

Port Washington's My Social Beat

by Sergeant Week-end

All week long, I was shining my shoes, stiffening my bow tie and soaking my "flat feet" in preparation for the docking of the "Showboat" on Saturday nite, June 5, when the juniors staged their fabulous dance offering for '54. The boys at the station house got me all set up with a classy

AT THE BEACON

Playing June 9 through 12, are "The Captain's Paradise" and "Prisoner of War." "The Captain's Paradise" stars the well-known comic, Alec Guinness, who discovers the perfect way of life with a unique love triangle: a wife in every port. The comedy starts when Celia Johnson and Yvonne De Carlo, his two wives, meet. "Prisoner of War," starring Ronald Reagan, Steve Forrest and Dewey Martin, is a war story which takes place in North Korea.

On June 13 through June 15, "River of No Return," a technicolor Cinemascope production starring Marilyn Monroe, Robert Mitchum, Rory Calhoun, and Tommy Rettig, will be featured. Set in the Canadian wilds of 1875, "River of No Return" is an exciting outdoor motion picture, chock full of adventure and romance.

policewoman from Jersey. I rented a tux and got someone to take over my post for the special night.

At 6:30 p.m. I hastened to the Port Washington Flower Shop where I saw Joe Newman, Howard Blakeslee, Charles Lewis, Dick Oswald and Bill Davis buying corsages for their dates: Sue Dorn, Dina Mori, Joyce Currie, Kitty Christy and Emily Adee, respectively.

I called for the policewoman at 8:15 p.m. and we crept up to Paul D. Schreiber High School in my 1928 Pierce-Arrow while Marilyn Muro and Martin Dooley, Mimi Ruch and Charlie Hoyt, Diana Kammerlohr and Allan Pollock, Karla Klump and Norman Macartney and Mary Schlingheyde and Bob Lincoln were voicing their indignation at our slow pace. Leaving Sadie Sampson's wrap on a table, I spotted Judy Barsky and Richard Newman, Pat Pumphrey and John Richardson, Marilyn Smith and John Schermerhorn and Jane Warren and Bill Taylor gathered in the hall discussing the usual question, who's who and where are they?

The scenery was a wonderful spectacle to feast your eyes on and those seen enjoying the atmosphere were Averil Olsen and Jerry Conway, Kay Ward and Pete Fatizzi, Anne Betts and Jim Mason, Gail Lindoerfer and Paul Boehme and Cherry McClure and Joe Rezek. Carrying on the selection of tables were Fran Teta and Curt von Boetticher, Marie DeFeo and Al Scaramouche, Marian D'Arpa and Byron Anderson and Irene Slater and Finn Kljingenberg who seemed to be happy with their choices. The band began to strike up a tune and the evening of fun was started.

A lady photographer soon put in an appearance on the scene and those who were posing for the "birdie" were Diana Donald and Morris Johnson, Betsy Frost and Darryl Seerup, Sue Weidinger and Brooks Dorn, Cordie Sykes and Bob Douglass and Brenda Hartell and Ralph Deater. Even my Sadie had her "mug" snapped. The dances were many and varied and Jane Monroe and Curt Robb, Sherry Walther and Pete Gale, Mary Lou Teta and Roger Musselwhite, Sue Gaita and Jimmy Gilbert, Bobby Johnson and Bob Metzger, Nancy Buckley and Jimmy Hartigan, Carol Ciminera and George Girardon, Barbara Dannelly and Herb Watson and Ione Newbold and John Richardson were whizzing around the dance floor.

The crowning of the queen—Genie Jacoby, whose date was Allan Armbruster, and the king, Bob Dohme, who escorted Peggy Wurtz, was seen by Ellie Meyer and Fred Drewes and many other couples.
