

Jimmy Flemings

The Port Weekly

Vol. XXVIX—No. 14

Paul D. Schreiber High School, Port Washington, N. Y., March 18, 1955

PRICE: TEN CENTS

Sophs Plan Dance; Girls' Sport's Nite Approaches In Final Plans It's 'Spring Fever'

"Spring Fever," the theme of the sophomore dance, will be held on March 26, 1955 in the cafeteria of PDSHS. The dance will be held from 8:00 p.m. until midnight. Bob Hartman and his "Three Dimensions" will provide the music. Admission is set at $1.00 per couple. Throughout the evening, various types of entertainment will be provided.

Members of the sophomore class who head committees are: refreshments, Barbara Phillips; entertainment, Howard Gibbons, and Noel Certain; decorations, Charles Kezar; publicity, Joan Lindahl and Jerry LeVeen; and tickets, Carol Young. In charge of the dance are the sophomore class officers. These people are: president, Carol Sleight; vice-president, Howard Gibbons; secretary, Jane Ingley; and treasurer, Noel Certain.

1954-55 Basketball Team

Photo by Terzian

Standing, left to right: Ronald Musselwhite, John Schermerhorn, George Palaski, Pete Gale, Allen Pollock, Bob Lincoln, and Coach Costello; kneeling, Ray Saulter, Seamus McGrady, Howard Blakeslee, Ralph Deater, Jim Gilbert, and Paul Nuzzolese; and seated, Ronald Mullon, Eddie Lloyd, Bob Metzger, and Bob Dohm.

As Girls' Sports Night draws near, the excitement of rehearsals and last minute preparations are drawing to a peak. The two teams, the Blues and the Whites, are working hard on their entrances, as well as on cheering and sports.

Whites Plan "Brigadoon"

Amidst a mass of plaid and a definitely Scottish atmosphere, the White team is rehearsing a series of dances carrying out the theme of "Brigadoon." The entrance's story, centered around a small town in the highlands of Scotland, is portrayed by the following dances: "Brigadoon," "MacConnachy Square," "Waiting For My Dearie," "Bonnie Jean," "Heather on the Hill," "Wedding Dance," and "Finale." The White team is under the direction of its six captains, Joan Biscaro, Ann James, Sue Dorn, Mary Williams, Carol Sleight, and Jane Ingly.

(Continued on Page 2)

Student of Week

When a student manages to participate in as many activities as Helen Pomeroy has, and also manages to maintain a top scholastic record, she truly deserves recognition.

The highest achievement of her high school career is maintaining the position of president of Circle. Academically she stands eighth in the senior class with a 1.46 average. In addition she is a member of Celerity, and Clio claims her as their vice-

Helen Pomeroy

(Continued on Page 2)

Students Observe Journalistic Styles

March 10-12 Port Weekly Staff members attended the Annual Convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. On Thursday, the conference was attended by Barbara Brindley, Jean Killam, Bunny Dervin, Heather Green, and Seamus McGrady; on Friday, by Barbara Brindley, Anne Loveland, Jean Killam, Grace Gaeta, and the faculty adviser, Mr. MacIntosh; and on Saturday, by Barbara Brindley, Adelaide Farah, Jean Killam, Anne Loveland, and Barbara Clark.

In the morning they attended tours of various newspaper buildings, including The New York Times and The Daily News. Classes on all phases of journalism were offered at Columbia University in the afternoon, and lectures and discussions were offered to the representatives from school papers from all over the country. The Convention was attended by over 4,500 students. On Saturday a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria was part of the program and the speaker at the luncheon was Sir Leslie Munro, New Zealand Ambassador to the United States and Permanent Delegate to the United Nations.

This year's Varsity, although they have not had a very successful season, have shown good sportsmanship and teamwork throughout the season. The Port Weekly would like to take this opportunity to show its appreciation to the members of the Varsity basketball squad for the hard work they have put in, and the spirit they have shown:

Peter Gale is Port's tall pivot man and is known for his accurate left hand hook shot.

Ronald Musselwhite plays basketball as he played football—always hustling and a great team player.

Jim Gilbert will always be remembered for the Garden City basketball game in which he

(Continued on Page 4)

PDSHS Band Has Successful Evening

For twenty-four years, the Port Washington High School bands have presented successful concerts, but this year is surely going to be remembered as one of their best. The president of the band, Cherry McClure, was untiring in her efforts to organize the program and the countless other jobs. She also made

(Continued on Page 2)

Fratry Is Planning Semiformal Dance

On Saturday night, April 2, the Fraternity boys will sponsor their annual dance which will be held in the Paul D. Schreiber High School cafeteria. The time has been set from nine until one, and admission will be $1.00 per couple. However, the price for stags is $2.00. It has been decided that the dress for the occasion will be semi-formal.

Fratry's president, Roger Musselwhite, is organizing the entertainment and committee plans. He is assisted by the other officers who are vice-president, Paul Nuzzolese; secretary, Peter Fattizzi; and treasurer, Peter Gale. The committees already in operation are for decorations and refreshments.

- March 19; - Girl Scout Dance in cafeteria
- March 25: - Marks close
- March 25: - Girls Sports Night
- March 26: - Soph dance
- March 31: - Exchange assembly Manhasset
- April 1: - Report cards issued

ry 28, 1955

ry 21.

in down- was high

of the day

of the 12C

points in

A.

re perfor-

own 10A.

thirteen

e

c.

RDS &

C

et pply

cks

G.O.

REID

ing

ie,

York

ES

TICS

GIFTS

liesky

hop

ories

ain St.

I.

3022

CE