One of the truly great war stories of our times, James A. Michener's stirring tale of the Navy's jet fliers in the Korean war, "Bridges of Toko-Ri," has been made into a powerful and dramatic motion picture. This recent Oscar nomination will be playing at the Beacon Theatre from March 16 to March 22. Starring Grace Kelly, William Holden, Fredric March, and Mickey Rooney, and in Technicolor, this is not a picture to miss.

The story related in "Bridges of Toko-Ri" is that of the valor and heroism shown by the Navy carrier-based jet pilots and the helicopter rescue teams who fish them out of the icy seas or swoop them up from behind enemy lines when the jets are downed. It is also the personal story of the Admiral, Fredric March, who must stand by as he sends his young pilots out on their deadly missions, and it is the story of one such, Lt. William Holden, whose heroism is a burning tribute to America's fighting men.

Grace Kelly plays Holden's wife, who has come to Tokyo from the States, to be with him on his infrequent leaves. The film vividly portrays Holden's dilemma, involving his devotion to his wife and his loyalty to his country.

Last Friday, at a meeting of the guidance department with the juniors, future plans for education were discussed, and the need for budgeting of time and good study habits were stressed. A decision has been taken to announce class standings to the juniors, and the school's system of ranking was explained. Mr. Scherer and Mrs. Barnhart urge all juniors to come to the guidance office and talk over any problems they may have in deciding on what to do after high school.

It was suggested that juniors planning to go to college take the College Entrance Examinations given in May, for practice. College applications were discussed, and the factors—attendance, marks, personality, etc.—in which colleges are interested for the choosing of candidates. There is much information about colleges and universities available for student usage in the guidance office.
