Seniors To Attend PDSHS'ers Earn
Religious Service Scholarship Help

On June 19, at 8:00 in the high school auditorium, the Class of 1955 will hold their annual Baccalaureate Exercises. Parents and relatives of seniors are also invited to this service which will be conducted by Reverend Jerome P. Holland, Pastor of St. Peter of Alcantra.

"Thou Knowest Lord, The Secrets Of Our Hearts" will be sung by the choir. Reverend Holland will then give his address and everyone will sing "America, the Beautiful." The benediction will be given by Rev. Holland, and then the choir will sing "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

Many of the Seniors of PDSHS have won scholarships from various colleges and Universities throughout the United States.

Mike Ciminera has received a $4,000 full tuition scholarship from R.P.I.; Joe Rezek, $500 from the Elks; Pete Gale received a complete costs scholarship to Webb Institute and a $1,400 scholarship from the N.Y.S. Board of Regents, and Bill Wagner, $3,200 from Syracuse.

Robert Metzger has received $250 from Food Fair for use at Cornell. Bob also received the Alternate Grumman Aircraft scholarship. Barbara Clark was the recipient of a $1,400 Regents scholarship, and Marion Sadler received a complete costs scholarship for the Air Force Academy.

Winners of the Bogart, G. O., Community, and 50-50 shop scholarships will be announced at graduation.

ton from Syracuse, New York. As a sophomore she joined Junior Red Domino. She participated in basketball intramurals and went out for archery and modern dance.

As a junior, Barbara quickly moved up to the position of Associate Editor on the Port Weekly, and gained the pseudonym of "Sergeant Week-End." Barbara's voice was heard in choir, and she became a majorette, adding the newly-organized Biology Club to her growing list of activities. A member of post dance, she also appeared in the Modern Dance Recital. Barbara went out for volleyball and took part in the annual Girls' Sports Night.

Though her job as Editor of the Port Weekly took up a large portion of her time, Barbara continued to add activities in her senior year. Her scholastic average enabled her to join Circle, and she also joined the Port Light staff. As a member of Red Domino, Barbara was publicity manager and co-make-up director for the spring play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." Basketball and Sports Night claimed her presence, as did the Modern Dance Recital. Barbara was also chance-book chairman for her homeroom.

Among her interests outside school, Barbara names ice skating, swimming, sewing, and sailing. She also teaches a Sunday School class at her church. September will find Barbara at Weaver College in Jenkinstown, Pennsylvania, where she will major in elementary education.

GAA Officers Tell '56 - '57 Managers

This year's Girls' Athletic Association Banquet was held on June 2. Dr. Hall, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Hendrickson, Principal, were the guest speakers. Mrs. Barnhardt, Miss Smith, Miss Doherty, and Mrs. Horton were other guests.

Annual awards were given and next year's G.A.A. officers were announced; Diana Kammerlohr was elected president; Sue Dorn, vice-president; and Mary Williams, secretary. Managers for next year are Margaret Mamet, volleyball; Bobby Johnson, hockey; Priscilla Ketz, basketball; Karla Klumpp, tumbling; Bonnie Besold and Nancy Roome, modern dance; Eileen Mahoney, riding; Sheila Kane, archery; Vija Vuskaln, tennis; and Yvonne Robb, softball.

High scorers for their classes were senior class, Ann James; junior class, Mary Williams; and sophomore class, Betsy Ingley. Miss Foehrenbach and Peggy Wurtz, this year's president of the G.A.A. gave speeches congratulating the girls for their hard work, especially on Sports Night and the Modern Dance Recital.
