Doris Haviland Thanks G.O. For Aid

(Editor's note: the following is a letter written to Mr. Merrill, principal of P.D.S.H.S. by a recipient of a G.O. Scholarship.)
 Dear Mr. Merrill:

I would like to thank you and the General Organization Scholarship Committee of the past year, for awarding me a scholarship last June, when I graduated from Paul D. Schreiber High School. It has been a great help to my parents and me in financing my first year at college. I hope that I will be able to keep up my marks and deserve the honor.

I also hope that the school will continue its aid to students who plan college educations, and I am sure that they will appreciate it in future years at various colleges, as I do at William Smith.

Thank you again for your aid.

Sincerely,

Doris Haviland

Student Enterprise

Boys from the junior and senior class are wanted! A NEW TYPE OF AFTER SCHOOL JOB . . .

Most of you are going to earn your living as businessmen when you're through with high school or college.

You, and a great many young men, are going to look for a job. You are going to try to sell an employer on the idea of putting you on the payroll at a good salary.

STUDENT ENTERPRISE has jobs for some of the boys in the Paul D. Schreiber High School. It is entirely different from the usual run of after school jobs that are available. It will be valuable experience for the future. Instead of being a job which pays so much an hour, it is a job which guarantees a specific minimum as a "floor" on your income.

But, there is no ceiling on this income. If you work at this job and learn what STUDENT ENTERPRISE can teach you, you can make more money with them than at almost any other part-time job.

It's a job where your income goes up as you learn how to do the work they have for you.

A GUARANTEED MINIMUM INCOME WITH UNLIMITED MAXIMUM EARNINGS . . .

Your work will be done after school. You will start with door to door selling of selected products which have been pre-tested for sales appeal. You will be taught by one of STUDENT ENTERPRISE'S instructors how to sell these products to homes. Each product that you sell will help you learn a practical lesson in business.

Part of the time you will get training in business research and marketing. For this work you receive $1.00 an hour.

You start with a minimum pay which is just covering the time put in. The rest you earn yourself.

This plan was run on a trial basis last spring at Freeport, Long Island where it met with a great deal of success. The average earnings ranged from $6 to $10. But some ambitious students made as much as $30 a week.

More details and a sample of the products that you will sell are in Mr. Schafer's Room — 101. We sincerely hope that all the boys interested will contact Mr. Schafer as soon as possible, so that the wheels of STUDENT ENTERPRISE may start to turn in Port Washington High School.

CIRCLE

Circle, the national honor society, recently initiated twenty-nine new members. Membership is based on a point system. Seventy-five points must be tallied by scholastic achievement, and twenty-five points by extra curricula activities.

New initiates are: Kay Bradley, Joan Brooks, Ronald Cernank, Mickey Compere, Nancy Cunningham, Fred Drewes, Jean Moffat, Gloria Ehlert, Marlene Kiupel, David Kane, Judy Lincoln, Patty Lynch, Barbara McKelvey, Toni Monetti, Nancy Pickett, Bob Pratt, Carol Roper, Richard Rhodes, Arnold Schlingheyde, Linda Schneeloch, Martha Sykes, Embeth Stumpf, Roger Texier, Christine Tapsell, Bob Wheeler, Leonard Utz, Steve Vishenoff, Riggy Wile, and Barry Wood.

New members were installed Monday night by acting officers, Charles Savini, president, and Florence Nacht, secretary. Mr. Merrill is the faculty advisor. Subsequent meetings will be held at 8 P.M. on the fourth Mondays monthly.

CLIO

Clio, the honorary history club, held its first meeting recently. New initiates were required to do a skit on some historical event. Some of the outstanding skits included the completion of the transcontinental railroad, Washington crossing the Delaware, the Hamilton-Burr Duel and the trial of Peter Zenger. Kay Bradley, president, read the Constitution of the club, while refreshments were served.

FRATRY

Fratry, the boy's service organization, recently initiated twelve new members. They are: Craig Crouse, Bob Dohm, Peter Gale, Jim Gilbert, Gerry Lee, Morris Johnson, Bob Metzger, Roger Musselwhite, Paul Nuzzolese, George Palaski, Bill Yorio and John Schermerhorn. Eligibility is based on an S average in attitude for the past year and a willingness to be of service to the school.

Fratry also had its members serve on the stage crew during the recent United Nations Panel Discussion. Another service rendered by Fraternity is the selling of refreshments during half time at home football games. Last week they distributed free programs to the patrons of the game.

COLLEGE REPRESENTATIVE

Guidance counsellors, Miss Thompson and Mr. Scherer, have arranged for the following college representatives to be in P.-D.S.H.S. during the month of November. The colleges are: Hamilton, Wells, Western, Harpur, and Greenbrier.

air, Eddie came out, dressed in grey trousers, black shirt, and a bright orange jacket. He spent some time in answering questions, and during the next hour he proved to everyone that he is a very likeable personality, and is very much at ease with his fans.

Eddie Fisher was born in Philadelphia on August 10, 1928, the fourth of six children. He was gifted with a fine voice, and won a prize on a children's amateur radio contest when he was eight. At fourteen he began singing on WFIL in his hometown, receiving fifteen cents a week — for carfare. He was soon featured regularly on that station and in 1946 he set out for New York City. After many lean days he joined the entertainment staff at the resort hotel, Grossinger's. He played thirteen weeks at the Copacabana and returned for many summers to Grossinger's. His confidence was shaken at times—but never his determination.

Then, on Labor Day of 1949, Eddie received his first big break when he was on the same bill with Eddie Cantor. He was signed to accompany Cantor on a nation-wide tour. In June 1950 Eddie Fisher made a last-minute substitution for Fran Warren at Bill Miller's Riviera and soon offers were pouring in.

His first big hit records for RCA Victor were "Thinking of You" and "Bring Back the Thrill". Since then he has turned out a record-breaking number of consecutive hit platters with "Many Times", his fifteenth in a row.

Eddie was inducted into the U. S. Army in April, 1951. For two years he toured the United States, Korea, Japan, and Europe with the U. S. Army Band, after his basic training at Fort Hood, Texas.

On April 10, 1953 he opened at the Paramount, where all-time attendance records were set.

He then started his TV and radio series for Coca-Cola. This was interrupted for an appearance at London's Palladium. Upon his return to the States, Eddie resumed as the star of "Coke Time." The contract for the show has been renewed for another 26 weeks beginning with October 28.

Eddie is 5 feet 8½ inches tall and weighs 140. He has curly black hair and brown eyes. His favorite food is lima beans and he is left-handed, but writes with his right hand. He rooted for the Dodgers in the World Series. His favorite Hollywood actresses are Audrey Hepburn and Debby Reynolds. Everyone, including himself, hopes to see him in a motion picture in the near future.

Behind The Scenes

"Coke Time" costs $2,000 per minute to broadcast. The studio where the Eddie Fisher Show was presented had seats slanting
