

J.V. Finish Season Tying In 1st Place

Port High's J. V. basketball squad finished its season tied for first place with Garden City with a record of nine wins and four losses.

In honor of this and also because of the fine way they have represented the school, the Port Weekly would like to recognize the fourteen individual players.

Douglas Kirkpatrick - Lanky southpaw, Doug has aided the team not only with his ball playing ability but also with his spirit.

John Jegers - Constantly improving, John plays a hustling defense and a sharp shooting offense.

Sam Markland - Sammy is known for his long set shot, and next year he will be good varsity material.

Al Szabo - Al helped out with the rebounding where his powerful frame was used to great advantage.

Frank Ciffarelli - Frankie was perhaps the flashiest player on the squad and a clutch player as well.

Christ Gale - Chris is the team's high scorer with a 10.4 game average.

Charles Kezar - Charlie used his height to advantage when he shot his favorite shot, a hook shot, and also in rebounding.

Bob Dell - Bobby is known for his driving layups and soft onehand set shot.

David Newton - Dave is a smart ball handler and passer, besides carrying his share of the scoring responsibility.

John Kirkman - Johnny, one of the starting five, came through in some tight spots with his long set shot.

Mike Perricone - Mike, the tallest man on the squad, will be able to use his height advantage next year on varsity as well as he did this year on J.V.

Noel Certain - A springy center, Noel could be seen making jump shots and rebounding because of his high jumping ability.

Howie Davis - Howie is a tricky player who likes to take unorthodox shots and he usually makes them too.

Howard Gibbons - Howie is the team's playmaker and a godsend to any coach who wants a steady, unselfish, team player.

This year's J.V. manager, Ray Sautler, is to be commended for the fine, reliable job he did this year.

Mineola, basketball champions of the North Shore League, met and were defeated by the South Shore's Lynbrook, 51-48 last Friday night, at Hofstra College.

Hugh Gallagher was the night's high scorer with 31 points, but he failed to get the support of the other four members of the Maroon Squad, and in the last two minutes of play, the Lynbrook Owls were able to freeze the ball whereby winning the County Championship.
