

Senior Class Will

Neil Aaron—leaves a 30 lb. bowling ball to Jack Neely.
 Sandra Allen — leaves with Bill Watson.
 Bob Anderson—leaves his bike to Mr. Neff.
 Carmela Angiuli — leaves making pizzas on Broadway.
 Stephanie Aptel—leaves the T. D. Larry Asher—leaves working.
 Chester Baffa—leaves his cowboy hat to his sister.
 Ginnie Baldwin—leaves late as usual.
 John Kirkman—leaves close behind.
 Barbara Bansch—leaves to become happily married.
 James Baron—leaves his creative writing to "Doc".
 Marianne Bendiks—leaves a strip of rubber down Campus Drive.
 Charlotte Biddle—leaves Mr. Pickett alone.
 Bill Bilardello—leaves a piano to Arthur Wanser.
 Shirley Bingham—leaves her sacroiliac to Mr. Neff for special diagnosis.
 Steve Blaine and Judy Stewart—leave an empty parking space at Bar Beach.
 Rosamond Blakeslee — leaves her name on the absentee list.
 Carol Boeme—leaves the headaches of leading the majorettes to Marianne Brindley.
 Florence Boynton—left a little earlier than the rest of us but has come back to graduate with us.
 Phil Brady—leaves his guitar at the town dock.
 Dick Bray—leaves his jokes to be compiled into "The Best of PDSHS".
 Jimmy Brownlee—leaves for Florida with Bill Eastman to take care of some unfinished business.
 Judy Buck—leaves the deer in her name.
 Bill Burkhardt—leaves his spirit to Mr. Mock.
 John Calabrese — leaves with a crew-cut.
 Richie Caputo—leaves 3 used saxophones and 42 broken reeds.
 Noel Certain—leaves in 8 seconds flat.
 Maryanna Chadzuitka—leaves her long blond hair to Sally Page.
 Kay Cheosky—leaves with Cliff.
 Victor Ciminera—leaves his job in the A&P to Mr. Pickett.
 Elizabeth Colonna — leaves her questions to Mrs. Johnson.
 Tom Conrad—leaves a free lubrication to Mr. Machenny's Chrysler.
 Don Costello—leaves his broad jumping ability to Bruce Armbruster.
 Tom Covino and Diane Rohn — leave together.
 Connie Cruickshank—leaves quietly.
 Don Cumisky—leaves his piercing voice to Mr. Seeber.
 Chester Curry—leaves for Fort Schyler.
 Arthur Cyr—leaves for the bowling alley.
 Pat Dahmen — leaves her quiet voice to Mr. Kezar.

Jerry Davis—leaves a Brahma cow to Mr. Johnson.
 Ralph DeBari—leaves his car to Sue Granby.
 Sylvia DeMeo—leaves her position in the office to Carol Spector.
 Nancy Deriu—leaves her sister to bother the teachers.
 Jean Desmone—leaves after being here for a short time.
 Arthur DeVoe—leaves for Kiddy City.
 James Dodson—leaves the hurdles all knocked down.
 Toni Domenech—leaves her acting ability to Sue Merkle.
 Toni Donno—leaves a few inches to Dotty Dell.
 Liz Duell—leaves looking neat as usual.
 Lynn Duncan—leaves regretfully.
 Bob Duncan—leaves his violin to Bill Smith.
 Barbara Dzielinski—leaves hoping to shorten her name.
 Loretta Eato—leaves three years wiser than when she entered.
 Bob Eaton—leaves his height to Ray Lumi.
 Margaret Edwards — leaves her wardrobe to Red Domino.
 Donald Feinman—leaves a lock of hair to Mr. Pickett.
 Harold Fishel—leaves with a large Spanish vocabulary.
 Brenda Fleet—leaves Mrs. Graham.
 Heywood Fleisig—leaves his name to anyone who can figure it out.
 Edward Foss—leaves trying to trade in his car for a piper cub.
 Dick Franklin—leaves a camera to Buzzy Gaita.
 Bob Fried—leaves Rock and Roll to all the Jocko fans.
 Phyllis Friedman — leaves with more than one boy.
 Alice Friese—leaves saying "I really dig it".
 Linda Fuhlbrugge—leaves saying "This is your student announcer Linda Fuhlbrugge."
 Grace Gaeta—leaves her turtles.
 Chris Gale—leaves his little black book to Jim Tucker.
 Charles Garvey—leaves smiling.
 Charles Gately—leaves right after graduation.
 Arthur George—leaves his crowning glory to Liz Tervoe.
 Sidney Georgiou—leaves the manuscript of his latest book, "Practical Bullslinging".
 Catherine Giagu—leaves the soph boys to the soph girls.
 Howie Gibbons—leaves the girls all shook up.
 Bill Godley—leaves his sketches of all teachers for the lobby bulletin board.
 Sumner Gordon—leaves his Boston accent to Mr. Pickett.
 Frank Grace—leaves behind all forms of liquor, but takes his cards with him.
 Ellen Graf—leaves, but she's not going far.
 Vernon Gray—leaves with a smile.
 Lesley Griffin — leaves her charge accounts to all those who want to see Miracle Mile reduced to inches.
 Jeanne Guenard—leaves the goose to the gander.
 Gordon Gulick —leaves by way of the library window.
 Bob Hammond — leaves for Las Vegas trying to beat the machines.

