Beacon Presents "On Waterfront"

"On the Waterfront," a film drama packed with realism, brutality and emotional appeal, comes to the Beacon on Thursday, January 13. Playing a young ex-fighter who has become a hanger-on of a waterfront gang headed by his brother, Marlon Brando gives his best performance to date. Eve Marie Saint and a waterfront priest, Karl Malden, help him break away from the hoodlums. After the death of his brother, Brando goes to the Crime Commission and helps expose the waterfront racketeers.

In her first movie role, Eve Marie Saint gives a unique performance. Before this she starred in many Philco Television Playhouse productions. She also played on Broadway in "A Trip to Bountiful" by Horton Foote. It was while acting in this role that she was discovered for the part in "On the Waterfront."

The movie has been hailed as one of the truly great pictures of the year. Marlon Brando has been named by the New York critics as the best performer of the year.

Now that volleyball is over, the girls are looking forward to action on the basketball courts. This sport is managed by Genie Jacoby and is assisted by Sherry Walther. Tuesday afternoon the beginning players were given clinical instruction by Miss Foehrenbach and a coach from Hunter College. There was a demonstration game held at the end of the afternoon. Playing on these teams were: James, Wurtz, Hooper, Walther, Jacoby, Kammeriohr, Ketz, Dorn, Biddle Roome, Knoblach, and Boukouris with Bendix, J. Ingley, Eckburg and Protzman as alternates.

Many of the tumblers in the beginners group have been moved up to the advanced group. This group is now working hard on routines for the color war.

Resolved!

There comes a time once a year when people sit down, make long lists, and end up with a document very much like the twenty-one demands made upon China by Japan at the end of World War I. That is to say, both pieces of paper list impossible claims or resolutions which, if followed, would result in an individual who is contrary to all the forces of nature. This individual would either become a holy saint or suffer a nervous breakdown.

I have a few tips gleaned from my experience and what I have read. First of all, never do today what can be done tomorrow—even if it means giving Mr. Kezar a careful explanation as to why a history notebook title page lacks a comma between the day of the month and the year. Second, never make more than two resolutions at a time. This is so numerous friends and relatives won't make pointed inquires as to why they weren't kept. Third, if one wants to make an impression on various friends, relatives, and faculty members, pick something insignificant to make a resolution about so it won't be too annoying to keep.
