

Leslie Caron Stars In "Glass Slipper"

Leslie Caron and Michael Wilding are the stars of "The Glass Slipper," which comes to the Beacon Theatre on May 29. The classic Cinderella story, filmed in color, has been set in a mythical, mid-European village and countryside of the eighteenth century. The film has many spectacular dancing sequences, with Leslie Caron and Michael Wilding assisted by the famous Ballet de Paris.

Heading the supporting cast are Keenan Wynn, Elsa Lancaster, Estelle Winwood, Amanda Blake, Lisa Daniels, and Lucrece Tuttle.

"The Glass Slipper" is brought to the screen by the same producer, director, writer and composer team that made Leslie Caron's last picture, "Lili," such an outstanding success that it played for two years at a New York theatre. The film was directed by Charles Walters and produced by Edwin H. Knopf.

high scholastic average of 1.6.

One of Chris' major activities has been cheering. As a junior she was on the jayvee squad and as a senior on the varsity. She has also been in Modern Dance, and this year became a member of the Honor Group. Her other sports activities have been jayvee hockey, varsity basketball, riding, tumbling, jayvee volleyball, badminton, and varsity softball.

Her other activities include Port Light, Port Weekly, and publicity for the Senior Ball. Her hobbies are sailing and riding. Chris owns her own boat. She also likes agriculture and plans to do some studying on the subject when she enters college. She hopes to go to Cornell, where she will major in Liberal Arts.

This was a new addition to the carnival which was constructed by the homeroom. Another new addition was the Rolling Hills Farm exhibit contributed by Mr. Scherer. For coming closest to guessing the number of beans in the jar, Judy Perkins won a handball game.

"I would like to give special recognition to Cherry McClure for all the work she did on the carnival," said Mr. Scott. "She drove students around town to collect money for chancebook sales and cleaned up the day after the carnival."

Boy's Slate Choice

tual participation the boys share the duties, responsibilities, and privileges of American citizenship. Every boy has an active part in some phase of state or city government; he learns that his government is just what he makes it. It is a program of educational Americanism and course in practical civics. Each of the boys is selected because of qualifications of scholarship, leadership, and sportsmanship.
