ber of Focus, Clio and the P.A. Club. He qualified for the track team last year, and is planning to go out for it again this year. Ronnie is treasurer of the Long Island Federation of Temple Youth and belongs to the Junior Temple Club of Great Neck.

Bill Wagner makes his debut on the tennis team this year. He is very active in school activities: Link Trainer, Band and Orchestra, chorus and the PORT WEEKLY. Last year he was a member of the Student Council. Bill has been working with the Play Troupe for the past year on lighting and has appeared in several productions.

mittee for room 104 and actively campaigned during the G.O. elections.

This year Herbie is treasurer of his homeroom, a member of the PORT LIGHT business staff, a PORT WEEKLY reporter, and chairman of the Senior Prom refreshment committee.

A man of many means, Herbie is often seen driving a black '47 Dodge through the streets of Port. His other interests include: social activities, basketball, and water skiing. One of his outstanding characteristics is the wonderful school spirit he displays.

In planning for the future, business administration at Duke University tops Herb's list.

by Sergeant Week-end

Halloween weekend is usually a very busy time for my department. Betty Lou Bowman and Linda Pollack went to Lehigh for the weekend to visit Wally Fearon and a friend of his.

At the Port movies Friday night were: Marlene Kiupel and Gerry Lee, Barbara Burke and Louis Cozza, and at the Huntington movies were Marilyn Fanshawe and Tommy Hines.

Saturday I watched the very exciting Port - Great Neck game with all the loyal Port rooters. That night I got a lead on a party at Sue Gaita's house. Enjoying themselves were hostess and Eddie Lloyd, Mary Schlingheyde and Bob Lincoln, Judy W. Robinson and Seamus McGrady, Judy P. Robinson and Bob Aymar, Cordelia Sykes and Roddy Hull, Diana Kammerlohr and Alien Pollock, Kitty Christie and Roger Musselwhite, Marilyn Smith and John Schmerhorn, Bobbie Johnson and Ronnie Musselwhite, Mary Lou Teta and Jimmy Gilbert, Sue Weidinger and Skippy Copp, Brenda Hartell and Dave Cutler, Catherine Cosolito and Dick Hildebrandt.

Having fun outside my district were Kay Bradley and Jack Schmeig at a dance in Farmingdale, and Anne Guerry and Eddie Torney attending a dance at Webb Institute.

Francis Slicklen had a big party at his house. Among the guests were: Terry Hyer and host, Nancy Pickett and John Dolan (Chaminade), Kay Ward and Pete Fatizzi, Maura Nordquist and Dave Kane, Janet Nielson and J. R. Laucella, Gail Lindorfer and Paul Boehme, Marie DeFeo and Al Scaramuche, Patty Lynch and Buster Wiles, Jean Carlson and Nunny Caperella, Irene (Great Neck) and Pin Hall, and Sandy (Manhasset) and Ernie Jackson.

Having completed my mission, I turned in my report. This is Sergeant Week-end signing off!!

Johnson Attends Meetings At R.P.I.

Mrs. Johnson represented P.-D.S.H.S. at the Industry and Education Convention at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute last week. There were 605 teachers from the U.S.A.

The purpose of the convention was to transmit to the teachers the aspects and prerequisites of industrial work.

The presidents of many of the leading industrial companies attended the convention to talk and answer questions.

The main points that were stressed by the industrialists were that students should take mechanical or chemical engineering rather than electrical engineering, since there seems to be more demand for the former type of engineer. More boys are urged to take higher mathematics. It is advisable for a student to take a liberal arts course, and then the companies will further train good students in more specialized fields. Very important factors in any business is to be able to get along with people, and to learn to follow directions.
