It will be sponsored jointly by the Port Weekly and the Art Club. The price is $1.50 per couple, and $2.00 for stags.

A band will provide the music, and the Art Club will supply the decorations. Anne Guerry represents the Port Weekly on this committee. Nat Smith is in charge of tickets, Riggy Wile heads the cleanup committee; the refreshment committee is under the direction of Martha Sykes and Barry Wood, and the Port Weekly is handling publicity.

Treasurer C. Lewis Starts G.O. Drive 350 Sold To Date

You are all interested in the G.O. ticket. If you aren't, you should be. It offers you many benefits. For the price of $1.25 you now save $7.00 on school activities. The G.O. fund also pays for our assemblies; thirty are planned for us this year. Much extra-curricular equipment is also purchased by the G.O. for school clubs.

By attending the four home football games you save $1.00 on admission tickets, if a G.O. ticket holder. The seven home basketball games save you $1.75, which is more than the cost of the ticket itself. You are also given free, thirty issues of the PORT WEEKLY, which would cost you $3.00. Concerts save you $.75, and a $.50 discount is yours on the purchase of a ticket to the annual G.O. Dance. All of these savings add up to $7.00.— But there's even more! On the back of the G.O. ticket there is a list of stores which offer you discounts. They are: the Port Washington Flower Shop, The Alcove, Eastern Camera Exchange, Lawrence Shoe Shop, Port Electric Shop, B & L Athletic Supply, Inc., Vanity Fair Beauty Salon, Chester's Highway Garage, Marsh Appliance Center, Inc., Straub Music Center, and Newmark Art Supplies.

If you failed to buy your ticket at the ticket window, in the lobby, don't despair! You may still take advantage of the benefits by purchasing your ticket in room six, or from any G.O. officers, who are Fred Drewes, president; Leonard Utz, vice president; Genie Jacoby, secretary, and Charles Lewis, treasurer.
