

Port Washington's My Social Beat

by Sergeant Week-end

Friday night, the department received a call that Fraternity was having a dance. My job . . . report it. So I pulled out my squad car and drove to the scene of action. As I arrived I saw Judy Lincoln and John Scrofani, Peggy Hoffer and Frank D'elia, Joan Brooks and Dave Palmer, and Kate Stowe and Gene Santuccioli.

This call was a good tip. Seen buying tickets were Irene Weisberg and Pin Hall, Pat Lynch and Linsey Wiles, Nancy Knoblauch and Harold Stowe, Gloria Ehlert and Tony Dellavechea and Emily Adee and Bill Davis.

As I entered the cafeteria I noticed Helen Pomeroy and Leonard Utz, Jane Hill and Dave Kane, Bobby Johnson and Roger Musselwhite, Chris Drake and Bill Thomson, Catherine Cosolito and Frank Spaulding, Ruth Arnao and Bob Parker, Peggy Ray and Bob Lassie, Marilyn Smith and John Schermerhorn, and Barbara Denny and Herbie Watson.

Dancing to the terrific music were Carol Driscoll and Fred Johnson, Karla Klumpp and Fred Drewes, Marion Ciminera and Craig Crouse, Kay Bradley and Jack Schmeig, Maureen Currie and Jay Greene, Embeth Stumph and Pete Horr, Barbara De Feo and Tom Faticone, and Josephine Giagu and Walt Palasky.

Tagging on at the end of the Bunny Hop, I saw Gail Lindorfer and Paul Boehme, Peggy Wurtz and Bob Dohm, Florence Emry and Aivars Krasts, Barry Wood and Bob Pratt, Ann Fitzgerald and Charlie Horowitz, Sue Gaita and Jimmy Gilbert, Mary LeCure and Seamus McGrady, and Barbara Burke and Louis Cozza.

At the end of the dance I said goodbye and reported my findings to the commissioner. This is Sergeant Week-end, signing off!!

Mystery Baby

Guess Who?

This week's Mystery Baby grew up to be quite a fellow! Although he may often speak of eating cornbeef and cabbage, he really prefers steak and pineapple pie. He dislikes smart cookies, but adores chocolate cake made from a cook book recipe.

As far as musical talent goes, he could, but it is not very likely, he called the "Eddie Fisher of Port High." An avid Eddie Fisher fan, his favorite song is "Oh, My Pa Pa."

His heart belongs in a certain New England state whose merits he often boasts. He follows sports very closely, usually from the sidelines. His best subjects seem to be math, science and history, and he specializes in one. Bowling and television occupy his spare time.

Known by many of the seniors of Port High, he tags his fellows such names as "shining stars" and "Joe Colleges."

The name "Katie" will bring a smile to his face, he'll adjust his glasses and will talk endlessly of her latest achievements.

Among the colleges whose activities he follows closely are Cornell, New York University, and that's right fellows, The University of New Hampshire!

If you don't already know who the mystery baby is, that's mighty poor work; but look in the advertisements in this paper and you will find his name as easy as a cake walk.