Linda Hansen — leaves chemistry to the juniors.
 Helen Harding—leaves Rita Goldstein to liven up the band trips.
 John Harding — leaves dropping glasses out of hotel windows.
 Tom Hehn — leaves his greasy overalls to Mr. Wilkinson.
 Jane Heidtmann—leaves the College Board vocabulary to some ambitious fool.
 Susan Heller — leaves the headaches of compiling the literary magazine.
 Wendy Heyer — leaves modeling for Ronnie.
 John Houghton—leaves his name "chicken" to Tom Dewey.
 John Hooper—leaves to sing at Las Vegas.
 John Hunter — leaves his good looks to anyone who wants them.
 Sue Hurd — leaves her dancing shoes to Barbara Greenhouse.
 Bob Ianucci—leaves without Patty.
 Betsey Ingley — leaves minus her pony tail.
 Jane Ingley — leaves her boy troubles.
 Ralph Innella — leaves two free tickets to Slenderella.
 Leonard Interieri — leaves his flashlight to the next usher at the Beacon Theatre.
 John Isoldi — leaves his gyp sheets to Mrs. Johnson.
 Leon Jankowski — leaves a fresh can of midnight oil to Todd Anuskewicz.
 John Jegers—leaves a smile for all his teachers.
 Beatrice Johnsen — leaves everything that she doesn't want.
 Bill Johnston — leaves his curly red locks to Mr. MacIntosh.
 Valerie Kagan—leaves for Tommy Dorsey's band.
 Phyllis Kalista — leaves for the marines.
 Sheila Kane — leaves her car in the parking lot for those who want to gyp a class.
 Fred Kellner — leaves dragging a cop.
 Catherine Kelly — leaves 107.
 Bill Kern — leaves his tennis sweater to Diana Hulbert.
 Charles Kezar — leaves the headaches of the Student Council to Bill Rayner.
 Doug Kirkpatrick — leaves all Port Weekly articles to Mad magazine.
 Sue Kittilsen—leaves in an orange and white Olds.
 Marilyn Kramer — leaves with her engagement ring.
 Paul Kronbergs—leaves his chance books behind.
 Ruth Landwer — leaves a chocolate carvel.
 Dennis Langley — leaves without finishing his history notebook.
 Arlene Laugen—leaves being nice to everyone.
 Maryalice LeCour — leaves her height to Barbara Gilbert.
 Carmela Leone — leaves behind an "H".
 Jerry LeVeon — leaves his wit to Blanche.
 Tom Lewis — leaves his name carved in many desks.
 Joan Lindahl — leaves for the left bank of the Seine.
 John Logan — leaves what's left of his Lincoln to his father.
 Joe Longobardi — leaves shortly.
 George Luna — leaves his cough to Fudd.

