Night Before Christmas

by Brenda Talbot and Cynthia Baldwin

'Twas the night before Christmas, and there was no school. All the bopsters were stirring; they all felt real cool. Their argyles were hung by the smokestack with care, 'Cause that old man in red soon would be there.

The cool cats were nestled all snug in their beds, While visions of hot-rods rolled by in their heads. When out in the street there arose such a clatter, They sprang from their bunks to see what was the matter.

And what to their wondering eyes should appear, But a '28 coupe; it was just shifting gear, And they heard someone say, 'o'er the noise of the duals, "Have a real frantic first and an awfully cool yule."

Thursday we made a clean sweep of our contests with Hicksville. The seniors fought hard and pulled through with a 24-23 victory. Leading all the way, the Port juniors trounced Hicksville 36-13. By winning 51 to 9, the sophs clearly established the fact that they have a great team.

Grouchy Replaces

Grouchy stood still for a few minutes, then he proceeded quietly upstairs. In the room at the head of the stairs he found a very beautiful girl asleep. She was shivering from the cold, and Grouchy took off the new red overcoat he had just bought, and threw it over her. Then he reached into his infinite sack of gifts and took out a complete wardrobe, even Bermuda shorts, and draped the clothes around the room in as festive a manner as a person of his character could. After that, he slipped out of the room.

As the sleigh once again rose into the sky, the reindeer were surprised to hear "Jingle Bells", in a very low tone and slightly off key. They were even more surprised when they discovered who was singing it.

Biddle, J. Biscaro, A. Macpherson, G. Stein, and J. Driggers represented PDSHS at N. Y. U. We did not do too well in the first game, but managed to win the next two by one point. We also lost the last game. This record is not so bad as it looks because three of the games were played against college teams while the other was against Forest Hills.

stage in the future. Then we also have veterans such as Ann Segrave, Adelaide Farah, Dick Newman, and Don Zurwelle who will insure the success of the play. We have a lot more help this year backstage as well as in front of the house with Betty Lou Bowman as stage manager. At this writing the ingenue part in the play hasn't been chosen, but by the next issue, it should be definite. We even have an authentic portrait of Theodore Roosevelt which will lend realism to the authenticity of the properties in the play.
