PRICE: TEN CENTS

More Discipline Is Discussed By G.O.

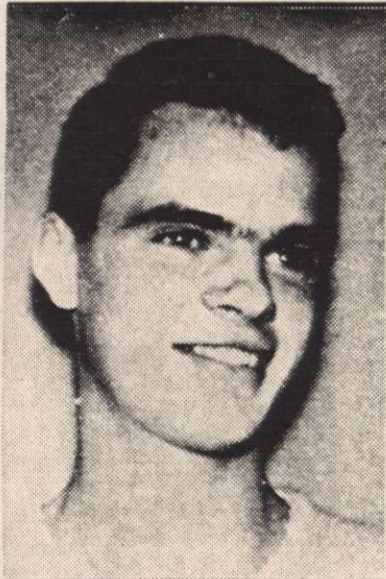

Is this school getting to be a prison? Are there more and more rules put into effect everyday? Are these rules carried out by the student body? These and many other related topics were discussed at the last student council meeting.

The disorderly conduct during the recent assemblies seems to be the spark that ignited this probe. Some students voiced the opinion that the speakers treated the subjects childishly and un-interestingly, and on a lower mental level than high school students possess. The council felt that the students should be able to conduct themselves in a more orderly fashion and leave out the unnecessary booing, whistling, talking, and continuous clapping.

Since a majority of the students in the assembly were discourteous, measures have been taken to correct this. If a home room is disorderly, it will be deprived of the privilege of attending assemblies.

Student Of Week

When you hear a certain boisterous laugh resounding through the halls of P.D.S.H.S., look for Herbie Watson, the student of the week.

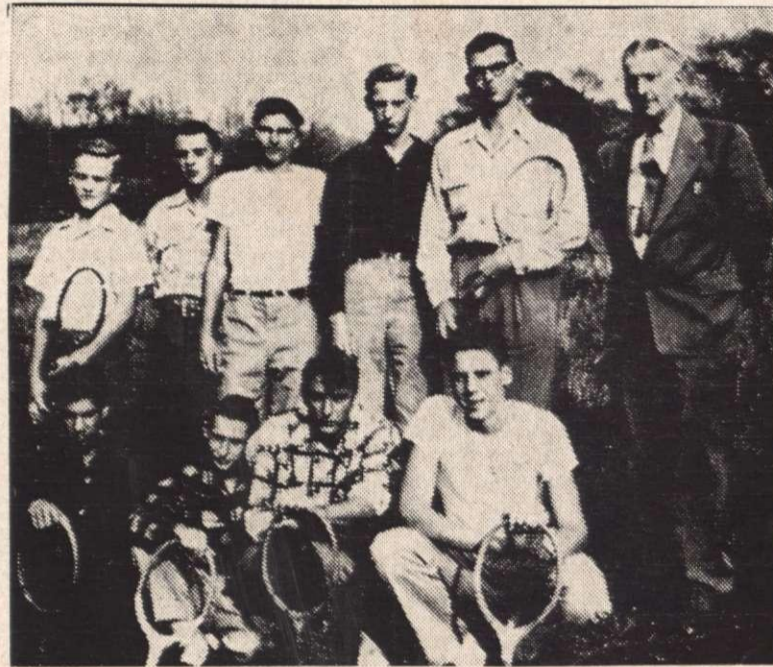

HERB WATSON

Recently elected vice president of Fraternity, this handsome Senior is active in school affairs. During his sophomore and junior years, he was president of his homeroom. Last spring, Herb headed the carnival com-

Plaudits For Third Place Tennis Team

The Port Washington Tennis Team, led by captains George Girardin and Bill Brown, climbed into third place in this year's league standings. They were just behind Great Neck and Garden City who tied for first place.

It was Port's outstanding singles team of Bill Brown, George Girardin and John Foster that kept the team in contention throughout the race. Avars Krasts and Arthur Nodine also turned in impressive matches.

The team compiled an 8 and 5 record, beating Manhasset, Farmingdale and Glen Cove twice, Sea Cliff once and splitting two games with Roslyn. They lost twice to the league's two leading teams, Great Neck and Garden City.

Of the twelve men on the team there are ten lettermen. They are: Ambler, Brown, Foster, Girardin, Krasts, Murray, Richardson, Nodine, Seddon and Slusser. To receive a letter six matches are required. Ronald Borgman and Bill Wagner are the other members of the team. Eight of the twelve men are seniors; seven are lettermen.

Coach Brown said next year's outstanding prospects are Krasts, Richardson and Slusser.

Mr. Brown, coach of the team since 1932, has led the team to three championships.

Harvest Moon Ball Billed For Nov. 25

Amidst vivid colors of The Harvest Moon Ball, to be presented by the class of '54 on November 25, Doug Gray's band will be featured.

This popular band, who played at the Graduates Gamble last June, will play for the first formal dance of '53.

David Kane, president of the senior class, expressed optimism that this dance will be heralded with the usual success.

Girardin To Be On TV Forum Sat.

George Girardin will appear as a panel member on the N.Y. Times Youth Forum, to be televised from the Ambassador Theatre on Saturday, November 7, from 5:30 to 6:30 on Dumont-W.A.B.D. The program will be presented on radio on November 14, from 10:30 to 11:00 (Saturday morning) on W.Q.X.R. The subject will be "Can We Have World Peace Without Fear." Dag Hammarskjold, Secretary General of the U.N. will conduct the meeting; Dorothy Gordon will moderate.

George was selected as a result of the question he submitted several weeks ago to the U.N. Youth Forum.

Open House Begins Ed. Week In P.D.S.

Monday night, the 9th of November, the high school will be open to parents. All the parents of senior high school students are invited to come.

To start things off, at 7:45 a program will be presented in the auditorium. Mr. Merrill will talk followed by a speech by Dr. Hall. The choir and band, under the direction of Mr. Christopher, will perform. A trio, composed of Averil Olsen, Nancy Nystrom and Tanya Pastarnikovas, will sing "Lift Thine Eyes to the Mountains" from Mendelssohn's Elijah.

The dramatic class, under the supervision of Doc Ehre, will present a number of skits. The theme of these is high points in American Education. The dramatic class wrote and directed all the skits. Some of the skits will be How the Kindergarten started, Women in Science, Driver Education, the School of the Future, and the Atomic Age.

The parents will then visit the rooms and teachers. Afterwards cider and doughnuts will be served in the cafeteria. These refreshments are to be provided by the Port Washington High School Men's Association.

Students, a great deal of work is being put into this program, so urge your parents to come.

Interclass Plays Slated For Nov. 21

The time is drawing near for the annual presentation of the Interclass Plays. Production was started last Monday with tryouts for various parts in the three different class plays to be presented on November 21 at 8:30 o'clock.

The senior play is entitled, "The Brave Shall Serve," and it is under the direction of Kay Bradley and Marilyn Fanshawe. Sue Hall and Embeth Stumph, directors of the junior play selected "Havana Moon." The sophomores' production will be "Elmer" and it is being directed by Kate Stowe and Lillian Blanc.
