Port Swamps Manhasset

Almost duplicating the outcome of their earlier game with Manhasset, the Port nine completely outclassed the Indians, last Monday, by the count of 14-1. Playing hard to prevent losing any of the all important, remaining games, Port unloaded 16 hits for fourteen runs, surpassing their season's high of ten runs, which was also against the Indians.

Keeping Pace With the Trojans

Port showed no signs of weakening in the tight pennant race, although they did show plenty of hitting strength, with nine different players credited with hits. Pete Fatizzi again was the batting standout, collecting four hits in four trips to the plate. The other players credited with hits are Jackson - three, Dell and Ron Musselwhite - two, and Wiles, Newman, Lloyd, Rezek, and Pollock, each getting one hit.

Extra-base Power

In the fourth inning, leading by the score of 7-0, two of Port's clean-up batters, Musselwhite and Jackson, unloaded a triple and a homer, respectively, in a big five-run inning. Port added two more runs and the Indians got one run on a walk, wild throw, and sacrifice. Joe Rezek went the distance for Port, allowing only three hits.

Garden City Downs Port

By the time you read this article, the Rogomen will have played their final three games, barring postponements because of rain. Monday, Port lost to the other title contender, Garden City, on the winner's diamond, by the score of 6-0. If we beat Glen

Girls' Sports

by M. Boukouris & M. Fanshawe

Archery

Several weeks ago the archery team was chosen. Manager Sue Capobianco and Miss "F" selected the following girls: B. McKelvey, J. Carlson, J. Moffat, B. Bowman, N. Smith, S. Ingram, J. Lincoln, N. Cunningham, S. Capobianco, and C. Roper as Lady Paramount.

On May 18 the girls of the club shot against Hicksville and Port won by an overwhelming score. Nat Smith had the highest score for the day with 48. Barbara McKelvey and Betty Lou Bowman tied with 33 hits.

Last Tuesday the Inter-class meet was held. Results will be published in the next issue.

June 5 the qualifying members of the club will shoot at the Hempstead Lake Park Meet.

Baseball

On May 18 the Varsity baseball team played a game against a strong Hicksville team which was sparked by excellent pitching. Hicksville won 13-0.

Badminton

Final tournaments will be held with the following girls participating: W. Schultz, K. McElwaine, N. Roome, A. Hooper, N. Hegeman, N. Pickett, C. Allman, K. Klumpp, A. Weingart, and V. Seifts.

Cove, Tuesday and Garden City yesterday, we are now tied for the Western Division crown with Garden City and will compete in the play-offs.

On North Shore Cinders

Last Saturday, in the successful defense of their NSAL track championship, the host Blazers scored 43 points with Manhasset and Farmingdale in the runner-up position.

Brown Ties

By tying for first in the high jump, Bill Brown won the only gold medal for Port High. The quartet of Ray Sautler, Bob Slusser, Norman Taylor, and Jay Purdy took second in the 880-yd. relay, which was won by the Manhasset Indians in an eye-opening 1.33:8 clocking, the best in the county this season. Jay Purdy also placed third in the 220-yd. dash, thus qualifying for the Nassau County Meet. His teammates Ray Sautler, Al DeMeo, Dick Dykes, and Bob Slusser failed to place in their respective events.

Break Previous Port Record

With a leap of 20 feet and eleven inches, Oyster Bay's Rick Robinson established a new broad jump record. Tossing the iron ball 54 feet and 10 inches, Eino Keerd of Great Neck, bettered the former mark of 52 feet and 10 1/2 inches set by Don Bell of Port Washington in 1950.

Player Of Week

George Ribar

This week the honor goes to George Ribar for his outstanding work in track, for the last two years, and for his steady performances in Varsity football last fall.

First-string Guard

George came to Port from Yugoslavia, in his sophomore year. He was familiar with the game of soccer there, and this ability in soccer enabled him to pick up football quickly. He played last year as starting guard on the Jay Vee football team. This year he also played first-string guard on the Varsity.

George is our number one point getter in the discus department, and is also our best miler. His hard working attitude in football also shows up in his school work, for he stands in the upper half of his class, is a member of Clio, and is a sports writer for the Port Weekly. After graduation this June, George plans to attend college.
