

Elected Banquet

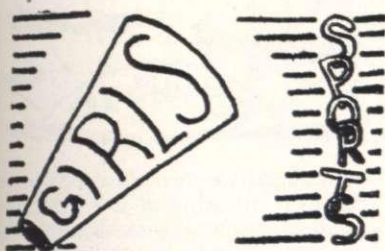

banquet was held on June 4. At the banquet, presided by the Modern Dance Club, a special dinner was served by the GAA. Speeches by the following: Fredrickson, the president of the GAA, and Miss Mallett. Next will be the presentation of the trophies. The following are the winners: Miss Mallett, Miss "F", and Miss "G". The following are the winners of the various sports: Miss Mallett, Miss "F", and Miss "G".

highest number of votes. The following are the winners of the various sports: Miss Mallett, Miss "F", and Miss "G".

are made. Round trips are arranged for the year. The following are the winners of the various sports: Miss Mallett, Miss "F", and Miss "G".

ent on the. she must be in good body of the. participating in. ing the last member of. in good

Port Wash- Janet and untry from me has not The $650 to sponsor donated by organiza- the school our coun- ort will be ents for a People in- dent for contact Mr. usan Riley.

Tuesday night's banquet marked the end of the girls' sports season. Though many of us will go to different and bigger things, memories are very important. Besides our two gym teachers, Miss Mallett and Miss "F", we will never forget . . . those fresh sophs and the party we gave them . . . getting out the clumsy sticks . . . the long charges up the field . . . finding out how out-of-condition we were . . . the cry of "sticks" from the sidelines . . . the exciting rides to and from Lake View Stables . . . Bebe almost hitting the ground . . . the frost bitten cheerleaders captained by Jane Ingley . . . the uncooperative rooters huddled in the grandstands . . . clean shirts and shorts for J. V. cheering tryouts . . . the judge's evil eye . . . big turnout for volleyball . . . six games being played and only four courts . . . "spike it" . . . "the net's too high" . . . the net in the way of the serve . . . the back-aching post dance classes . . . "don't expect an H unless you warm up" . . . that green marking book staring you in the eye . . . winter accompanied by basketball . . . Bendicks' wild hook shots . . . two guards on one forward . . . "where's that technique, girls?" . . . Betsy sure can guard . . . the red, blue and unidentifiable pinnies . . . first experience with a big crowd for J. V. cheerleaders. "Yea Man" . . . the red and white lights of the majorettes' batons . . . "who draped it?" . . . the start of color war with the choosing of captains . . . "Holidayland and Disneyland On Parade" . . . those overcrowded practices . . . the repetition of the records . . . blue and white cheers echoing throughout the halls . . . building pyramids . . . "who toppled over?" . . . posters throughout the school . . . "Mickey Mouse-Ugh" . . . mass practices in the gym . . . "missed my cue" . . . those tight white cheering costumes . . . last minute rips . . . the arrival of the great night and the uneaten dinner . . . "I have butterflies" . . . the immense crowds, blinding lights, and scared you . . . Myrna, Barbara, and Betsy helping Father Time . . . the relay races and field dodgeball games . . . "hit her as

Senior Class Will

(Continued from page 5)
 Stephen Waite — leaves his last name at Slenderella.
 Rocky Walter — leaves his car so Jane won't have to walk home next year.
 Phyllis Weatherly — leaves her blonde hair to Linda Robinson.
 Gary Wheeler — leaves —again.
 Henry Williams — leaves math to Mr. Horton.
 Carol Young — leaves a little older.
 Marilyn Zieg — leaves bringing up the rear in fine style.
 Bill Zwakels — leaves even behind Darylin.
 Michel Neely — leaves behind his left-handed banjo.

she rounds the pole" . . . the basketball game with the Valentine children and cats cheering . . . the tense face on each girl as she did her routine . . . the silence as Miss "F" read the scores . . . blues the winner . . . the joy of the victor and acceptance of the whites . . . the great feeling, whether winner or loser, in knowing that a well fought battle was finally ended . . . the approaching modern dance recital . . . "Joan of Arc", starring Mamet . . . Speck doing "Nightmare" . . . "do the safety pins show?" . . . hats off to Perkins and Hurd . . . spring sports . . . the target keeps moving . . . Sleght never misses . . . the tennis team practicing against the brick walls in back of the gym . . . Vija Vuskaln's deadly shots . . . the helpful student teachers . . . the always improving varsity . . . the under rated J. V. . . . and finally the banquet . . . Margaret's farewell speech . . . the awards for those outstanding girls in each sport . . . the poem which revealed next year's managers . . . the sadness which came at the end of the banquet because it meant, for some, the close of all activities at PDSHS . . . the inspiration to the others remaining to try harder next year.

