

atorian

Rowley

to move himself turned to science and has let the ar behind. The all on science manities are all he rear. It is a n we find Eng-similar subjects
e, music, and re-against this idea
t if we look at see that in high received a back-areas, a back-enable us to
with us al-study them any-them to enjoy en we are off
administration, s, biology, meutics, we can ember what we gh school and h of knowledge
ure. This then ize, yet, but do tter things in ilable always.
pushed out of more powerful ce can invent,
our lives more l at the point s of our own, and we must is we go our college, some some to im-
some to sell Angeles Dod-

Senior Prophecy

Lewis Neil Aaron—will return as a tall man in the circus.
Sandra Joan Allen—will be a stewardess on Bill Watson's plane.
Robert H. Anderson—will be Benny Goodman's replacement.
Carmela Angiuli—will come back to haunt Mr. Wilkinson.
Stephanie Aptel—will be a ballet dancer.
Laurence F. Asher—will replace Einstein.
Chester Baffa—will be a disc jockey.
Cynthia Baldwin—will be an announcer for Mary Backstage, Noble Wife.
Barbara Ann Eansch and Marilyn Kramer—will soon be cooking for two.
James Baron—will come back to haunt Mr. Hellems.
Marianne Bendiks—will win the safe-driving award.
Charlotte Marie Biddle—will be the first lady umpire.
William Bilardello—will become a witch doctor.
Shirley Anne Bingham—will be a barker for the circus.
Rosamond Blakeslee—will leave her attendance card to another truant student.
Carol Suzanne Boehme—will be caught between her batons.
Florence Sylvia Boynton—will have a successful life.
Philip Owen Brady—will be the second "Fat Daddy".
James Leeman Brownlee—will be Skipper of a tug boat company.
Judith F. Buck—will be Ed Mc Guire's campaign manager when he runs for Governor of N. Y.
Charles William Burkhardt—will be irregular at the age of 35.
John Alexander Calabrese—will return as truent officer of PDSHS.
Richard L. Caputo—Sam-the-man will be replaced by Richie-the-man.
Noel L. E. Certain—will return as a champion broad jumper.
Maryanne Chadzuika—will dance her way to stardom.
Katherine Chedsky and Cliff—will head for Maryland on a bicycle built for two.
Victor Richard Ciminera—will take over the A&P food chair.
Elizabeth Colonna—will stop trying to do something and get something done.
Thomas Conrad—will return as a criminal lawyer.
John Donald Costello—will teach lighting bugs morse code.
Thomas M. Covino and Diane Rohn—will live "cheaper by the dozen".
Constance J. Cruikshank—will be shoe shine girl.
Donald Cumiskey—will be the next postmaster general.
Chester Curry—will return in two years to find Madeline in the arms of . . .
Arthur Cyr—will head an African safari.
Patricia Dahmen—will go to Hollywood to visit all the movie stars.
Charles Gerald Davis—will be champion of the Podunk open golf tournament.

Ralph De Bari—will return to teach first period printing class how to dance.
Sylvia DeMee—will return to help in the office.
Jan Desmone—will lecture on "Why Not to Take Chemistry".
Marcia Nancy Deriu—will return to keep Jo Ann out of trouble.
Arthur DeVoe—will be Emily Post's assistant.
James Dobson—will become Dale Carnegie's rival.
Antoinette Domenech—will gain her fame as a lady wrestler.
Antonia Donno—will run for Miss Rheingold 1960.
Elizabeth Duell—will become a model.
Lynn Duncan—will join the WACS.
Robert Duncan—will be concert master of the Belgian Congo Drum and Bugle Corps.
Barbara Dzielinski, Dick Bray and Ellen Graf and Fred Kellner—will meet at the altar.
William Eastman—will spend the summer at Glen Cove High School.
Loretta Eato—will play the piano with all fours.
Robert Eaton—will return as a millionaire.
Margaret Edwards—will return as the highest paid playtex girdle tester.
Donald Feinman—will be a bare-back rider in a flea circus.
Harold Fischel—will always be remembered as one of Mr. Pickett's top honor students.
Brenda Fleet—will raise guinea pigs for research.
Heywood Fleisig—will rent his Nash out for the weekends.
Edward Foss—will be president of Adler's Elevator Shoes.
Richard Franklin—will be a well-known matodor.
Robert Fried—will know where the yellow went.
Phyllis Friedman—will keep out of trouble—we hope!
Alice E. Friese—will be an old maid.
Linda L. Fuhlbrugge—will live it up.
Grace Gaita—will be a trouble-fiend.
Christopher Gale—will be sent to jail for bigamy.
Charles Garvey—will return as public enemy #1.
Charles Gately—will go to Alaska to teach Eskimos how to swim.
Arthur George—will return with black hair.
Sidney Niebe Georgiou—next mayor of Manorhaven.
Catherine Giagu—will start buying her clothes in the 50-50 shop.
Joseph Howard Gibbons—will return as a date counsellor.
William Godfrey—will return as a cartoonist for "Mad" comics.
Summer Gordon—will be Port's new Chemistry teacher.
Frank Grace—will be king of the waterfront.
Vernon Gray—will be a mouse trap keeper.
Lesley Griffin—will be the bass for Metropolitan opera.
Jeanne Guenard—will teach her professors at Skidmore.
Gordon Gulick—will replace Mickey Mantle.
Robert Hammond—will never be the same.

