

The Port Weekly

Vol. XXVIII — No. 9

Paul D. Schreiber High School, Port Washington, N. Y., December 11, 1953

TEN CENTS

Kane, Vishanoff Win Panel Awards

David Kane and Steve Vishanoff won first and second place respectively, in the recent panel discussion in assembly.

Sponsored by the American Legion Post 509, the panel topic was, "What Are My Responsibilities Under The Constitution To My Neighbors?" Other panel members included: Mickey Compere, Linda Schneeloch, moderator, Kay Bradley, Bob Wheeler, Richard Ambler, Charles Savini, Tom Fetch, Norman Reisner, Charlie Lewis and Leonard Utz.

David and Steve will receive medals inscribed with their names. David will compete in Manhasset with winners from other high schools.

Two Dances Slated For H. S. Students

Paul D. Schreiber's student council is planning a G.O. dance on December 19; in addition, the Rotary Club and the Villa Nova Social Club are planning to have a dance for Port High's students on December 29.

G.O. To Sponsor Hop

With Johnny Hobbins' Band furnishing the music, the hop will last from 8:30 P.M. until midnight.

So come on chicks, don't be bashful, ask your rooster to the Christmas Dance!

Square Dance Dec. 29

Square and ballroom dancing will be in order at the pre-New Year Follies Square Dance.

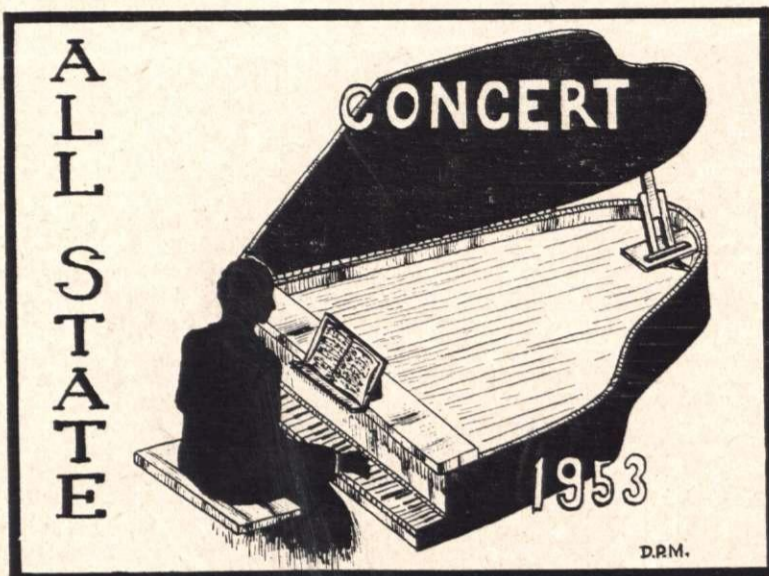

Music will be supplied by Mac Leod's Hill Billies. The dance, sponsored by Rotary, will be conducted by the senior high school students. Tickets are only fifty cents. So, get your partners and promenade at the Pre-New Year Follies!

The faculty and students of Paul D. Schreiber High School wish to express their deepest sympathy to Mr. Arthur La Bonte on the recent death of his wife, Mrs. Blanche La Bonte.

- Dec. 11 Basketball, Port vs. Sea Cliff, home.
- Dec. 12 All State Concert, P.-D.S.H.S. Gym at 8:15. Admission $1.00.
- Dec. 19 G.O. Christmas Hop

Paul D. Schreiber H. S. Host To All Staters

Christopher Heads All State Program

George A. Christopher, conductor of the senior high school Band and Choir of the Paul D. Schreiber High School, and co-chairman of the All State Concert, was born in Vallisca, Iowa.

His musical studies began when he decided to take piano lessons while attending grade school in Missouri. However, piano did not suit him too well, and he jokingly admits that he "quit piano three times." Nevertheless, his interest in music continued and he was able to persuade his parents to buy him his first cornet — a nickel plated "job" ordered from a Sears Roebuck Catalogue! Young George's talent soon showed itself, and it wasn't long before he was play-

(Continued on Page 4)

Costello Feted For 25 Years Service

Beginning his December 4 radio broadcast, Tex McCrary said, "Congratulations to Leo B. Costello, coach at Port High. The dinner last night told you that you are a beloved man."

Mr. McCrary was one of the guest speakers at the testimonial dinner presented in honor of Mr. Costello. Given at the Riviera by friends and former athletes under him, the dinner was in recognition of his twenty-five years' service as coach at Port Washington Senior High School.

Mr. Costello, a three letter graduate of St. Lawrence, was cited by Nassau County officials in 1934 when, shortly after becoming a member of the Port Washington High School faculty,

(Continued on Page 2)

Paul D. Schreiber High School is host to 430 students representing over forty schools in Nassau and Suffolk counties, today and tomorrow. The All State Sectional Concert will climax many hours of work and practice by those participating.

Mr. Kenneth Brown, head of P.D.S.H.S.'s commercial department is co-chairman of the event with Mr. George Christopher, supervisor of music in the Port Washington School System.

Conducting the Varsity Band will be Dr. Paul Van Bodegraven. A resident and former supervisor of music in Port Washington, now a professor of music education at New York University he is a member of the committee of Music Educators National Conference.

Under the direction of Joseph Saetveit, the 120 member choir will also be featured. Dr. Saetveit is supervisor of music of New York State.

Elvin Freeman, Director of music in Pulaski Central High School and vice president of the

(Continued on Page 5)

Brooks Wins Good Citizenship Award

Joan Brooks was recently chosen to be Port Washington's Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship representative. The faculty chose Joan from a group of three girls that were selected by the senior class to represent Port High.

JOAN BROOKS

Joan will attend a tea with D.A.R. representatives from oth-

(Continued on Page 4)

Student Schedule For All Staters

Friday

- 9:30 to 2:30 Auditions for seating
- 1:00 Registration and room assignments. Locate your lodging house before the evening rehearsal
- 2:30 Initial rehearsals of Cadet Band in Auditorium; Choir, Music Room; Orchestra, Library; and Varsity Band, Room 114.
- 5:30 Dinner Recess
- 7:15 Rehearsals of Choir, Orchestra and Bands
- 9:30 Dance (Overnight guests are to report to homes before midnight)

Saturday

- 9:00 Rehearsal for All Groups
- 11:30 Luncheon Recess
- 1:00 Rehearsals of All Groups in Gymnasium. Varsity Band at 2:00; Orchestra, 3:00; Cadet Band, 4:00. All Groups (Finale), 5:00
- 5:45 Dinner
- 8:15 Concert