Cheerleaders. End Successful Season

At the beginning of the cheering season, Nancy Knoblach, Ann Macpherson, Chris Drake, Dina Mori, Sherry Walther, Jane Laughlin, and Gene Jacoby, picked Peggy Wurtz as their captain. Excelling in sports, Peggy is president of the G.A.A. Her many clubs include Circle, Clio, and Celerity.

Chris Drake, who believes fully in good sportsmanship, adds pep and personality to the squad.

Like most of the cheerleaders, Sherry Walther is active in school affairs. She is president of Celerity, and co-editor of the Port Light.

Dina Mori adds pulchritude to the squad as shown by the award she received from an Arnold Constable modeling contest.

Adding height to the squad, Gene Jacoby and Nancy Knoblach are all-around cheerleaders. Gene is secretary of the senior class and Nancy's great personality and efforts in cheering help make the squad complete.

Pep assemblies were planned by the cheerleaders and aided by the boys on the football and basketball squads. Individual cheerleaders took it upon themselves to make posters and announcements to keep up the school spirit. They were also aided by many outsiders.

Girls wishing positions on the cheering squad first must try out, and are required to perform two cheers, P-O-R-T and T-E-A-M. The judges were Mr. Rogo, Miss Foehrenbach, Mr. Hanson, and Ann James. Once they are on the squad, they must attend all practices and they are allowed two illegal absenses during the actual cheering season. The cheerleaders must maintain above an S average in both mastery and attitude in order to remain on the squad.

Miss Foehrenbach said, "They are the best cheerleaders we have had in a long time, in performance, precision, and in spir-it. Next year's cheering team will have to go a long way to match their fine example."

We wish to thank the cheering squad who have contributed so much to the success and en-thusiasm of the games.