Linda Hansen—will be the first lady of the land.
Helen Harding—will have a riding stable for all exiled Riding Managers.
John Harding Jr.—will come back as a disciplinarian.
Melissa Haynes—will be first woman on the Supreme Court.
Thomas Hehn—will return with a carload of girls.
Jane Heidtmann—will return as a blonde.
Susan Heller—will start a new dictionary of slang.
Wendy Heyer—will lead the twenty mule team for borax.
John Hooper—will sing in "La Traviata".
John Houghton—will work hard at doing nothing.
John Hunter—will be the next Rip Van Winkle.
Susan Hurd—will return driving a maroon Ford.
Bob Iannucci—will put them in stitches in the hospital.
Elizabeth Ingley—will sell her pony tail to bald-headed Sally.
Jane Ingley—will have to make a big decision in the near, near future.
Ralph Innella Jr.—will be one of the world's most successful jockeys.
Leonard Intrieri and John Isoldi—will become tycoons on Wall Street.
Leon Jankowski—will be a champion hog caller.
John Jegers—will prove that Polident hides denture breath.
Beatrice Johansen—will spend her honeymoon at the roller skating rink.
William Johnston—will join the Navy and . . .
Valerie Kagan—will go back to Catalina.
Phyllis Kalista—will join the Marines.
Sheila Kane—will set up tents for the boy scouts.
Catherine Kelly—will win the Irish Sweepstakes and buy the Blarney Stone.
William Kern—will establish the world's first fool-proof memory course.
Charles Kezar—will be a channel swimmer for the U. S.
John Kirkman—will move to Australia so he can have plenty of room to throw his Javelin.
Douglas Kirkpatrick—will be a lawyer for Dave Beck.
Sybella Kittilsen—will be a model.
Paul Kronbergs—will return as chance book selling champion of R P I.
Ruth Landwer—will come back to give a hand to next year's year-book staff.
Dennis Langley—will be president of the story telling club.
Arlene Laugen—will be a songwriter.
Mary Alice LeCour—will collect Little Bugs for her hobby.
Carmella Leone—will conduct tours in Italy.
William LeVein—will have his picture in all post offices.
Edward Lewis—will drop his transmission in a hurry to leave school.
Joan Lindahl—will win an art contest.

John Logan, Jr.—will be a guide on an interplanetary ship to Mars.
Joseph Longobardi—will be a bachelor.
George Luna—will play center for the N. Y. Knicks.
Mary Ellen Mackay—will lead a very happy life.
Huxley Thomas Madeheim—will graduate from Harvard.
Carole Magrath—will have her own telephone operator for early morning calls.
Louis Malewicz—will sell his car to Florence Siegel.
Joseph Malivuk—will operate a still in the Black Hill Mts.
Margaret Mamet—will start buying Cavaliers for Roger.
Ronald Manaker—will return to sell review boks to Mr. Pickett.
Marianne Mannie Pickett—will light candles for Liberace.
Katherine Marbut—will return as a laundry woman.
David Martin—will build a bridge over the Pacific Ocean.
Susan Martinear—will teach ducks how to waddle.
Gloria Mapes—will be a traveling secretary.
Jesse Marsano—will be a golf instructor.
Raymond Mayo—will be an orchestra leader.
Mary McAll—will return finally knowing what she's talking about.
Jeremy McCue—will be president of the U. S.
William McFaul—will be an A-1 bartender.
Robert McGookin—will work in a brewery.
Mary Gene McMullin—will prove an assumed theorem.
Ronald Meadows—will spend half his life trying to get untangled from his recordings tapes.
Edward Meyer—will be a mad-inventor.
Peter Meyer—will be a basketball star.
Jessica Milkowski—will return with braids.
Emily Miller—will return a big family.
Stella Mitsos—will be a business executive.
Thomas Moffett—will be America's next John Steinbeck.
Robert Moore—will sell Carter's Little Liver Pills.
Jose Morales—will be a hairdresser.
Harvey Moskowitz—will return as manager of the Apollo Theatre.
Maryann Muldoon—will finally learn to drive Tommy's car.
John Murnane—will be a taxi driver.
Brenda Murray—will return to keep an eye on her brother.
Elizabeth Murray—will return with many friends.
Katherine Mussen—will be a pussy cat keeper for Chaing Kai-Chek.
Peter Nakelski—will do-it-himself.
Michael Nelly—will take Geritol for his tired blood.
Thomas Newman—will take over Mr. Wilkinson's job.
Elizabeth Nielsen—will win a trip to Europe for three.
Mady Nemiroff—will return from knocking them dead in the morgue.

(Continued on page 5)