S. F. FALCONER GREENHOUSES
 South Maryland Avenue
 Port Washington, N. Y.
 PO 7-0866 F.T.D. Member

You can shop and work at
NASSAU STORES
 41 Main St., Port Washington

Automobile Insurance - Any Age Car or Driver
 Low down payment - monthly installments
 Class 2C (Single, male owner under age 25)
 Premium: $260.40 - down payment only $60.40

Everitt J. Hehn, Insurance
 51 Main St., Port Washington, N. Y. PO 7-0047

FREE: One Popular Record (78 & 45) FOR EVERY EIGHT PURCHASED AT MANHASSET MUSIC CENTER
 451-453 PLANDOME ROAD MANhasset 7-5360

Tom Newman — leaves his nickname to the wood shop.
 Elizabeth Nielsen — leaves a lot of friends.
 Mady Sandra Nemiroff — leaves some of her friendliness to Sue Kumm.
 John Nuzzolesa — leaves his chess set to Bill Bockel.
 Barbara O'Brien — leaves her French Dictionary to Lynda Marvin.
 Debby O'Reilly and Schneider — leave burping.
 Richard Passarella — leaves his set of weights to Miss Duffy.
 George Paterson — leaves his freckles to Mrs. Englebert.
 Judy Perkins — leaves her dancing ability to Melinda Kernochan.
 Ellissa Peterman — leaves dramatically through the front door.
 Eileen Peterman — leaves to join Frankie.
 Brad Pipping — leaves without saying "good-bye" to all the teachers.
 Mary Jo Richer — leaves Mrs. Johnson's little "quickies."
 Elizabeth Raynor — leaves her brother to take care of the student council.
 Bob Reed — leaves his "Merc" to Mrs. Johnson so she won't have to walk.
 Clare Reffelt and Nancy Rasher — leave remembering their hap-

Everyone Meets Everyone at THE ALCOVE
 "THE SPOT TO STOP"

Port Washington 7-3677
HOUSE BEAUTIFUL KITCHENS, INC.
 Mildred L. Straub-Frederic E. Straub
 686 Port Washington Blvd.
 Port Washington

JOHN M. MARINO
 Port's Friendly Jeweler
 100 Main St.
 Graduation rings for any year made to order

THE SURF
 Italian-American Restaurant
 Ravioli - Spaghetti - LaSagna
 Famous for our Delicious Crispy Pizza Pies
 Come in and See RCA COLOR TV
 155 Manorhaven Blvd.
 PO 7-9780

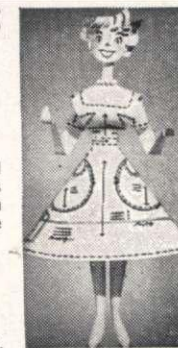

py high school days.
 Charles Reiner — leaves Fraternity.
 Robert Rhoades — leaves his position as Mr. Pickett's special assistant.
 Sue Riley — leaves millions of note cards on her many speeches about her trips.
 Yvonne Robb — leaves for Texas.
 Dick Robinson — leaves for Union City.
 Bob Roth — leaves his 25 cent novels to Mrs. Corson.
 Bob Rowley — leaves a few tips to Bert Lewis.
 Vito Ruggiero — leaves the gas station.
 Jim Runyon — leaves his chess playing ability to Bill Vockel.
 Robert Saccoccia — leaves for Manhattan.
 Elizabeth Salerno — leaves nothing; she wants everything she's got.
 Walter Schendel — leaves his truck for future Carnivals.
 Rachelle Schindler — leaves living up.
 Nancy Schlinghyde — leaves her her twirls to Macy's revolving doors.
 Diane Schweder — leaves her na-

NEED ART SUPPLIES? VISIT NEWMARK
 Paint and Wallpaper Company
 16 Haven Avenue
 Port Washington 7-3022

Port Floor Covering
 Linoleum - Kentile
 Cork - Formica Tops
 16 Haven Ave. PO 7-3933

FRANK'S ESSO SERVICE CENTRE
 749 Port Washington Blvd.
 Port Washington, N. Y.
 Phone PO 7-9781
 Frank Pisarki Proprietor

"I LIKE CLOTHES THAT ARE SMART AND SLICK..."

And just one thing will do the trick! says Simplicity Pat. Learn her secrets on the TED STEELE BANDSTAND WOR-TV, EVERY WEEKDAY AT 5:00 E. S. T.
 SIMPLICITY PRINTED PATTERNS

the Derians
 dry cleaning and shirt laundry
 Same Day Service
PORT WASHINGTON BLVD. OPP. POST OFFICE