be told, but the rest is to be a surprise.

The band that has been decided upon is Berrett Border and his orchestra. The band will be the same band that was at the Youth Center Dance plus one trumpet player.

The dance will last from 8:30 to 1:00 on Friday evening, June 2. At a recent Junior Class meeting it was decided that the prices would be as follows: $1.50 per couple, $2.00 stag. Special consideration was given to the Seniors and they were given a special price: $1.00 per couple, $1.50 per stag.

Remember on June 2 at 8:30 P. M. to come to the high school cafeteria equipped with your best formal attire and a girl, and prepared to enjoy one of the best dances that you have ever attended.

The Entertainment committee is: Bob Varga, chairman, Ed Tjarks, Jimmy Thompson, and Lois Lauda. The decoration committee is George Wilkinson, chairman, John Wilkinson, Pat Dickenson, Barbara Goodwin, Barbara Somerville, Bob Muenzburg, Barbara Waters, Carol Bullis, Carol O'Brien, Inger Molmen, Joan Coffman, Peg. Dendievel, Dot Rynalski. The refreshments committee is: Steve Weber, chairman, Mary

"Elmer" Junior Play In Assembly Today

"Elmer," the junior play, was given today in assembly. It was a simple one act play about a burglar who stole Susan Collier's valuable new evening wrap. It was then up to the family to find the coat. The hunt provided fun throughout the play.

The main characters were as follows: Elmer Collier, a 14 year old boy, was played by Bob Varga. Gwen Hawes played Susan Collier, a sixteen year old girl. Jeanie Collier was portrayed by Lois Lauda and Barbara Somerville played Jeanie's twin, Janie. Others in the play were Louise Hutchinson, a dressmaker; Vivien Breithaupt, Mrs. Collier; Doris Senn, a servant; Bob McLaren, a 17 year old boy; Dick Bandfield, another boy; and a dog.

Mary Jane Smith and Sylvia Strange directed the play with the help of Mr. Ehre.

Port Weekly Party

All the active members of the Port Weekly Staff are invited to a small party next Monday afternoon, May 29, in the Port Weekly room. Come about 2:00. We'll all have fun.

Jane Smith, John Freeman, Lynn Loeser, Richard Commons, and Don Baker.

The Publicity committee is: Doris Baum, chairman, Bill Ecktermeyer, Marge Danielson, Dolores Smith, Chandler Wright.

The 1944 graduation class will consist of 126 members.

The Exercises are to be held Monday Evening, June 26. It was decided at a recent Senior Class meeting that the boys will wear what suits they have since many of them will be entering the service shortly and will not want to buy a new graduation suit. The girls are going to wear white evening dresses.

The principal speaker of the evening will be Dr. Harold E. B. Speight, Dean of the College at St. Lawrence University, Canton, New York.

The Salutatorian address will be given by Beryl Hegarty, and the Valedictorian address will be given by William Woodson. Mr. Hegarty, the chairman of the Board of Education, will give out the diplomas.

William Woodson is not only the valedictorian of the senior class but is also the president of the junior class. Ever since entering Senior High School in January 1942 he has been active in the student extracurricular program. He was homeroom president, alternate council representative, and a member of the football squad in his first year in senior high school. Beryl Hegarty has also been active in the life of the school. She has participated in archery, hockey, bowling, and dramatics. She is a member of the Port Weekly staff and has been a member of the Student Council.

Senior Banquet June 2

The Senior Banquet will be June 7. From all sources the reports are favorable. A special blue plate dinner will be served. (It has been hinted that there will be meat!)

At the head table Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Schrieber, and the Senior Class officers will be seated. Senior Class will and prophesy will be read.

Solo's Ensembles Contest Tomorrow

The solo and ensemble music contest will be staged here tomorrow.

It is the State finals and instrumentalists, vocalists, and even baton twirlers will compete for ratings. This follows up the regional contest which was conducted here on May 12.
