Hockey Teams Undefeated

Establishing a new record for the girls' hockey teams of Port Senior High, the varsity and junior varsity had an undefeated season. The junior varsity added further laurels to their team by preventing the opposition from scoring in all five of the scheduled games.

This year's hockey manager, Nancy Walker, and her assistant, Sue Dorn, have been in charge of a girls' sports club which can be justly proud of its successful season. The varsity, captained by Ann James and the junior varsity, headed by Sue Dorn, led their teams in truly victorious spirit. The varsity's high scorer was Peggy Wurtz with a total of five goals to her credit, while Sue Dorn ran up a sum of two goals for the junior varsity.

Port played against an impressive array of teams with three

The junior varsity stacked up an equally impressive record as Port downed Hicksville 1-0; Port 2, Oyster Bay 0; Port 2, Great Neck 0; Port 2, Manhasset 2, and Port 0, Friends Academy 0.

All hockey team members wish to express their sincere appreciation and thanks to Miss Foehrenbach for her help and advice in taking them through an undefeated season. Cheers also go to the faithful score - keeper, Cary Whitmore and time-keeper, Joan Kirkpatrick.

Playing in the final hockey game of the season, the Blues tied the Whites in a very hard fought game. The action began at 4 p.m. on Monday afternoon, November 15. Ann Macpherson scored the goal for the Blue team and Mary Ann Bendix made the lone tally for the Whites. Betsy Ingley, playing the position of goalie on the Blue team for the first time, did an outstanding job of preventing the Whites from scoring further.

Player Of Week

by Seamus McGrady

This week's Player of the Week was chosen not because of any one special play or tackle, but rather in honor of his fine job throughout the entire season. He is Paul Nuzzolese, the backbone of Port Washington's line.

It is very easy to single out and admire a star back or a great end; but to understand and respect the job of a lineman is quite a different thing. There is no particular glory in being on the bottom of every pile - up. Nine-tenths of the grandstand cannot appreciate a fine block. It seems that whenever you win the backs get the credit and whenever you lose it's the line's fault. No, glory seekers don't go out for left tackle, but a football team is absolutely lost unless people like Paul sacrifice personal fame for the good of the team.

Paul won his J.V. letter in his freshman year. As a sophomore,