Huxley Madeheim — leaves as one of Mr. Pickett's favorite music students.
 Carole Magrath—leaves to become the next Dina Mori.
 Louis Malewicz— leaves in Flo Siegel's car by mistake.
 Joe Malivuk — leaves his football ability to next year's squad . . . They'll probably need it.
 Margaret Mamet — leaves as a good friend of Mr. Pickett.
 Ronald Manaker — leaves Regents review books in Chemistry to Mr. Pickett.
 Kay Marbut — leaves her Chevrolet because it won't make it to Michigan.
 Dave Martin — leaves peeling out.
 Sue Martineau — leaves her "big act" to Jeanne Sherr.
 Gloria Mapes — leaves Scottie's fourth period.
 Ray Mayo and Jesse Marsano bestow peace upon Mrs. Graham by leaving homeroom.
 Mary McAll — leaves with a test for a nitrate.
 Jerry McCue — leaves without saying goodbye to all the teachers.
 Bill McFaul — leaves hoping to become the manager of his own town dock.
 Bob McGookin — leaves his shyness.
 Mary McMullin — and Marianne Mannier leave quietly.
 Ronald Meadows — leaves his position as special advisor to Mr. Christopher to Richard Verdi.
 Edward Meyer — leaves his geiger counter to Mr. Pickett.
 Pete Meyer — leaves a fratry jacket to "Rocky".
 Jessica Milowski — leaves the ski in her name to take up golf.
 Emily Miller — leaves as nice as always.
 Stella Mitsos and Mickey — leave the senior banquet chewing gum.
 Tom Moffett — leaves sarcastically.
 Bob Moore — leaves a broken fourwood to the caddy-master at North Hempstead.
 Jose Morales — leaves his knowledge of Spanish to Mrs. Englebert.
 Harvey Moskowitz — leaves his mountain climbing shoes.
 Maryanne Muldoon — leaves to work in the A & P with Tom.
 John Murnane — leaves his car for his brother to use.
 Brenda Murray and Elizabeth Murray — leave knowing that both of their last names will soon be changed.
 Katherine Mussen — leaves for China.
 Pete Nakelski — leaves Mr. Wilkinson.
 Judy Tangerman — leaves her sowing machine to Molly Metracardi.
 Barbara Tervoe — leaves her "tervove Mark" to Helene Curtiss.
 Don Treat — leaves his knowledge of World War Two to Scottie.
 Larry Tuck — leaves Chester's Garage on foot.
 Paula Van Bodegraven — leaves sawing away at that fiddle.
 Ned Van Ripper — leaves everyone very impressed.
 Bob Violante and Melissa — leave the bowling alleys in peace.
 Judy Wagner — leaves the boys alone.

(Continued on page 7)

Senior Proph
 (Continued
 Barbara O' Bri
 a midget.
 Deborah O'Reill
 in burping a Richard Passa pilot.
 George Paterso
 blues.
 Judith Perkins question "Wh love?"
 Elissa Petermar
 the incredible
 Eileen Petersen between Port
 Thomas Peterso because they dough.
 William Peppin
 let dancer.
 Mary Jo Priche
 lights.
 Mary Anna Rash
 phone operato
 Elizabeth Rayne
 dribbling.
 Robert Reed—w
 er's boat yard.
 Clare Reffelt — writing.
 Charles Reiner
 great lover.
 Robert Rhoades
 next year to t
 Susan Riley—wil
 Yvonne Robb—w
 first ladies bas
 Richard Robins
 "Little Fooler"
 Robert Roth—w
 teeth after eve
 Robert Rowley—vac
 Vito Ruggiero—dianapolis 500
 James Runyon—Rowley.
 Robert Saccacea
 black hair.
 Elizabeth Salerno
 root to Conn.
 Walter Shendel—
 truck all sum
 Rachelle Schindl uniforms for a Nancey Schlingh
 in her sister's
 Ann Schneider—
 cord for the 10
 Diane Scheweder
 a Mohawk.
 Mary Melissa Sh
 how to drive i
 Florence Seigel
 first baby boy
 Geraldine Silkans
 to sweep up
 tubes in the ch
 Charles Slavensk
 known as mello
 Carole Sleght—w
 T. V. program
 Per Sonning —
 Norwegian
 Myrna Speck—wi
 on Alden Lane
 Warren Spence — hattan" back to Bruce Stark—will lifter.
 Florence Starr—sprinter.
 Ruth Sternberg brains preserve
 Judith Stewart a
 —will be seen
 Port Label.